Mind The Gap Geography:

Mind the Gap! Gail Davidson, 2012 Mind the Gap! Gail Davidson, Julia Grey, Reneé Ferreira, South Africa. Department of Basic Education, 2012 Approaches to Human Geography Stuart C. Aitken, Gill Valentine, 2014-12-01 The book covers some of the traditionally most obtuse and difficult to grasp philosophical ideas that have influenced geographers geography The fact that these are presented in an inclusive and accessible manner is a key strength Many students have commented that the chapters they have read have encouraged them to read more in this field which is fantastic from a lecturer s perspective Richard White Sheffield Hallam University A new edition of the classic Approaches text for students organised in three sections which overviews and explains the history and philosophy of Human Geographies in all its applications by those who practise it Section One Philosophies Positivist Geography Humanism Feminist Geographies Marxisms Structuration Theory Human Animal Realism Postmodern Geographies Poststructuralist Theories Actor Network Theory Postcolonialism Geohumanities Technologies Section Two People Institutions and Cultures Places and Contexts Memories and Desires Understanding Place Personal and Political Becoming a Geographer Movement and Encounter Spaces and Flows Places as Thoughts Section Three Practices Mapping and Geovisualization Quantification Evidence and Positivism Geographic Information Systems Humanism Activism Feminist Geographies Poststructuralist Theories Psychoanalysis Environmental Inquiry Contested Geographies and Culture Wars Fully updated throughout and with eight brand new chapters this is the core text for modules on history theory and practice in Human Geography Introduction to Geopolitics Colin Flint, 2016-10-06 This new updated edition of Introduction to Geopolitics presents the overarching themes of geopolitical structures and agents in an engaging and accessible manner which requires no previous knowledge of theory or current affairs Using new pertinent case studies and guided exercises the title explains the contemporary global power of the United States and the challenges it is facing the persistence of nationalist conflicts migration cyberwar terrorism and environmental geopolitics Case studies of the rise of the so called Islamic State the South China Sea disputes the Syrian civil war the Korean conflict and Israel Palestine emphasize the multi faceted nature of conflict The book raises questions by incorporating international and long term historical perspectives and introduces readers to different theoretical viewpoints including feminist contributions The new edition features expanded sections on network geopolitics and non state actors a new section on geopolitics of transnational business cyberwar an interpretation of ISIS within historical geopolitical trends as well as expanded discussion of the relevance of Boserup and neo Malthusians to environmental geopolitics Introduction to Geopolitics will provide its readers with a set of critical analytical tools for understanding the actions of states as well as non state actors acting in competition over resources and power Both students and general readers will find this book an essential stepping stone to a deeper and critical understanding of contemporary conflicts Globalization, 3rd edition Eleonore Kofman, Gillian Youngs, 2008-04-28 This fully revised and updated textbook focuses on the major topics of globalization today These include the impact of migration relations between the northern and southern hemispheres how gender and power plays into the globalization process and the politics and economics of freedom of movement in the world Two new chapters on the impact of technology on global communications and the effect of the emerging economies of India and China bring the book fully up to date Further current issues such as the debate concerning environmental security natural disasters the broad spectrum between women s empowering impact in the marketplace and the continued exploitation of women in the sex and service trade are also examined Eleanor Kofman and Gillian Youngs have edited an excellent and comprehensive collection essential for both undergraduate and graduate students trying to gain an understanding of theories and practices driving globalization as we enter into the twenty first century Geopolitical Constructs Colin Flint,2016-09-19 This innovative book tells a unique story about D Day one that does not concentrate on the soldiers who hit the beaches or the admirals and generals who commanded them Instead Colin Flint brings engineers businessmen and bureaucrats to center stage Through them he offers a different way of thinking about war one that sees war as an ongoing set of processes in which seemingly isolated acts are part of broader historical developments Developing the concept ofgeopolitical constructs to understand wars the author connects specific events to long term and global geopolitical arrangements Focusing on the construction of the Mulberry Harbours massive artificial structures dragged across the English Channel in the immediate wake of the invading force Flint illustrates how the process of making war links a vast array of people institutions and places as well as past events and future outcomes He argues that the people who designed and built the Harbours became geopolitical subjects by producing pieces of engineering that helped shape the course of World War Two and the Cold War that followed which created a militarized trans Atlantic that remains today Using previously unpublished archival material to give voice to those who made the Mulberry Harbours and wartime strategy this original study broadens the historical and geographical scope of how we understand war showing how the everyday actions of individuals made and were made by geopolitical settings Spaces of Security and Insecurity Alan Ingram,2016-04-01 Drawing on critical geopolitics and related strands of social theory this book combines new case studies with theoretical and methodological reflections on the geographical analysis of security and insecurity It brings together a mixture of early career and more established scholars and interprets security and the war on terror across a number of domains including international law religion migration development diaspora art nature and social movements At a time when powerful projects of globalization and security continue to extend their reach over an increasingly wide circle of people and places the book demonstrates the relevance of critical geographical imaginations to an interrogation of the present Rednock School David Evans,Barbara Skel,2009-12-15 The fascinating history of Rednock School from its beginnings to being Gloucestershire s only Pathfinder School A Research Agenda for Geographies of Slow Violence Shannon O’Lear,2021-06-25 This timely Research Agenda highlights how slow violence unlike other forms of conflict and direct physical violence is difficult to see and measure It explores ways in which geographers study analyze and draw attention to forms of harm and violence that have often not been at the forefront of public awareness including slow violence affecting children women Indigenous peoples and the environment Handbook of the Geographies of Religion Lily Kong,Orlando Woods,Justin K.H.

