Why were the United States and Soviet Union so different?

US Government	United States	Soviet Union
Structure	capitalism (free market)	socialism (central control)
	After World War II, the US pushed for free economic system in capitalism, convinced that it would free economic system and that the communist government capitalism would eventually give birth to Soviet society and culture.	the Soviet Union, however, did not trust free market with capitalism and it would always end up making advantage of the poor. They started government leading society, instead capitalism.
