Islam And The European Empires The Past Present Series:

Islam and the European Empires David Motadel, 2014 The first comparative account of the engagement of all major European empires with Islam in the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries exploring an array of themes ranging from the accommodation of Islam under imperial rule to Islamic anti colonial resistance and contributing to our understanding of religion and power in the modern world      The Hajj and Europe in the Age of Empire ,2016-10-05 The present volume focuses on the political perceptions of the Hajj its global religious appeal to Muslims and the European struggle for influence and supremacy in the Muslim world in the age of pre colonial and colonial empires In the late fifteenth century and early sixteenth century a pivotal change in seafaring occurred through which western Europeans played important roles in politics trade and culture Viewing this age of empires through the lens of the Hajj puts it into a different perspective by focusing on how increasing European dominance of the globe in pre colonial and colonial times was entangled with Muslim religious action mobility and agency The study of Europe s connections with the Hajj therefore tests the hypothesis that the concept of agency is not limited to isolated parts of the globe By adopting the tools of empires the Hajj in itself a global activity would become part of global and trans cultural history With contributions by Aldo D Agostini Josep Llu s Mateo Dieste Ulrike Freitag Mahmood Kooria Michael Christopher Low Adam Mestyan Umar Ryad John Slight and Bogusław R Zagórski

Empires of Faith in Late Antiquity Jaś Elsner, 2020-03-19 Explores the problems for studying art and religion in Eurasia arising from ancestral colonial and post colonial biases in historiography      Daily Life in Colonial Africa Toyin Falola, 2024-07-11 Discover how European colonization across the many regions in Africa dramatically altered the continent and the daily lived experiences of its peoples Daily Life in Colonial Africa explores nine facets of daily life in the European colonized African continent such as domestic economic political and religious life Examples of everyday people farmers forced to switch to cash crops people of faith melding native traditions and European Christian doctrine on beliefs about the afterlife storytellers using allegory to discreetly challenge colonial rule show how colonialization impacted every aspect of life for Africa s indigenous people as well as how they adapted to new ways of life while maintaining their cultural roots Alongside the main text helpful additional resources such as a timeline of the colonization of Africa and a glossary of terms provide useful context for understanding what life in this period of history was truly like for the many different people and groups affected by Africa s colonization      British Muslims in the Neoliberal Empire William Baryló, 2025-03-17 More than twenty years after 9 11 what has changed for Muslims in the West From the occupation of lands the world has entered a new era the occupation of minds State strategies have evolved to offer a dangerous gamble to people from post colonial diasporas remain at the margins or silently blend in for the sake of an illusory liberation From power hungry Muslim politicians in elite private clubs to politically apathetic social media influencers multi million pound neo colonial humanitarian charities Muslim far right sympathisers and Muslim white supremacists this new form of colonialism Metacolonialism has effectively turned the oppressed into the new oppressors Under the promise of financial stability and representation it has effectively put God for sale at the cost of people's culture, ethics, identity and faith However in the wake of the new Roaring Twenties marked by social justice movements Muslims in Britain have crafted creative responses inspired by their faith in order to resist, heal and flourish despite minimal resources and support Informal and independent from institutions they have established pioneering alternatives in the fields of mental health, community organizing, the protection of the environment, heritage, the arts and more Since leadership divides they have undertaken a duty of stewardship considering the world and humanity as one ecosystem that one needs to care for future generations This work is both a diagnosis and a toolbook looking at the initiatives that reshape public debates and offer working ideas for building a fair and just society Empire, Religion, and Identity Soumen Mukherjee, 2024-02-19 This collection brings together case studies that cover a wide spectrum from Hindu, Buddhist, Jain, and traditions through reformist ventures such as the Brahmos to issues in modern Islam and Judaism The first part of the book explores idioms of self-fashioning in global platforms and religious congresses The second part explicates the nature of movements of such ideas Cumulatively they offer fresh and invaluable insights into their histories in modern South Asia against the backdrop of and in relation to wider transcultural global flows Contributors Soumen Mukherjee, Toshio Akai, Jeffery D Long, Arpita Mitra, Philip Goldberg, Ankur Barua, Oyndrila Sarkar, Madhuparna Roychowdhury, Navras J Aafreedi and Faridah Zaman The British Empire: Health problems of the Empire-past, present, and future Hugh Gunn, 1924

