These Are Our Bodies, Middle School Leader Guide Jenny Beaumont, Abbi Long, 2016-08-01 Our inherent value and worth comes from God's love for us, but our modern world is filled with sexual expression that too often leads us away from the life of Christ. As Christians seeking to live a life worthy of our calling and desiring to pass along these values to our children and youth, this book explores how we, as parents and adults, can explore issues of sexuality in the context of our faith. A sexuality education resource from a mainline progressive denominational perspective aids the adult reader, teacher, parent, in learning and using skills that enable them to embrace and affirm the wholeness of sexuality and to talk openly and honestly about the connection of sexuality and faith. This book, grounded from a theological perspective, focuses on foundational issues for addressing how we and why we are called to have these conversations in a faithful community to support families. The importance of looking at one's sexuality throughout the lifespan through the lenses of decision making, faith, and daily life, respect, growth, and change, behavior, responsibility, values, prayer, and intentionality, is explored, offering a grounding as well as a stand-alone resource for individuals and churches to build upon. The Leader's Guide to

Standards Douglas B. Reeves, 2003-02-17 In today's school environment, educational leaders are mandated to use academic standards to measure the progress of their school's teachers and students. Despite the wealth of material that addresses the topic of academic standards, there is little written for those who must lead the effort to put in place an effective standards system. The Leader's Guide to Standards is a landmark book written by Douglas Reeves, an expert in academic standards, performance assessment, and accountability, that shows school principals, assistant principals, teachers, and district-level administrators how to build a comprehensive accountability system for standards-based reform that focuses on leadership skills. Reeves offers practical recommendations for assessing and nurturing teacher performance, setting up balanced assessment and accountability policies, and making the case for standards to the public. In addition, the book addresses the vital role that policymakers from the local school board to state and national leaders play in the successful implementation of educational standards.

Video Sessions

Session 1: Learning to Speak Love 34-48
People speak different love languages and seldom do a husband and wife have the same primary emotional love language. You must be willing to learn your spouse's primary love language if you are to be an effective communicator of love. This session covers a brief overview of the five love languages, takes the five love languages profile, and discovers how to use the profile.

Session 2: Words of Affirmation 14-47
Verbal compliments are powerful communicators of love. Learn how to speak words of affirmation, encouragement, kindness, and humbleness to the person whose love language is words of affirmation.

Session 3: Quality Time 18-54
Quality time means giving someone your undivided attention, and a central aspect of quality time is togetherness. Spending time together in a common pursuit communicates that you and your spouse care about each other, enjoy being with each other, and that you like to do things together.

Session 4: Receiving Gifts 18-24
Gifts are visual symbols of love. To the person whose primary love language is receiving gifts, the cost of the gift will matter little. The worth of the gift has little to do with monetary value and everything to do with love.

Session 5: Acts of Service 12-10
Doing simple chores around the house can be an undeniable expression of love. It requires thought, planning, time, effort, and energy. If done with a positive spirit, they are indeed expressions of love.

Session 6: Physical Touch 18-18
Physical touch is a powerful vehicle for communicating marital love, and for some individuals, physical touch is their primary love language. Without it, they feel unloved. With it, their emotional tank is filled, and they feel secure in the love of their spouse.

Session 7: Growing in Love 36-24
We've been led to believe that if we are really in love, it will last forever. But true love cannot begin until the in-love experience has run its course. If we learn to meet each other's deep emotional need to feel loved and choose to do so, then the love we share will be exciting beyond anything we ever felt when we were infatuated.
