M. Bernstein,1994 The Frankfurt School refers to the members associated with the Institut fur Sozialforschung Institute for Social Research which was founded in Frankfurt in 1923 The work of this group is generally agreed to have been a landmark in twentieth century social science It is of seminal importance in our understanding of culture progress politics production consumption and method This set of six volumes provides a full picture of the School by examining the important developments that have occurred since the deaths of the original core of Frankfurt scholars All the major figures Adorno Horkheimer Marcuse Benjamin are represented In particular the important post war work of Jurgen Habermas is fully assessed The collection also covers the work of many of the minor figures associated with the School who have been unfairly neglected in the past resulting in the most complete survey and guide to the oeuvre of the Frankfurt School Human Growth and Development Through the Lifespan

Kathleen M. Thies,John F. Travers,2001 As part of the Quick Look Nursing series Growth and Development Through the Lifespan presents an overview of human growth and development from conception through later adult life using a biopsychosocial framework Written by Kathleen M Thies PhD RN and John F Travers EdD this text is designed to illustrate the various ages and stages of human development Contemporary Marriage Kingsley Davis,1986-08-20 This fascinating symposium is based on an assumption that no longer seems to need justification that the institution of marriage is today experiencing profound changes But the nature of those changes their causes and consequences is very much in need of explication The experts contributing to this volume bring a wide range of perspectives sociological anthropological economic historical psychological and legal to the problem of marriage in modern society Together these essays help illuminate a form of relationship that is both vulnerable and resilient biological and social a reflection of and an influence on other social institutions Contemporary Marriage begins with an important assessment of the revolution in marital behavior since World War II tracing trends in marriage age cohabitation divorce and fertility The focus here is primarily on the United States and on industrial societies in general Later chapters provide intriguing case studies of particular countries There is a recurrent interest in the impact on marriage of modernization itself but a number of essays probe influences other than industrial development such as strong cultural and historical patterns or legislation and state control Beliefs and expectations about marriage are explored and human sexuality and gender roles are also considered as factors in the nature of marriage Contemporary Marriage offers a rich spectrum of approaches to a problem of central importance The volume will reward an equally broad spectrum of readers interested in the meaning and future of marriage in our society
