James Merrill Langdon Hammer,2015-04-14 Langdon Hammer has given us the first biography of the poet James Merrill 1926 95 whose life is surely one of the most fascinating in American literature Merrill was born to high privilege and high expectations as the son of Charles Merrill the charismatic cofounder of the brokerage firm Merrill Lynch and Hellen Ingram a muse ally and antagonist throughout her son s life Wounded by his parents bitter divorce he was the child of a broken home looking for repair in poetry and love This is the story of a young man escaping yet also reenacting the energies and obsessions of those powerful parents It is the story of a gay man inventing his identity against the grain of American society during the eras of the closet gay liberation and AIDS Above all it is the story of a brilliantly gifted fiercely dedicated poet working every day to turn his life into art After college at Amherst and a period of adventure in Europe Merrill returned to the New York art world of the 1950s he was friendly with W H Auden Maya Deren Truman Capote Larry Rivers Elizabeth Bishop and other midcentury luminaries and began publishing poems plays and novels In 1953 he fell in love with an aspiring writer David Jackson They explored boys and bars as they made their life together in Connecticut and later in Greece and Key West At the same time improbably they carried on a forty year conversation with spirits of the Other World by means of a Ouija board The board became a source of poetic inspiration for Merrill culminating in his prizewinning uncanny one of a kind work The Changing Light at Sandover In his virtuosic poetry and in the candid letters and diaries that enrich every page of this deliciously readable life Merrill created a prismatic art of multiple perspectives and comic self knowledge expressing hope for a world threatened by nuclear war and environmental catastrophe Holding this life and art together in a complex evolving whole Hammer illuminates Merrill s chronicles of love loss and the poignant personal journey they record Five Love Affairs and a Friendship Anne de Courcy,2022-04-28 Dazzlingly beautiful highly intelligent and an extraordinary force of energy Nancy Cunard was an icon of the Jazz Age said to have inspired half the poets and novelists of the twenties Born into a life of wealth and privilege yet one in which she barely saw her parents Nancy rebelled against expectations and pursued a life in the arts She sought the constant company of artists writers poets and painters first in London s Soho and Mayfair and then in the glamorous cafes of 1920s Paris This is the remarkable story of Nancy s Paris life filled with art sex and alcohol She became a muse to Wyndham Lewis Constantin Br ncusi sculpted her Man Ray photographed her and she played tennis with Ernest Hemingway She had many love affairs the most significant of which are included in this book the American poet Ezra Pound the novelists Aldous Huxley and Michael Arlen the French poet Louis Aragon and finally and controversially the black American pianist Henry Crowder with whom she ran her printing press in Paris She was also shaped by her lifelong friendship with George Moore her mother s lover This tempestuous tale of passion and intrigue is as much a portrait of twenties Paris as it is the story of an extraordinary woman who defined her age Integrating Engineering Education and Humanities for Global Intercultural Perspectives Zhanna Anikina,2020-05-06 This book presents papers from the

Wolfe, 2022-12-15 Exploring how the Bloomsbury Group's cutting edge thinkers Virginia Woolf Sigmund Freud and E M Forster understood the intimacy of friends lovers spouses and families as historically unfolding phenomena this book offers a compelling account of modernism's legacies in contemporary fiction and demonstrates the myriad ways in which intimacy was a guiding and persistent idea explored by writers across the 20th century and up to the present day Often modernists have been celebrated for their insights into social and civilizational sickness but this book unearths a strain of modernist thought that is more complex and inspiring than this It discusses how Bloomsbury's thinkers wrestled with the question Does intimate life improve as sexual egalitarianism expands as taboos against same sex love interracial love and singlehood wane and as parents and children relate less formally and often more warmly toward one another And it discusses how many of today's major novelists such as Salman Rushdie Zadie Smith Ian McEwan and Rachel Cusk look to Bloomsbury's thematic and formal examples when they reformulate this question for our time Love as Passion Niklas Luhmann, 1998 Originally published Cambridge Mass Harvard University Press 1986 Fictions of Friendship in the Eighteenth-Century Novel

