The Historians' History of the World: Spain and Portugal Henry Smith Williams, 1904 The Historians' History of the World Henry Smith Williams, 1907 Historia Patria Carolyn P. Boyd, 2020-12-08 Beginning with the restoration of the Bourbon monarchy in 1875 and ending with the death of General Francisco Franco in 1975 this book explores the intersection of education and nationalism in Spain Based on a broad range of archival and published sources including parliamentary and ministerial records pedagogical treatises and journals teachers manuals memoirs and a sample of over two hundred primary and secondary school textbooks the study examines ideological and political conflict among groups of elites seeking to shape popular understanding of national history and identity through the schools both public and private A burgeoning literature on European nationalisms has posited that educational systems in general and an instrumentalized version of national history in particular have contributed decisively to the articulation and transmission of nationalist ideologies The Spanish case reveals a different dynamic In Spain a chronically weak state a divided and largely undemocratic political class and an increasingly polarized social and political climate impeded the construction of an effective system of national education and the emergence of a consensus on the shape and meaning of the Spanish national past This in turn contributed to one of the most striking features of modern Spanish political and cultural life the absence of a strong sense of Spanish as opposed to local or regional identity Scholars with interests in modern European cultural politics processes of state consolidation nationalism and the history of education will find this book essential reading Crime, Histoire et Sociétés, 1998/1 , Annales Stuart Clark, 1999 This collection reprints key articles written within the past 30 years on the Annales school their journal their influence on history historiography and other academic fields Eighteenth-Century Spain 1700-1788 W.N.Hargreaves- Mawdsley, 1979-06-17 Subject Index of the Modern Books Acquired by the British Museum in the Years ..., 1927 Portraying the Prince in the Renaissance Patrick Baker, Ronny Kaiser, Maike Priesterjahn, Johannes Helmuth, 2016-06-20 The portrayal of princes plays a central role in the historical literature of the European Renaissance. The sixteen contributions collected in this volume examine such portrayals in a broad variety of historiographical, biographical and poetic texts. It emerges clearly that historical portrayals were not essentially bound by generic constraints but instead took the form of res gestae or historiae, discrete or collective biographies, panegyric mirrors for princes, epic poetry, orations, even commonplace books, whatever the occasion called for. Beyond questions of genre, the chapters focus on narrative strategies and the transformation of ancient, medieval and contemporary authors as well as on the influence of political, cultural, intellectual and social contexts. Four broad thematic foci inform the structure of this book: the virtues ascribed to the prince; the cultural and political pretensions inscribed in literary portraits; the historical and literary models on which these portraits were based; and the method that underlay them. The volume is rounded out by a critical summary that considers the portrayal of princes in humanist historiography from the point of view of transformation theory.

Histoire générale du IV^e siècle à nos jours Ernest Lavisse, Alfred Rambaud, 1894 War and Genocide in Cuba, 1895-1898 John Lawrence Tone, 2006 Cubanske Frihedskrig 1895-1898 Bogen handler om Cubas krig for at opnå uafhængighed af Spanien. Spanien satte alt ind på ikke at miste Cuba, og krigen blev først med stor grusomhed og kostede mange civile cubanere livet, bl.a. i koncentrationslejre oprettet af spanierne. I 1898 greb USA, der havde store økonomiske interesser på Cuba, ind og afsluttede krigen, der sluttede med Spaniens nederlag. Før neder senere og førte til oprettelsen af Guantánamo-basen og Cubas selvstændighed i 1902.

Historical Memory and Clerical Activity in Medieval Spain and Portugal Peter Linehan, 2018-02-06 This fourth Variorum collection of articles by Peter Linehan comprises items largely from the past decade. The studies represent further investigation of themes broached in earlier works, in particular the latest report on the movements of Cardinal John of Abbeville and the related subjects of historiography and historians, the interplay of history and government, and aspects of sacral monarchy. Articles on Zamora's frustrated legal history and Zamora's cardinal extend the Castilian theme across the territorial frontier into the kingdom of Portugal, and two other items explore English ramifications and developments in papal procedures.

Muslims in Spain, 1500 to 1614 L. P. Harvey, 2008-09-15 On December 18, 1499, the Muslims in Granada revolted against the Christian city government's attempts to suppress their rights to live and worship as followers of Islam. Although the Granada riot was a local phenomenon that was soon contained, subsequent widespread rebellion provided the Christian government with an excuse or justification as its leaders saw things to embark on the systematic elimination of the Islamic presence from Spain as well as from the Iberian Peninsula as a whole. Over the next hundred years, picking up at the end of his earlier classic study Islamic Spain, 1250 to 1500, which described the courageous efforts of the followers of Islam to preserve their secular as well as sacred culture in late medieval Spain, L. P. Harvey chronicles here the struggles of the Moriscos. These forced converts to Christianity lived clandestinely in the sixteenth century as Muslims communicating in aljamiado Spanish written in Arabic characters More broadly Muslims in Spain 1500 to 1614 tells the story of an early modern nation struggling to deal with diversity and multiculturalism while torn by the fanaticism of the Counter Reformation on one side and the threat of Ottoman expansion on the other Harvey recounts how a century of tolerance degenerated into a vicious cycle of repression and rebellion until the final expulsion in 1614 of all Muslims from the Iberian Peninsula Retold in all its complexity and poignancy this tale of religious intolerance political maneuvering and ethnic cleansing resonates with many modern concerns Eagerly awaited by Islamist and Hispanist scholars since Harvey's first volume appeared in 1990 Muslims in Spain 1500 to 1614 will be compulsory reading for student and specialist alike The year's most rewarding historical work is L P Harvey's Muslims in Spain 1500 to 1614 a sobering account of the various ways in which a venerable Islamic culture fell victim to Christian bigotry Harvey never urges the topicality of his subject on us but this aspect inevitably sharpens an already compelling book Jonathan Keats Times Literary Supplement
