Islam The Straight Path 4th Edition Esposito:

Islam John L. Esposito, 1988 The world's largest religion Islam is also one of the fastest growing and most politically potent yet its nature remains obscure to many westerners despite its common theological and historical roots with Judaism and Christianity Combining the finest Western scholarship with an insider's understanding of the Muslim world this book provides a brief yet comprehensive introduction to the faith belief and practice of Islam from the seventh century to the contemporary resurgence Drawing on his extensive experience traveling researching and teaching in the Muslim world John L. Esposito records the struggle of Muslims to define and follow their way of life through the development of Islamic law theology mysticism and philosophy bringing his discussion to life with excerpts from a wide range of original sources Written for a broad audience Islam The Straight Path addresses the powerful and pervasive role of Islam in modern Muslim life and the issues that Islam faces avoiding simplified political generalizations about the contemporary scene Completely up to date this book is indispensable to understanding the Islamic world during this turbulent and important period in its history

Wahhabi Islam Natana J. DeLong-Bas, 2008-08-22 Before 9/11 few Westerners had heard of Wahhabism Today it is a household word Frequently mentioned in association with Osama bin Laden Wahhabism is portrayed by the media and public officials as an intolerant puritanical militant interpretation of Islam that calls for the wholesale destruction of the West in a jihad of global proportions In the first study ever undertaken of the writings of Wahhabism's founder Muhammad Ibn Abd al Wahhab 1702-1791 Natana DeLong-Bas shatters these stereotypes and misconceptions Her reading of Ibn Abd al Wahhab's works produces a revisionist thesis Ibn Abd al Wahhab was not the godfather of contemporary terrorist movements Rather he was a voice of reform reflecting mainstream 18th century Islamic thought His vision of Islamic society was based upon a monotheism in which Muslims Christians and Jews were to enjoy peaceful co-existence and cooperative commercial and treaty relations Eschewing medieval interpretations of the Quran and hadith sayings and deeds of the prophet Muhammad Ibn Abd al Wahhab called for direct historically contextualized interpretation of scripture by both women and men His understanding of theology and Islamic law was rooted in Quranic values rather than literal interpretations A strong proponent of women's rights he called for a balance of rights between women and men both within marriage and in access to education and public space In the most comprehensive study of Ibn Abd al Wahhab's interpretation of jihad ever written DeLong-Bas details a vision in which jihad is strictly limited to the self-defense of the Muslim community against military aggression Contemporary extremists like Osama bin Laden do not have their origins in Wahhabism she shows The hallmark jihadi focus on a cult of martyrdom the strict division of the world into two necessarily opposing spheres the wholesale destruction of both civilian life and property and the call for global jihad are entirely absent from Ibn Abd al Wahhab's writings Instead the militant stance of contemporary jihadism lies in adherence to the writings of the medieval scholar Ibn Taymiyya and the 20th century Egyptian radical Sayyid Qutb This pathbreaking book fills an enormous gap in the literature about Wahhabism by returning to the original writings of its founder Bound to be controversial it will be impossible to ignore

The Woman Question in Islamic Studies Kecia Ali, 2024-09-17 The interconnected ways that sexism functions in academic Islamic studies and how to shift professional norms toward parity Despite remarkable shifts in the demographics of Islamic studies in recent decades the field continues to be dominated by men who often relegate other scholars and their work particularly research on gender to its periphery while treating subfields in which men predominate as more rigorous and central In The Woman Question in Islamic Studies Kecia Ali explores the interconnected ways that sexism functions in academic Islamic studies Examining publications citations curricula and media representations Ali finds that despite the growth and depth of scholarship on Islam and gender men continue to overlook women's scholarship even in work that purports to discuss gender issues Moreover media and social media dynamics make talking about Islam and Muslims for broader audiences especially fraught for scholars who are not men particularly when the topic is gender or sexuality Combining broad surveys with more focused analyses of a smaller set of texts Ali shows that textbooks and syllabi continue to exclude women as historical actors and scholars and to marginalize gender and sexuality as subject matter Finally she provides a Beginner's Guide to Eradicating Sexism in Islamic Studies offering practical strategies to help scholars avoid common pitfalls in their own work and contribute to broader professional transformations

Understanding World Religions David Whitten Smith, Elizabeth Geraldine Burr, 2014-08-21 Understanding World Religions introduces students to major worldviews including Hindu Buddhist Muslim Jewish Christian Native American and Marxist through the lens of justice and peace The second edition has been updated and revised throughout After an introduction to key themes in studying world religion chapters help students explore major traditions today Each chapter takes a similar approach examining several dimensions of each tradition experiential and emotional social and institutional narrative or mythic doctrinal and philosophical practical and ritual and ethical and legal Chapters feature profiles of major peacemakers or groups to bring the traditions to life Profiles range from Gandhi and Martin Luther King to Thich Nhat Hanh and Dorothy Day Further chapters explore liberation theologies active nonviolence and just war theory The second edition features a broader framework than the first edition and includes new material on non religious ethical norms Islamophobia colonial evangelization religion in China and an updated examination of the Israel Palestine conflict Understanding World Religions remains a powerful introduction to major worldviews with an emphasis on practical connections to peace and justice

