Lentz, 1997 Since Hopalong Cassidy and the Lone Ranger blazed their first trails on television in 1949 Westerns have been the genre of choice for 180 series Some Gunsmoke Bonanza and Maverick for example were classics others such as 26 Men and Shotgun Slade were quickly forgotten From Adventures of Briscoe County through Zorro and Son this comprehensive reference work covers all 180 Western series Each entry opens with a listing of the broadcast history of the series including original network day and time This is followed by a listing of the regular cast members and a brief premise of the series The individual episodes are then covered with the title original air date leading guest stars and a brief synopsis given An exhaustive index completes the work      "Hailing frequencies open" Thomas D. Parham, III, 2019-07-15 Star Trek The Next Generation blended speculative science fiction and space opera in its portrayal of communication Multiple modes of communication used between characters are presented and the multilevel tapestry of communication in the series is critical in its appeal This book proposes that these patterns of communication reveal a foundational philosophy of Star Trek while enticing millions of viewers These patterns serve both to cause strong empathetic connections with characters and to impel viewers to form relationships with the show explaining their extreme devotion      Anime and Manga ,      Through Human Love to God Pamela Williams, 2007 Dante and Petrarch are two of the world s greatest love poets who convey the story of their emotional intellectual and religious life in part through a story of human love The focus here is not so much on the myriad symbolic values and associations of Beatrice and Laura but rather both on the attitudes of these two poets to sexual desire in order to throw some light on the character of their human love and on the status and value they give to human love in the context of their Christian lives For all the stark contrasts between them Dante and Petrarch have been often compared for they write in a common literary classical and Christian tradition The comparison generally leads to the conclusion that Dante describes his human love experience as positive and constructive whilst Petrarch's experience of love is negative and destructive My intention here is not to polarize their views in this way but rather to identify the different yet positive and highly original value both poets attribute to human love More than fifty years ago Etienne Gilson claimed that Peter Abelard turned to loving God in the way that Heloise had loved him with the disinterestedness which she claimed in loving him and which she accused him of never understanding in loving her It is the general argument of this study that Dante and Petrarch as well as leaving their original mark on the treatment of love in literature have insights into religion personal to them which can be likewise characterized by examining their attitude to human love and the story of their personal loves There are many more aspects to their Catholicism than are examined in these essays The discussion here is of that part of their faith which grows out of is coloured by or at least can be explored through their human loving best of them all was Thriller hosted by Boris Karloff In Thriller the horror was gothic with a darker bleaker vision of life than its contemporaries The show s origins and troubled history is first discussed here followed by biographies of such key figures as producer William Frye executive producer Hubbell Robinson writers Robert Bloch and Donald S Sanford and Karloff The episode guide covers all 67 installments providing airdate production credits cast plot synopses and critical evaluations
