Battling over Human Rights J. Oloka-Onyango, 2015-07-13 This book brings together twenty think pieces on contemporary Human Rights issues at the international regional and national level by one of Africa's foremost scholars of International Human Rights and Constitutional Law J Oloka Onyango Ranging from the Arab Spring to the Right to Education the collection is both an in depth analysis of discrete topics as well as a critical reflection on the state of human rights around the world today Taking up issues such as the African reaction to the International Criminal Court ICC the question of truth and reconciliation before the outbreak of post election violence in Kenya and the links between globalization and racism the book is a tour de force of issues that are both unique as well as pertinent to human rights struggles around the world National Union Catalog, 1982 Includes entries for maps and atlases The Politics of Challenging Presidential Term Limits in Africa Jack R. Mangala, 2020-04-02 This book takes stock of the debate surrounding the institution of presidential term limits in Africa against the backdrop of global trends toward authoritarianism and the rise of strong men Widely adopted three decades ago term limits for the office of the president are now being challenged by many African leaders The power alternation debate in Africa raises important questions concerning the future of democracy and development on the continent Using a case study approach this book explores in detail six situations in which leaders have either succeeded or failed in altering term limits It thoroughly dissects the arguments tactics and strategies on both sides of the issue and draws key lessons for strengthening constitutionalism in Africa The National Council for Higher Education and the Growth of the University Sub-sector in Uganda, 2002-2012 Kasozi, A.B.K., 2017-05-05 The National Council for Higher Education NCHE and the Growth of the University Sub sector in Uganda 2002 2012 narrates the experience of the Ugandan NCHE in the establishment development and regulation of higher education institutions in Uganda from 2002 to 2012 In this period student numbers in higher education institutions increased from about 65 000 to some 200 000 and university institutions from about ten to more than triple the number The book discusses the role of a regulatory agency in the delivery of higher education the relations of universities and colleges with such an agency its impact on developing university capacities and leadership in creating and refining higher education ideas The experience of Uganda's regulatory agency the NCHE in those ten years should help both the Ugandan and other African countries higher education stakeholders in sharing lessons learned from this one case study The author sees the roles of regulatory agencies as vital in the initial stages of building a higher education sub sector and in periods of system transitions such as the current journey from elite to mass systems but is of the view that the university remains the home of knowledge creation dissemination and its application in society Regulatory Frameworks and Justice Systems Dr. Ben Kajwang PhD, Melissa W. The classic reference work that provides annually updated information on the countries of the world America and the Production of Islamic Truth in Uganda Yahya Sseremba, 2023-05-16 This book investigates the ways in which the war on terror has transformed the postcolonial state in Africa Taking American intervention in Islamic education in Uganda as the entry point the book demonstrates how state control over Islamic truth production and everyday Muslim life has increased During the colonial period the Muslims in Uganda were governed in two ways partly as lesser citizens within the Christian dominated civil sphere and partly as members of a distinct Muslim domain In this domain a local system of Islamic education developed with a degree of autonomy that reflected the limits of the colonial state in shaping the Muslim subject In the subsequent postcolonial period systems of patronage and clientalistic networks dominated and Muslim leaders were co opted by the state but without much real interference in the day to day lives of ordinary Muslims However as part of the war on terror the US State Department seeks to bring the mechanisms of Islamic truth production especially the madrasa under direct state control and civil society scrutiny This book argues that the Muslim domain as a separate entity is coming to an end as it is being absorbed into the civil sphere unifying the state s domination of society The book also analyzes local Ugandan Muslim initiatives to modernise and contextualize their own education and religion and how these initiatives are shaped by and transcend the dominant power A thorough exploration of US foreign policy and Islamic education this book will be of interest to students and scholars in the fields of Political Studies African Studies and Religious Studies A Proud

Product Of Guyana's Bitter-Sweet Sugar Nowrang Persaud,2018-07-27 This is an attempt to briefly record my long life story as a Guyanese who evolved from a broken parental home and the pits of poverty in colonial British Guiana to become first a successful school teacher and an unconventional school administrator I then won a coveted Cadetship offered by the expatriate firm of Bookers Sugar Estates Ltd which owned and operated the sugar industry in the colony This was the catalyst that provided the springboard for my launching into the field of Human Resource Management initially in the sugar industry in Guyana then in Canada followed by exciting assignments literally across the world with the United Nations Children Fund a field based agency of the United Nations before ending with a return to base in Guyana Primate
