Young, 2021-04-01 An exploration of the hidden history of camping in American life that connects a familiar recreational pastime to camps for functional needs and political purposes Camping appears to be a simple proposition a time honored way of getting away from it all Pack up the car and hit the road in search of a shady spot in the great outdoors For a modest fee reserve the basic infrastructure a picnic table a parking spot and a place to build a fire Pitch the tent and unroll the sleeping bags Sit under the stars with friends or family and roast some marshmallows This book reveals that for all its appeal the simplicity of camping is deceptive its history and meanings far from obvious Why do some Americans find pleasure in sleeping outside particularly when so many others past and present have had to do so for reasons other than recreation Never only a vacation choice camping has been something people do out of dire necessity and as a tactic of political protest Yet the dominant interpretation of camping as a modern recreational ideal has obscured the connections to these other roles A closer look at the history of camping since the Civil War reveals a deeper significance of this American tradition and its links to core beliefs about nature and national belonging Camping Grounds rediscovers unexpected and interwoven histories of sleeping outside It uses extensive research to trace surprising links between veterans tramps John Muir African American freedpeople Indian communities and early leisure campers in the nineteenth century tin can tourists federal campground designers Depression era transients family campers backpacking enthusiasts and political activists in the twentieth century and the crisis of the unsheltered and the tent based Occupy Movement in the twenty first These entwined stories show how Americans camp to claim a place in the American republic and why the outdoors is critical to how we relate to nature the nation and each other writing and production This history of television's golden age soaps begins with an overview of earlier serialized entertainments An analysis of early TV soap stars personnel and production follows taking 40 programs into account Ensuing chapters offer in depth treatments of the serials Search for Tomorrow Love of Life The Guiding Light The Secret Storm As the World Turns and The Edge of Night Appendices include chronological and alphabetical directories of period daytime serials and rankings of the durability of programs actors and actresses announcers and sponsors Congressional Record United States. Congress, 1969 Transatlantic Television Drama Matt Hills, Michele Hilmes, Roberta E. Pearson, 2019 In 2014 the UK science fiction television series Black Mirror was released on Netflix worldwide quickly becoming a hit with US audiences Like other beloved British imports this series piqued Americans interest with hints of dark comedy clever plotlines and six episode seasons that left audiences frantic for more In Transatlantic Television Drama volume editors Michele Hilmes Matt Hills and Roberta Pearson team up with leading scholars in TV studies and transnational television to look at how serial dramas like Black Mirror captivate US audiences and what this reveals about the ways Americans and Brits relate to each other on and off the screen Focusing on production strategies performance styles and audience reception chapters delve into some of the most widely discussed programs on the transatlantic circuit from ongoing series like Game of Thrones Downton Abbey Orphan Black and Sherlock to those with long histories of transnational circulation like Masterpiece and Doctor Who to others whose transnational success speaks to the process of exchange adaptation and cooperation such as Rome Parade s End Broadchurch and Gracepoint The book s first section investigates the platforms that support British American exchange from distribution partnerships and satellite providers to streaming services. The second section concentrates on the shift in meaning across cultural contexts such as invocations of heritage genre shifts in adaptation performance styles and in the case of Episodes actual dramatized depiction of the process of transatlantic television production In section three attention turns to contexts of audience reception ranging from fan conventions and fiction to television criticism the effects of national branding on audiences and the role of social media in de or re contextualizing fans response to transnational programs

Deats, Lagretta Lenker,1999-04-30 Viewing artistic works through the lens of both contemporary gerontological theory and postmodernist concepts the contributing scholars examine literary treatments cinematic depictions and artistic portraits of aging from Shakespeare to Hemingway from Horton Foote to Disney from Rembrandt to Alice Neale while also comparing the attitudes toward aging in Native American African American and Anglo American literature The examples demonstrate that long before gerontologists endorsed a Janus faced model of aging artists were celebrating the diversity of the elderly challenging the bio medical equation of senescence with inevitable senility Underlying all of this discussion is the firm conviction that cultural texts construct as well as encode the conventional perceptions of their society that literature the arts and the media not only mirror society s mores but can also help to create and enforce them

Television Variety Shows David M.

Inman, 2014-12-03 For the few hundred television viewers in 1946 a special treat on the broadcast schedule was the variety show called Hour Glass It was the first TV program to go beyond talking heads cooking demonstrations and sporting events featuring instead dancers comics singers and long commercials for its sponsor Chase and Sanborn coffee Within two years another variety show Texaco Star Theatre became the first true television hit and would be credited with the sales of thousands of television sets The variety show formula was a staple of television in its first 30 years in part because it lent itself to a medium where everything had to be live and preferably inside a studio Most of the early television stars including Jackie Gleason Milton Berle Sid Caesar Ed Sullivan Red Skelton Dinah Shore and Arthur Godfrey rose to prominence through weekly variety shows In the 1960s major stars such as Jerry Lewis Dean Martin Judy Garland and Danny Kaye were hosting variety shows By the 1970s the format was giving way to sitcoms and dramas but pop music stars Sonny and Cher Tony Orlando and Dawn and Donny and Marie Osmond hosted some of the last of the species This book details 57 variety shows from the 1940s through the 1990s A history of each show is first provided followed by a brief look at each episode Air date guest stars sketches performed and a listing of songs featured are included Meeting Movies Norman Norwood Holland, 2007 Casablanca for example provides millions with a sense of satisfaction Why How did this movie about World War II satisfy an adolescent boy afraid of not being a man but too young to be in the military How did such an outrageously sentimental film enable Holland and many others to deal with the scary state of the world in 1942 and indeed ever since Meeting Movies poses such questions again and again As a professor of literature and film Holland feels compelled to interpret Yet beneath and beyond his intellectualizing a variety of half conscious personal considerations and recurring themes color his feelings and hence his interpretations And this he claims is true for all of us BOOK JACKET Television Advertising Vincent Terrace, 2025-01-05 Winston tastes good like a cigarette should and You ll wonder where the yellow went when you brush your teeth with Pepsodent are only two of the many slogans associated with advertising on television in the 1950s There were celebrities like Marilyn Monroe Barbara Eden and Peter Lorre who performed in commercials there were shows built around a single product e g The Texaco Star Theater and The Colgate Comedy Hour there were numerous premiums offered to children e q The Sky King Detecto Microscope The Mickey Mouse Club Magazine and gimmicks used by sponsors to attract viewers to their shows e g Win a Wagon Train Pony and The Howdy Doody Smile Contest This is the first and only book of its kind it is a nostalgic trivia filled history presented through the actual programs and commercials of the 1950s In addition to two extensively detailed sections which have never been released online or in any other book Sponsor and Program and Program and Sponsor rare television theme songs with their original sponsor tags products mentioned in the theme songs are also presented It all began on July 1 1941 when WNBT the NBC affiliate in New York City televised the first commercial a ten second spot for Bulova Watches
