Country Life ,1908 The Last Egyptian L. Frank Baum,2022-01-11 The Last Egyptian 1908 is a novel by L Frank Baum Although he is more widely known as the author of the Land of Oz series Baum also used several pseudonyms to make forays into more conventional fiction for adults The Last Egyptian published anonymously is a story of corruption betrayal romance and adventure It was adapted into a 1914 silent film by Baum and J Farrell MacDonald an influential and prolific figure in early American cinema I regret said he with mock politeness that I have never before heard of your great forefather But why should you asked the Egyptian You are I suppose one of those uneasy investigators that prowl through Egypt in a stupid endeavor to decipher the inscriptions on the old temples and tombs You can read a little yes but that little puzzles and confuses you Traveling across Egypt alone English Egyptologist Winston Bey encounters an interesting local named K ra According to the young man he is the descendant of Ahtka R a powerful advisor the Rameses II Although he questions the truth of this claim Winston enlists K ra s help Back home K ra cares for his ailing grandmother Hatatcha who reveals a life changing secret upon her deathbed he is the grandson of Lord Roane a powerful Englishman who abandoned her while she was pregnant From then on K ra swears to exact revenge on the man and his family Before she dies she shows him the way to their family s ancient treasure a horde of jewels and priceless artifacts with which he will fund his plot While The Last Egyptian is far from the fantasy and fairy tale style most of Baum s readers adore him for it remains an entertaining work of adventure fiction for devoted fans of the Oz series and newcomers alike With a beautifully designed cover and professionally typeset manuscript this edition of L Frank Baum s The Last Egyptian is a classic of American literature reimaged for modern readers The Routledge Companion on Architecture, Literature and The City Jonathan Charley,2018-09-03 This Companion breaks new ground in our knowledge and understanding of the diverse relationships between literature architecture and the city which together form a field of interdisciplinary research that is one of the most innovative and exciting to have emerged in recent years Bringing together a wide variety of contributors not only writers architectural and literary scholars and social scientists but graphic novelists and artists the book offers contemporary essays on everything from science fiction and the crime novel to poetry comics and oral history It is structured into two sections History Narrative and Genre and Strategy Language and Form Including over ninety illustrations the book is a must read for academics and students Little Journeys to the Homes Of...: Great business men Elbert Hubbard,1909 Each issue is an individual biography with each year devoted to a special group of biographies Little Journeys to the Homes of Great Business Men: Robert Owen. Astor Elbert Hubbard,1909 The Workshop of the Mind Francis Blake Atkinson,1923 The Complete Works of Winston Churchill Winston Churchill,2020-09-28 I was born under the Blue Ridge and under that side which is blue in the evening light in a wild land of game and forest and rushing waters There on the borders of a creek that runs into the Yadkin River in a cabin

that was chinked with red mud I came into the world a subject of King George the Third in that part of his realm known as the province of North Carolina The cabin reeked of corn pone and bacon and the odor of pelts It had two shakedown on one of which I slept under a bearskin A rough stone chimney was reared outside and the fireplace was as long as my father was tall There was a crane in it and a bake kettle and over it great buckhorns held my father s rifle when it was not in use On other horns hung jerked bear s meat and venison hams and gourds for drinking cups and bags of seed and my father s best hunting shirt also in a neglected corner several articles of woman s attire from pegs These once belonged to my mother Among them was a gown of silk of a fine faded pattern over which I was wont to speculate The women at the Cross Roads twelve miles away were dressed in coarse butternut wool and huge sunbonnets But when I questioned my father on these matters he would give me no answers My father was how shall I say what he was To this day I can only surmise many things of him He was a Scotchman born and I know now that he had a slight Scotch accent At the time of which I write my early childhood he was a frontiersman and hunter I can see him now with his hunting shirt and leggings and moccasins his powder horn engraved with wondrous scenes his bullet pouch and tomahawk and hunting knife He was a tall lean man with a strange sad face And he talked little save when he drank too many horns as they were called in that country These lapses of my father s were a perpetual source of wonder to me and I must say of delight They occurred only when a passing traveller who hit his fancy chanced that way or what was almost as rare a neighbor Many a winter night I have lain awake under the skins listening to a flow of language that held me spellbound though I understood scarce a word of it