Routledge Handbook of Public Diplomacy Nancy Snow, Philip M. Taylor, 2008-11 The Routledge Handbook of Public Diplomacy provides a comprehensive overview of public diplomacy and national image and perception management from the efforts to foster pro-West sentiment during the Cold War to the post-9/11 campaign to win the hearts and minds of the Muslim world Editors Nancy Snow and Philip Taylor present materials on public diplomacy trends in public opinion and cultural diplomacy as well as topical policy issues The latest research in public relations, credibility, soft power, advertising and marketing is included and institutional processes and players are identified and analyzed While the field is dominated by American and British research and developments the book also includes international research and comparative perspectives from other countries Published in association with the USC Center on Public Diplomacy at the Annenberg School based at the University of Southern California Transition and the Politics of History Education in Southeast Europe Augusta Dimou, 2009-10-07 This collection of essays gives an overview on current developments in the field of education in the successor states of ex-Yugoslavia and the Republic of Moldova from the mid-1990s to today The impact of nation and state building processes on the politics of history and on schooling are analysed against the background of the complex social and political transformations that have been taking place in the region changes that are usually subsumed under the problematic and rather unspecific notion of transition The book engages in such issues like What is the role of international actors and which impact have interventions in education What are the preconditions for lasting and sustainable reforms in education What goals are inscribed in history textbook narratives The book addresses these questions from an interdisciplinary perspective and offers insights into the complicated and ambiguous developments in the field of education in Southeast Europe during the last decade Challenging Cosmopolitanism R. Michael Feener, 2018-03-14 The first study of nineteenth century replication across art literature science social science and humanities The Islamic World Journal 1893-1907 and the Anti-Nationalist Pan-Islamism of the Hamidean Policy Amjad Muhsen al-Dajani (al-Daoudi), 2023-10-30 This book illuminates the Islamic World journal s propaganda from 1893 to 1907 It highlights the journal s utility in advancing and defending Sultan Abdul Hamid II s policies during the turbulent time of the 1890s The book sheds light on the political views and editorial activities of the first and last Grand Sheikh of the British Isles Sheikh Abdullah Quilliam This book will interest academics specialists and laymen whose interests relate to anti nationalist Pan Islamism the Armenian massacres of 1894 Pan Islamism Abdul Hamid II s policies British Ottoman relations and British Islam