Tse,2024-12-02 This international and interdisciplinary handbook offers a comprehensive and an in depth overview of contemporary research theory and practice in the geographies of religion in various parts of the world and with different populations The book showcases the major theoretical interventions in the field and the debates about the existential constitution of sacred space and what this means for secularization It outlines the most significant geographical themes related to these new developments with their implications for how to think about landscapes space bodies and worlds The book also discusses the future of the field especially in the realms of encounters and ethics economies and markets institutions and organisations movements and migrations and media and mediums It also offers views from disciplines outside of geography including from sociology anthropology religious studies and media and communications which demonstrates the contributions of geographers of religion to wider intellectual conversations and debates Transport,

Mobility, and the Production of Urban Space Julie Cidell,David Prytherch,2015-05-01 The contemporary urban experience is defined by flow and structured by circulating people objects and energy Geographers have long provided key insights into transportation systems But today concerns for social justice and sustainability motivate new critical approaches to mobilities Reimagining the city prompts an important question How best to rethink urban geographies of transport and mobility This original book explores connections in theory and practice between transport geographies and new mobilities in the production of urban space It provides a broad introduction to intersecting perspectives of urban geography transport geography and mobilities studies on urban places of flows Diverse international and leading edge contributions reinterpret everyday intersections as nodes urban corridors as links cities and regions as networks and the discourses and imaginaries that frame the politics and experiences of mobility The chapters illuminate nearly all aspects of urban transport from street regulation and roadway planning intended and subversive practices of car and truck drivers planning and promotion of mass transit investments and the restructuring of freight and logistics networks Together these offer a unique and important contribution for social scientists planners and others interested in the politics of the city on the move The Ashgate

Research Companion to Critical Geopolitics Merje Kuus,2016-04-01 Since the late 1980s critical geopolitics has gone from being a radical critical perspective on the disciplines of political geography and international relations theory to becoming a recognised area of research in its own right Influenced by poststructuralist concerns with the politics of representation critical geopolitics considers the ways in which the use of particular discourses shape political practices Initially critical geopolitics analysed the practical geopolitical language of the elites and intellectuals of statecraft Subsequent iterations have considered the role that popular representations of the international political world play As critical geopolitics has become a more established part of political geography it has attracted ever more critique from feminists for its apparent blindness to the embodied effects of geopolitical praxis and from those who have been uncomfortable about its textual focus while others have challenged critical geopolitics to address alternative resistant forms of geopolitical practice Again critical geopolitics has been reworked to incorporate these challenges and the latest iterations have encompassed normative agendas non representational theory emotional geographies and affect It is against the vibrant backdrop of this intellectual development of critical geopolitics as a subdiscipline that this Companion is set Bringing together leading researchers associated with the different forms of critical geopolitics this volume produces an overview of its achievements limitations and areas of new and potential future development The Companion is designed to serve as a key resource for an interdisciplinary group of scholars and practitioners interested in the spatiality of politics

