Excerpt from A History of the Moravian Church in New York City The year nineteen hundred and twenty two is especially important because it marks the two hundredth anniversary of the Renewal of the Unitas Fratrum or Unity of the Brethren now generally known as the Moravian Church The renewal of this ancient Protestant Church meant a great deal to the world in general and to the Christian Church in particular Some of the most glowing pages in church history have been written by Moravians The record of their early achievements is not unlike the Acts of the Apostles At a time when the greater part of the Christian Church lay in the cold grip of a rationalistic formalism which had little or no concern for the welfare of anybody the hearts of the people of Herrnhut were on fire for God Their one passion was Christ and to make Him known their greatest desire Therefore they went anywhere and everywhere preaching the gospel In due time the Church spread to Great Britain North America and other lands In America the conversion of the Indians engaged the zealous attention of the Moravians for many years At the same time they carried on extensive evangelistic labors among the many white people who were without church affiliation It Js natural therefore that their hearts should be directed to the religious needs of the metropolis About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works

A History of the Moravian Church J. E. Hutton, 2016-11-25 J E Hutton s superb history follows the Moravian Church from its earliest years as one of the earliest founding Protestant denominations over the centuries as it developed into a mature Christian fellowship Arranged chronologically Hutton s history takes us first to the dawn of the Protestant Reformation in the fifteenth century He details the fraught religious and political situation during the decades prior to the eventual split with the dominant Catholic order We are introduced to the pivotal figures of the era such as Peter of Chelci Gregory the Patriarch and Luke of Prague By harnessing popular sentiment and using new technology such as the printing presses to spread the new Protestant doctrine the split of Christianity occurred The political climate of Prague Bohemia and the surrounding areas in which the Moravians lived is much detailed The pure simple observance of Christ and his virtues united the Moravian movement the essential devotion to Jesus and his gospel appealed to Christians who yearned for community under a common banner and felt distant from the old order Poland in particular proved a bastion for the Moravian brethren many of whom traveled and carried their traditions abroad Following the years of conflict and Reformation the Moravians distinguished themselves as a highly competent Christian group Members of the Moravian church were among the first missionaries to venture to the New World which was the scene of chaotic conflicts between the rival colonial powers The simple adherence to the word of Christ runs a common thread through the political and moral dramas as the Moravians grappled with issues such as slavery and war helping slaves in kindness Hutton s chronicle is thorough intensively explaining the important aspects underpinning the Moravians The development of their customs how they congregated the aesthetic appearance of their churches and their establishment of parochial education are all detailed giving the reader a vivid and valuable history generous spirit excellent judgment unselfish service sincerity of purpose and whole hearted consecration to the Saviour whose cause it was his sole purpose in life to advance made him a man universally beloved by the members of the congregation and by a large circle of friends in the city and elsewhere In at least two instances the friendship of non Moravians brought unexpected financial returns On December 12 1872 Daniel Marley a second hand furniture dealer died and when his will was read it was learned that he had left as a token of his regard for the pastor a legacy of 5 000 to the congregation A certain Miss Merritt who altho she was not a Moravian had enjoyed the sympathetic ministrations of Brother Reinke during her last illness willed him personally the sum of five hundred dollars No one was more surprised than the pastor when these facts were revealed When he took charge of the congregation it was in anything but a flourishing condition The church had remained too long in Houston Street By staying there after conditions had become well nigh insufferable it seriously damaged its strength and prestige This detriment was increased by the homeless wanderings after the church property had been sold It was therefore like starting afresh when the little congregation began its labors at Lexington Avenue and Thirtieth