Calculating Political Risk Catherine Althaus, 2013-11-26 Calculating Political Risk is rich and illuminating and much more than a political science treatise Althaus draws on diverse literature extensive interviews and intriguing case studies to offer interdisciplinary practical and nuanced insight This book provides new perspectives and more precise language for making sense of a critical dimension of politics policy making and public management Evert Lindquist Director and Professor School of Public Administration University of Victoria Canada This powerful new book is the first ever examination of the hard edge of how political risk something faced by all political actors innumerable times every day is calculated and used in decision making It opens with an outline of the historical and linguistic origins of risk the various disciplinary understandings of risk the risk society concept and how risk has come to be so prominent in the context of environmental disaster and terrorism The book then defines political risk and looks at its manifestations in the public sector from project to high level political risk It also looks at risk identification versus risk management and compares the concept of political risk with the private sector practice of risk management Unique research findings from interviews with over 100 risk practitioners and politicians provide a detailed look at how political actors calculate political risk Case study based chapters look in depth at neat and discrete examples risk calculation in state development plans in Australia political risk identification and management in the UK during the mad cow crisis and US government risk calculation in the post September 11 context The final chapters draw together the experiences and lessons learned from the case studies and practitioner insights to formulate a better understanding of what political risk is and what its calculation means in political practice The author shows how political risk calculation provides a fresh perspective on policy analysis and identifies how political risk is relevant to a broader understanding of politics and political science as well as policy formulation and implementation on the ground Europe, Empire, and Spectacle in Nineteenth-Century British Music Julian Rushton, 2017-07-05 This volume illuminates musical connections between Britain and the continent of Europe and Britain and its Empire The seldom recognized vitality of musical theatre and other kinds of spectacle in Britain itself and also the flourishing concert life of the period indicates a means of defining tradition and identity within nineteenth century British musical culture The objective of the volume has been to add significantly to the growing literature on these topics It benefits not only from new archival research but also from fresh musicological approaches and interdisciplinary methods that recognize the integral role of music within a wider culture including religious political and social life The essays are by scholars from the USA Britain and Europe covering a wide range of experience Topics range from the reception of Bach Mozart and Liszt in England a musical response to Shakespeare Italian opera in Dublin exoticism gender black musical identities British musicians in Canada and uses of music in various theatrical genres and state ceremony and in articulating the politics of the Union and Empire East West Mimesis Kader Konuk,2010-09-21 East West Mimesis follows the plight of German Jewish humanists who escaped Nazi persecution by seeking exile in a Muslim dominated society Kader Konuk asks why philologists like Erich Auerbach found humanism at home in Istanbul at the very moment it was banished from Europe She challenges the notion of exile as synonymous with intellectual isolation and shows the reciprocal effects of German migr s on Turkey s humanist reform movement By making literary critical concepts productive for our understanding of Turkish cultural history the book provides a new approach to the study of East West relations Central to the book is Erich Auerbach s Mimesis The Representation of Reality in Western Literature written in Istanbul after he fled Germany in 1936 Konuk draws on some of Auerbach s key concepts figura as a way of conceptualizing history and mimesis as a means of representing reality to show how Istanbul shaped Mimesis and to understand Turkey s humanist reform movement as a type of cultural mimesis Catalogue Number. Course Catalog Anonymous,2025-08-11 Reprint of the original first published in 1876 The Antigonos publishing house specialises in the publication of reprints of historical books We make sure that these works are made available to the public in good condition in order to preserve their cultural heritage China's Galaxy Empire John Keane,Baogang He,2024 In China s Galaxy Empire John Keane and Baogang He target a development of enormous significance China s return after two centuries of decline and subjugation to a position of prominence in world affairs The daring thesis is that China is a newly rising empire of a kind never before witnessed a galaxy empire The galaxy empire interpretation rejects clich d misdescriptions of China as a big power and it explains why China defies older definitions of land sea and air based empires The book warns against the perils of simple minded friend versus enemy thinking and Big China Bad China politics but it also proffers a forewarning to China s rulers no empire lasts forever and some are stillborn because they indulge illusions of greatness and reckless power adventures Egypt's Africa Empire Dr Alice Moore-Harell,2010-03-05 The annexation of Equatoria emerged from the Khedive viceroy Ismail s aspiration for an African empire that would control the source of the White Nile at Lake Victoria This title presents a study of the creation of the province of Equatoria located in present day Southern Sudan For God or Empire Wilson Chacko Jacob,2019-07-30 Sayyid Fadl a descendant of the Prophet

Muhammad led a unique life one that spanned much of the nineteenth century and connected India Arabia and the Ottoman Empire For God or Empire tells his story part biography and part global history as his life and legacy afford a singular view on historical shifts of power and sovereignty religion and politics Wilson Chacko Jacob recasts the genealogy of modern sovereignty through the encounter between Islam and empire states in the Indian Ocean world Fadl s travels in worlds seen and unseen made for a life that was both unsettled and unsettling And through his life at least two forms of sovereignty God and empire become apparent in intersecting global contexts of religion and modern state formation While these changes are typically explained in terms of secularization of the state and the birth of rational modern man the life and afterlives of Sayyid Fadl which take us from eighteenth and nineteenth century Indian Ocean worlds to twenty first century cyberspace offer a more open ended global history of sovereignty and a more capacious conception of life Johann Heinrich Hottinger Jan Loop,2013-10 This book is the first documentation of Hottinger s Arabic and Islamic studies It includes a biographical account of Hottinger studies of his activities as a bibliographer of Arabic texts as teacher of the Arabic language as student of the history of Islam and as a Protestant who used his work to engage in anti Catholic polemics West Germany, Cold War Europe and the Algerian War Mathilde Von Bulow,2016-08-22 An illuminating and provocative account of Germany s role as sanctuary for Algerian nationalists during their fight for independence from France between 1954 and 1962 The book explores key issues such as the impact of external sanctuaries on French counterinsurgency efforts the part played by security and intelligence services in efforts to eliminate these sanctuaries the Algerian War s influence on West German foreign and security policy and finally the emergence of West German civic engagement in support of Algeria s independence struggle which served to shape the newly independent country s perception of its role and place in international society Mathilde Von Bulow sheds new light on the impact of FLN activities the role of anti colonial movements and insurgencies in the developing world in shaping the dynamics of the Cold War as well as the manner in which the Algerian War was fought and won