Bryan Mangano, 2017-07-19 This book explores the reciprocal influence of friendship ideals and narrative forms in eighteenth century British fiction It examines how various novelists from Samuel Richardson to Mary Shelley drew upon classical and early modern conceptions of true amity as a model of collaborative pedagogy Analyzing authors their professional circumstances and their audiences the study shows how the rhetoric of friendship became a means of paying deference to the increasing power of readerships while it also served as a semi covert means to persuade resistant readers and confront aesthetic and moral debates head on The study contributes to an understanding of gender roles in the early history of the novel by disclosing the constant interplay between male and female models of amity It demonstrates that this gendered dialogue shaped the way novelists imagined character interiority reconciled with the commercial aspects of writing and engaged mixed sex audiences Reading Iraqi Women's Novels in English Translation Ruth Abou Rached, 2020-10-28 By exploring how translation has shaped the literary contexts of six Iraqi woman writers this book offers new insights into their translation pathways as part of their stories politics of meaning making The writers in focus are Samira Al Mana Daizy Al Amir Inaam Kachachi Betool Khedairi Alia Mamdouh and Hadiya Hussein whose novels include themes of exile war occupation class rurality and storytelling as cultural survival Using perspectives of feminist translation to examine how Iraqi women's story making has been mediated in English translation across differing times and locations this book is the first to explore how Iraqi women's literature calls for new theoretical engagements and why this literature often interrogates and diversifies many literary theories geopolitical scope This book will be of great interest for researchers in Arabic literature women's literature translation studies and women and gender studies Queer Friendship George E.

Haggerty, 2018-03-29 Friendship in the classical world was celebrated as among the highest human achievements nothing was more likely to lead to the divine than looking for it in the eyes of a friend In exploring the complexities of male male relations beyond the simple labels of sexuality Queer Friendship shows how love between men has a rich and varied history in English literature The friend could offer a reflection of one's own worth and a celebration of a kind of mutuality that was not connected to family or home These same sex friendships are memorable because they give shape to the novels of which they are a part and question the assumption that the love between friends is different from the love between lovers Queer Friendship explores English literary friendship in three ways the elegiac the erotic and the platonic by considering a myriad of works including Sterne's Tristram Shandy Tennyson's In Memoriam A H H and Dickens' Great Expectations Gay

Wayne Gunn, 2016-02-04 Examining the development of gay American fiction and providing an essential reading list this literary survey covers 257 works novels novellas a graphic story cycle and a narrative poem in which gay and bisexual male characters play a major role Iconic works such as James Baldwin's Giovanni's Room and Christopher Isherwood's A Single Man are included along with titles not given attention by earlier surveys such as Wallace Thurman's Infants of the Spring Dashiell Hammett's The Maltese Falcon Julian Green's Each in His Darkness Ursula Zilinsky's Middle Ground and David Plante's The Ghost of Henry James Chronological entries discuss each work's plot significance for gay identity and publication history along with a brief biography of the author Narrating Friendship and the British Novel, 1760-1830 Katrin Berndt, 2016-10-14

Friendship has always been a universal category of human relationships and an influential motif in literature but it is rarely discussed as a theme in its own right In her study of how friendship gives direction and shape to new ideas and novel strategies of plot character formation and style in the British novel from the 1760s to the 1830s Katrin Berndt argues that friendship functions as a literary expression of philosophical values in a genre that explores the psychology and the interactions of the individual in modern society In the literary historical period in which the novel became established as a modern genre friend characters were omnipresent reflecting enlightenment philosophy's definition of friendship as a bond that civilized public and private interactions and was considered essential for the attainment of happiness Berndt's analyses of genre defining novels by Frances Brooke Mary Shelley Sarah Scott Helen Maria Williams Charlotte Lennox Walter Scott Jane Austen and Maria Edgeworth show that the significance of friendship and the increasing variety of novelistic forms and topics represent an overlooked dynamic in the novel's literary history Contributing to our understanding of the complex interplay of philosophical socio cultural and literary discourses that shaped British fiction in the later Hanoverian decades Berndt's book demonstrates that novels have
