Was the Cat in the Hat Black? Philip Nel, 2017-07-10 Racism is resilient duplicitous and endlessly adaptable so it is no surprise that America is again in a period of civil rights activism A significant reason racism endures is because it is structural it s embedded in culture and in institutions One of the places that racism hides and thus perhaps the best place to oppose it is books for young people Was the Cat in the Hat Black presents five serious critiques of the history and current state of children s literature tempestuous relationship with both implicit and explicit forms of racism The book fearlessly examines topics both vivid such as The Cat in the Hat s roots in blackface minstrelsy and more opaque like how the children s book industry can perpetuate structural racism via whitewashed covers even while making efforts to increase diversity Rooted in research yet written with a lively crackling touch Nel delves into years of literary criticism and recent sociological data in order to show a better way forward Though much of what is proposed here could be endlessly argued the knowledge that what we learn in childhood imparts both subtle and explicit lessons about whose lives matter is not debatable The text concludes with a short and stark proposal of actions everyone reader author publisher scholar citizen can take to fight the biases and prejudices that infect children s literature While Was the Cat in the Hat Black does not assume it has all the answers to such a deeply systemic problem its audacity should stimulate discussion and activism The Routledge

Companion to Picturebooks Bettina Kümmerling-Meibauer, 2017-12-06 Containing forty eight chapters The Routledge Companion to Picturebooks is the ultimate guide to picturebooks It contains a detailed introduction surveying the history and development of the field and emphasizing the international and cultural diversity of picturebooks Divided into five key parts this volume covers Concepts and topics from hybridity and ideology to metafiction and emotions Genres from baby books through to picturebooks for adults Interfaces their relations to other forms such as comics and visual media Domains and theoretical approaches including developmental psychology and cognitive studies Adaptations With ground breaking contributions from leading and emerging scholars alike this comprehensive volume is one of the first to focus solely on picturebook research Its interdisciplinary approach makes it key for both scholars and students of literature as well as education and media Ecocritical Perspectives on Children's Texts and Cultures Nina Goga, Lykke

Guanio-Uluru, Bjørg Oddrun Hallås, Aslaug Nyrnes, 2018-06-11 This volume presents key contributions to the study of ecocriticism in Nordic children s and YA literary and cultural texts in dialogue with international classics It investigates the extent to which texts for children and young adults reflect current environmental concerns The chapters are grouped into five thematic areas Ethics and Aesthetics Landscape Vegetal Animal and Human and together they explore Nordic representations and a Nordic conception or feeling of nature The textual analyses are complemented with the lived experiences of outdoor learning practices in preschools and schools captured through children s own statements The volume highlights the growing influence of posthumanist theory and the continuing traces of anthropocentric concerns within contemporary children's literature and culture and a non dualistic understanding of nature culture interaction is reflected in the conceptual tool of the volume The Nature in Culture Matrix The Common Core Companion: Booster Lessons, Grades 3-5 Leslie Blauman, 2015-06-03 You can find hundreds of literacy lessons in hundreds of places but none of them will do for students what the ones in this book do What's the magic bullet Potent integration In this follow up to her Common Core Companion Grades 3-5 Leslie Blauman provides an ample supply of connected lessons you can use as booster shots when your students need a good dose of integrated reading and writing instruction The 50 lessons are divided into five learning sequences that span the ELA standards bringing a Monday through Friday clarity to a process that often overwhelms teachers and coaches alike Follow each sequence and week by week you'll build the instructional potency to help students achieve a year's worth of growth as you integrate 1 Reading Craft and Structure with Opinion Writing 2 Opinion Writing with Evaluating Argument in Informational Text 3 Narrative Writing with Craft and Structure words phrases key ideas setting character and events 4 Informative Explanatory Text Writing with Reading for Key Ideas 5 Research to Build and Present Knowledge with Integration of Knowledge and Ideas in Reading Need a great kickoff to a unit of study or review intervention lessons toward the end of a unit Leslie's booster lessons are eminently dippable Or use her book and its companion website as a planner for deeper longer term instructional design The Common Core Companion Booster Lessons Grades 3-5 is the resource you'll turn to again and again for various purposes throughout the year
