Books in the Digital Age John B. Thompson,2013-10-21 The book publishing industry is going through a period of profound and turbulent change brought about in part by the digital revolution What is the role of the book in an age preoccupied with computers and the internet How has the book publishing industry been transformed by the economic and technological upheavals of recent years and how is it likely to change in the future This is the first major study of the book publishing industry in Britain and the United States for more than two decades Thompson focuses on academic and higher education publishing and analyses the evolution of these sectors from 1980 to the present He shows that each sector is characterized by its own distinctive logic or dynamic of change and that by reconstructing this logic we can understand the problems challenges and opportunities faced by publishing firms today He also shows that the digital revolution has had and continues to have a profound impact on the book publishing business although the real impact of this revolution has little to do with the ebook scenarios imagined by many commentators Books in the Digital Age will become a standard work on the publishing industry at the beginning of the 21st century It will be of great interest to students taking courses in the sociology of culture media and cultural studies and publishing It will also be of great value to professionals in the publishing industry educators and policy makers and to anyone interested in books and their future

Veljko Milutinovic, Frédéric Patricelli, 2012-12-06 As a foreword here we publish an email letter of Late Professor Herb Simon Nobel Laureate that he wrote on the occasion of the death of the father of a friend This letter of condolence more than any other wisdom tells about the essence of the process of scientific creation which is so important for both the specific subject being covered by this book and for the general science When asked to address an SSGRR conference in Italy prior to his death Professor Herb Simon agreed that these lines be presented to all those who are interested in understanding the real essence of their own scientific struggle Dear Professor Milutinovic I want to extend my deepest sympathy to you and your family on the death of your father His career was a very distinguished one and his life spanned a most complex and difficult sequence of epochs in your country s history Our generation I am just a year younger than he was like all its predecessors leaves many tasks hopefully no more than it inherited for the next generation to take up but even knowing that it must be so does not remove one s sense of loss in the parting
