Women's Writing in India K. V. Surendran, 2002 Essays om kvindernes litteratur i Indien The Encyclopedia of Hollywood Film Actors Barry Monush, 2003-04-01 For decades Screen World has been the film professional s as well as the film buff's favorite and indispensable annual screen resource full of all the necessary statistics and facts Now Screen World editor Barry Monush has compiled another comprehensive work for every film lover's library In the first of two volumes this book chronicles the careers of every significant film actor from the earliest silent screen stars Chaplin Pickford Fairbanks to the mid 1960s when the old studio and star systems came crashing down Each listing includes a brief biography photos from the famed Screen World archives with many rare shots vital statistics a comprehensive filmography and an informed entertaining assessment of each actor's contributions good or bad In addition to every major player Monush includes the legions of unjustly neglected troupers of yesteryear The result is a rarity an invaluable reference tool that's as much fun to read as a scandal sheet It pulsates with all the scandal glamour oddity and glory that was the lifeblood of its subjects Contains over 1 000 photos

The Novels of Arun Joshi Birendra Pandey, 2000 A Midsummer-night's Dream William Shakespeare, 1891 Borders and Beyond: Orient-Occident Crossings in Literature Adam Bednarczyk, Magdalena Kubarek, Maciej Szatkowski, 2019-01-25 The work presents articles discussing various subjects relating to literary cultural borders and borderlands as well as their crossings with the Orient and the Occident A broad multifaceted scope of the volume draws the attention of readers to the problem of liminal spaces between cultures genres codes and languages of literary and artistic communication The perspective of borderness proposed by orientalist literary specialists culture experts provide insights into multi dimensional and heterogenic subjects and methods of consideration The authors referring to inter alia comparative studies theory of reception intertextuality transculturality of the East and West works touch upon themes such as coexistence exclusion crossing or the instability of borders Also by taking into account identity issues the interpenetration of various influences between different literatures poetics and languages the readers gain a broader context of intercultural dialogue between the Orient and Occident what allow them to transgress barriers of a purely artistic literary reception of the book contents The volume due to the abundance of proposed topics its heterogeneous representations and manifold approaches used in analysis discussion and re interpretations is a debate's record or a result of an academic reflection rather than a comprehensive monograph

The Business of Emotions in Modern History Mandy L. Cooper, Andrew Popp, 2023-01-12 The Business of Emotions in Modern History shows how businesses from individual entrepreneurs to family firms and massive corporations have relied on leveraged generated and been shaped by emotions for centuries With a broad temporal and global coverage ranging from the early modern era to the present day in Africa Asia Europe and North America the essays in this volume highlight the rich potential for studying emotions and business in tandem In exploring how emotions and emotional situations affect business and in turn how businesses affect the emotional lives of individuals and communities this book allows us to recognise the emotional structures behind business decisions and relationships and how to question them From emotional labour in family firms to affective corporate paternalism and the role of specific emotions such as trust fear anxiety love and nostalgia in creating economic connections this book opens a rich
