Ramblings of an Old Man Chef Cal Kraft,2014-09-29 Do you long for a time when life was simpler When everyone knew your name Do you reminisce about family traditions growing up in the 50 s and 60 s Do you remember your teen years and that first kiss Does your mouth start to water and your heart start to swell as you think back to family holiday meals presided over by mom or grandma Well then you can now take that trip down memory lane and re create those luscious foods in the pages of The Ramblings of an Old Man by well known personal chef and culinary instructor Chef Cal Kraft and his constant feline companion Miss Kitty. It all began in 2006. The author realized that he had spent over half his life living in the suburban community of Danbury Forest, a quaint neighborhood where families escaping the hustle and bustle of Metropolitan DC played together and supported each other in times good and bad. So he wrote a story about that and sent it in to the neighborhood paper. Chef Cal initiated what became his hugely popular monthly column The Chef's Corner for the community newsletter. In it he shared tales about his family and his life growing up in the suburbs of New York. He also wrote about events within the community along with tales of past traditions in his life and others. Several of his articles ventured into the world of fiction as he imagined stories that might have occurred. Each contribution was accompanied by a tasty recipe often tying the articles and recipes together. A long time popular culinary instructor in Northern Virginia's Adult Community Education Program, Chef Cal is well equipped with recipes that he knew his students and now his readers would rush to make themselves. Ramblings contributions of over fifty recipes include traditional Italian delicacies, tasty old fashioned comfort dishes, soups and casseroles, quick and easy desserts and special holiday treats. Also included is Chef Cal's interpretation of miniature apple pies. Without a doubt, his book will be pulled out to create his meals whenever family and friends are gathered. Several times as Chef Cal was writing his stories, he found that Miss Kitty, the gorgeous white cat that lived with the author and his wife during most of this time, had something to say. So he wrote about that too. In some instances, he even let Miss Kitty write her own story. While The Ramblings of an Old Man is dedicated to the residents, both past and current, of that wonderful community known as Danbury Forest, it also resonates with communities all across America. No matter where you live, be it a small hamlet, a rural town, a village or in a big city, these stories are for you. Some are humorous, others sad. Some true, some imagined. They all, however, tell a story and offer an opportunity to re-create the foods that accompanied it. So sit back and enjoy The Ramblings of an Old Man.

Green Sands Martha Kirk, 1994. Green Sands is Kirk's chronicle of her life in the desert, told with exceptional candor and detail. Local Bedouins, foreign farm workers and their families, Saudi royalty, assorted Westerners and fellow Americans share their desert world with Kirk. Her sincere curiosity, empathy and warmth toward these new friends make her story entertaining as well as enlightening. There is a freshness to Kirk's perspective that puts the reader squarely in her shoes as she struggles to assimilate a culture so alien to her own and to embrace an adventure that few have the chance to experience. Martha Kirk shows her pioneering Texas spirit in the pages of Green Sands as she gamely kills camel spiders in the house, bravely risks imprisonment while driving the farm's pickup truck and lovingly shares meals with Bedouin women and their children.

Mennonite Men Can Cook, Too Willard Roth, 2015-11-17. Willard Roth is a topnotch cook who grew up in a sprawling Iowa farm family. He has always loved food, growing it, preparing it, eating it. As a Mennonite church leader and journalist, he is as well known for the dinners he prepares as he is for his sermons or editorials. The man has traveled North America and much of the world, always making notes about the great meals he's eaten.

Then he's routinely gone home and fiddled around in the kitchen until he can make the dishes he's loved eating. In this book are recipes inspired by the food made by his Mennonite mother and grandmothers. Other recipes are inspired from the monasteries he's visited in Ireland and England. There are recipes of the food he's eaten in Ghana, Jamaica, Cyprus, the Netherlands, India, and Nepal. Roth mixes his keen food memories with his years of experience in the kitchen to create recipes that work for the home cook. Among his Soup recipes are Thai Coconut Shrimp, Chilled Melon, Mint and Hawkeye Corn and Chilies Chowder. His Small Plates recipes include Cheese Grits with Chunky Tomato Sauce and Corn Leek Bake. Among his Mains are Lemon Turkey Stir Fry with Pasta, Monastery Cornbread Casserole, Hearty Polenta Florentine, and Pecan Crunch Salmon Bake. Plus Beer Braised Short Ribs and Balsamic Honey Glazed Lamb Chops. Cooks will also find Chutneys, Cordials, Rum Sauces, and Relishes. And lots of Vegetables and Salads. You'll love the tons of Cakes, Candies, and Cookies, Pies, and Puddings, and Fruit and Frozen Desserts. Willard Roth breathes hospitality and gives us the tools to practice it ourselves, along with unforgettable easy-to-prepare recipes.