The SAGE Handbook of European Foreign Policy Knud Erik Jorgensen, Aasne Kalland Aarstad, Edith Drieskens, Katie Laatikainen, Ben Tonra, 2015-04-30 During the last two decades the study of European foreign policy has experienced remarkable growth presumably reflecting a more significant international role of the European Union The Union has significantly expanded its policy portfolio and though empty symbolic politics still exists the Union's international relations have become more substantial and its foreign policy more focused European foreign policy has become a dynamic policy area being adapted to changing challenges and environments such as the Arab Spring new emerging economies powers the crisis of multilateralism and much more The SAGE Handbook of European Foreign Policy Two Volume set is a major reference work for Foreign Policy Programmes around the world The Handbook is designed to be accessible to graduate and postgraduate students in a wide variety of disciplines across the humanities and social sciences Both volumes are structured to address areas of critical concern to scholars at the cutting edge of all major dimensions of foreign policy The volumes are composed of original chapters written specifically to the following themes Research traditions and historical experience Theoretical perspectives EU actors State actors Societal actors The politics of European foreign policy Bilateral relations Relations with multilateral institutions Individual policies Transnational challenges The Handbook will be an essential reference for both advanced students and scholars

Senseless Violence and Its Ramifications Ami Rokach, 2018-10-22 The baby boomer generation grew up in the 1950s when there existed the general belief that the Cold War was the greatest threat to the world order and a frightening possibility It was difficult to believe then that it could get worse but the same threat of violence is now a daily occurrence around the globe People are being shot slaughtered maimed and disappear for a multitude of reasons none having any connection most of the time with the victims The scale of loss when these tragedies occur is devastating leaving the public as well as policy makers and legislators scrambling for solutions clarification and understanding of how we have become a society where violence is so rampant so frequent and so senseless This book includes contributions by leading experts on violence and its ramifications who review the devastation reasons and consequences of violence which is senseless cruel and aims to hurt and destroy anyone in its path This book was originally published as a special issue of The Journal of Psychology Political Landscapes of Donald Trump Barney Warf,2020-10-29 This book delves into the life and work of President Donald Trump who is arguably the most famous and controversial person in the world today While his administration has received enormous attention few have studied the spatial dimensions of his policies Political Landscapes of Donald Trump explores the geographies of Trump from multiple conceptual standpoints It contextualizes Donald and his rise to power within the geography of his victory in 2016 Several essays in the book are concerned with his white ethno nationalist political platform and social bases of support Others focus on Trump s use of Twitter his ties to professional wrestling and his innumerable lies and deceits Yet another set delves into the geopolitics of his foreign policies notably in Cuba Korea the Middle East and China Finally it covers how his administration has addressed or failed to address climate change and its treatment of undocumented immigrants This book will be of interest to anyone interested in the Trump administration as well as social scientists and the informed lay public Subversive Property Sarah Keenan,2014-08-13

This book explores the relationship between space subjectivity and property in order to invert conventional socio legal understandings of property Sarah Keenan demonstrates that new political possibilities for property may be unveiled by thinking about property in terms of space and belonging rather than exclusion Drawing on feminist and critical race theory this book shifts focus away from the propertied subject and on to the broader spaces in and through which the propertied subject is located Using case studies such as analyses of compulsory leases under Australia s Northern Territory Intervention and lesbian asylum cases from a range of jurisdictions Keenan argues that these spaces consist of networks of relations that revolve around belonging not just belonging between subject and object as property is traditionally understood but also the less explored relation of belonging between the part and the whole This book therefore offers a conceptually useful way of analysing a wide range of socio legal issues It will be of relevance to those working in the area of property and legal geography but also to those with more general interests in socio legal studies social and political theory postcolonial studies critical race studies and gender and sexuality studies Women and Inequality in a Changing World Hoda Mahmoudi,Jane L. Parpart,Kate Seaman,2023-10-24 Women and Inequality in a Changing World explores the obstacles women continue to face to their equal participation in all areas of daily life political social and economic which persist despite the growth in the education of girls large scale social movements and political waves The volume widens and deepens understanding of women in relation to the inequalities they face based not only on gender but also on race class religion and more It also highlights the progress that women have made and how this progress contributes to the creation of more peaceful and prosperous societies This interdisciplinary book brings together leading scholars and practitioners from across the globe to provide a wide range of perspectives and experiences examine crucial questions and offer new ideas and innovative solutions to increasing the role of women moving forward This book will be of great interest to students and scholars of gender studies
