Hkal Acct Past Paper:

Controversies in Medium of Instruction Reform Shek Kam Tse, Wing Wah Ki, Mark Shiu Kee Shum, 2021-10-25 The book is an in depth and comprehensive analysis of the case of language in education reform and language policy controversies of Hong Kong over the initial two decades after 1997 It is a scholarly monograph of conscientious educators and researchers who have been active during the education reform collaborating with different parties on school development and classroom teaching experiments This book provides a multiple perspective investigation into the education and language matters Besides socio political perspectives this book also emphasizes the frontline educational and practical perspectives The book explores the benefits and effective methods of mother tongue and multi lingual teaching that have emerged in the period Based on the problematic experience of language purism and bifurcation in the reform the book argues for an inclusive multilingual education policy with mother tongue as the core This book provides potential solutions and good practices to tackle the complex issues brought about by medium of instruction policy reforms in post colonial times Institutional Treatment Profiles of Asia, 2000 English Language Testing in Hong Kong Joseph Boyle, Peter Falvey, 1994 Hong Kong Master GAAP Guide -8th edition, Asia's High Performing Education Systems Colin Marsh, John Chi-Kin Lee, 2014-07-17 Education officials specialist leaders and teachers have all been involved in different ways to bring about school reform in Hong Kong This book is a very current and relevant analysis of this reform highlighting the way in which agencies have cooperated in bringing about change over the last several decades Through a process of wide ranging decision making collaboration and consensus among key bodies and agencies of change some important developments have occurred The reforms collectively have had and are continuing to have a major impact upon schooling in Hong Kong This volume represents a range of authors and specialists involved in a number of different reforms covering themes such as historical policy contexts new curriculum approaches changing pedagogies school leadership implementation and change and assessment and evaluation This is a very topical book which provides a probing analysis of how an Asian education system has been able to reach and maintain a very high performing level English Language Education and Assessment David Coniam, 2014-07-06 This volume gathers contributions in the closely linked fields of English language assessment and language education The contributors from China and Hong Kong represent a mixture of established and new scholars Areas covered in the language education section range across major developments in the redefining of Hong Kong s secondary and tertiary curricula as well as the huge field of China s vocational education curriculum Regarding assessment the contributions reflect major changes in the marking of examinations in Hong Kong whereby all examinations from 2012 onwards are marked onscreen to quality control issues in the administration of China s College English Test which is taken by over 10 million candidates every year  Hong Kong, 2012-06-29 The Routledge Handbook of Instructed Second Language Acquisition Shawn Loewen, Masatoshi Sato, 2017-02-17 The Routledge Handbook of Instructed Second Language Acquisition is the first collection of state of the art papers pertaining to Instructed Second Language Acquisition ISLA Written by 45 world renowned experts the entries are full length articles detailing pertinent issues with up to date references Each chapter serves three purposes 1 provide a review of current literature and discussions of cutting edge issues 2 share the authors understanding of and approaches to the issues and 3 provide direct links between research and practice In short based on the chapters in this handbook ISLA has attained a level of theoretical and methodological maturity that provides a solid foundation for future empirical and pedagogical discovery This handbook is the ideal resource for researchers graduate students upper level undergraduate students teachers and teacher educators who are interested in second language learning and teaching Social Studies Education in East Asian Contexts Kerry J.

Kennedy,2020-07-28 The book explores the state of social studies education within selected East Asian societies and provides some insights into distinctive classroom practices In an increasingly volatile and unpredictable world the education of young people who both understand the contexts in which they are growing up and see the need for engaging with them is a top priority This task falls to social studies education which carries the responsibility for inducting young people into their social world and helping them to see the role they can play within it This is particularly important in East Asia where strong economic growth long held cultural values and diverse political systems create an environment that challenges young people on multiple fronts This book with its team of regional authors shows how different societies in the region are dealing with these challenges and what can be expected from future citizens The book will appeal to policy makers researchers and teachers interested in the current state of social studies education in East Asian societies The Sociocultural Activity of High Stakes Standardised Language Testing Dawn Karen Booth,2018-02-26 This book explores the influence of high stakes standardised testing within the context of South Korea South Korea is regarded as a shining example of success in educational achievement and as this book reveals pressurised standardised testing has been a major contributing factor to its success This unique country provides an excellent setting from which to explore the powerful relationship that exists between testing and learning and can advance our understanding of which factors and test conditions will positively and negatively influence learning This book follows the test activity of a group of Korean university students preparing for the TOEIC Test of English for International Communication and posits a revised model of the influence of testing on learning It calls for a more socially situated view of tests and test takers considered in relation to the sociocultural historical political and economic contexts in which they are embedded Interpreting Communicative Language Teaching Sandra J.

Savignon,2008-10-01 The emergence of English as a global language along with technological innovations and the growing need for learner autonomy is changing language teaching rapidly and profoundly With these changes come new demands and challenges for teaching education programs This authoritative collection of writings highlights some of the best work being done today in the United States and abroad to make communicative competence an attainable goal The contributors examine what has come to be known as communicative language teaching or CLT from the perspectives of teachers and teacher educators The book documents current reform initiatives in Japan the United States Hong Kong Taiwan and continental Europe to provide a global perspective on language teaching for communicative competence Four major themes recur throughout the volume the multifaceted nature of language teaching the highly contextualized nature of CLT the futility of defining a native speaker in the postcolonial postmodern world and the overwhelming influence of high stakes tests on language teaching The book is a useful and valuable tool for language teachers teacher educators and policymakers

Handbook of Education in China W. John Morgan, Qing Gu, Fengliang Li, 2017-08-25 The Handbook of Education in China provides both a comprehensive overview and an original interpretation of key aspects of education in the People's Republic of China It has four parts The Historical Background The Contemporary Chinese System Problems and Policies The Special Administrative Regions Macau and Hong Kong The Handbook is an essential reference for those interested in Chinese education as well as a comprehensive textbook that provides valuable supplementary material for those studying Chinese politics economy culture and society more generally

Language Planning in the Asia Pacific Robert B. Kaplan, Richard B. Baldauf, 2013-12-16 This volume covers the language situation in Hong Kong Timor Leste and Sri Lanka explaining the linguistic diversity the historical and political contexts and the current language situation including language in education planning the role of the media the role of religion and the roles of non indigenous languages Two of the authors are indigenous to the situations described while the other has undertaken extensive field work and consulting there The three monographs contained in this volume draw together the literature on each of the polities to present an overview of the research available about each of them while providing new research based information The purpose of the volume is to provide an up to date overview of the language situation in each polity based on a series of key questions in the hope that this might facilitate the development of a richer theory to guide language policy and planning in other polities where similar issues may arise This book was published as special issues of Current Issues in Language Planning