Hispanic Muslims in the United States Victor Hugo Cuartas, 2020-03-31 The empirical case in this study is that of the Hispanic Catholic converts to Islam in the Washington DC Metropolitan and New Jersey areas of the United States The central research question is To what extent do Hispanic Muslim converts play a role in making different choices regarding religious commitment and practice The argument is that not only do both the more and less active converts play a central role in making choices during the pre affiliation and post affiliation stages but that these choices can often be strategic in nature as they practice the new religion in the United States These choices are shaped by multiple factors This contributes to a new understanding of the prevailing debates among Muslims in Europe and the United States on the nature of Muslim minorities in the West that Muslims here are not merely transplanted but are active participants of diverse expressions of local Islam The evidence in my research shows that being less active does not mean converts do not play a role or make choices Both more active and less active converts make choices based on multiple factors This is especially significant as the main aim of this thesis is to show that the converts make choices and play a role in the post affiliation stage and that these often have strategic elements

Family Therapy with Muslims Manijeh Daneshpour,2016-07-22 Family Therapy with Muslims is the first guide for mental health professionals who work with Muslims in the family therapy setting The book opens with a section defining the similarities across Muslim cultures the effects of postcolonialism on Muslims and typical Muslim family dynamics The author then devotes a chapter to different models of family therapy and how they can specifically be applied to working with Muslim families Case studies throughout the book involve families of many different backgrounds living in the West including both immigrant and second generation families that will give professionals concrete tools to work with clients of their own

What Everyone Needs to Know about Islam John L. Esposito,2011-07-13 In the aftermath of September 11 there has been an overwhelming demand for information about Islam the faith in the name of which the hijackings were perpetrated Esposito has assembled a list of the most frequently asked questions about Islam and here provides accessible sensitive and even handed answers

World Religions in America, Fourth Edition Jacob Neusner,2009-10-07 The fourth edition of World Religions in America continues its lauded tradition of providing students with reliable and nuanced information about America s religious diversity while also reflecting new developments and ideas Each chapter was updated to reflect important changes and events and current statistics and information New features include a timeline of key events and people for each tradition sidebars on major movements or controversies personal stories from members of various faiths a theme based organization of subjects more subheads three new chapters exploring America s increasing religious diversity and suggestions for further study

Between Islamic and Secular Law Arezoo Sang Bastian,2024-01-31 When describing the legal systems and laws of today s Muslim majority states in the Middle Eastern and North African region two categories of laws are identified one derived from Islamic and one from non Islamic law Following this notion the literature finds that novel legal areas do not have any connection to Islamic law since they were not regulated by classical Islamic law In contrast the topic of organ transplantation is inherently connected to Islamic law because Islam considers itself to encompass all aspects of life This research based on the analysis of organ transplantation laws of the MENA states encourages to rethink that a strict dichotomy between Islamic and non Islamic laws does not exist Organ transplantation laws in MENA states generally follow an international legal standard while also complying with the sharia

Triune Relationality Sherene Nicholas Khouri,2024-11-19 A key area of disagreement between Christians and Muslims is the nature of God Is God a Trinity or absolutely one Applying insights from early Arabic Christian theologians and philosophers to current conversations Sherene Nicholas Khouri offers both historical and constructive responses to Islamic objections to the doctrine of the Trinity

Historical Dictionary of the Crusades Corliss K. Slack,2013-05-09 The crusades were among the longest and most bitter wars in human history and consisted of no less than seven major expeditions from Western Europe from the late 11th to the early 14th centuries for the purpose of wresting Jerusalem and the Holy Land from the control of the Muslims In the end it was the Muslims who won and the Christians who suffered a major setback and the Middle East remained firmly in Muslim hands This was one of the worst clashes between different religions and civilizations and for long it was largely forgotten or brushed over That is no longer the case with many Muslims regarding Western interference in the region as a repeat of the crusades while launching their own jihads So while an old conflict it is still with us today Even at the time it was very hard to understand the causes and outcome of the crusades and that remains a problem today This Historical Dictionary of the Crusades cannot claim to have resolved it but it most definitely does make the situation easier to understand The introduction provides an overview tracing the crusades from one expedition to the next and assessing their impact The actual flow of events is far easier to follow thanks to the chronology And maps help to trace the events geographically The entries and there are more than 300 of them in this second edition look more closely at notable figures including Pope Gregory VII Richard the lionhearted and Saladin as well as important places Jerusalem Constantinople and others events battles and sieges as well as the use of weapons and armor The bibliography points to further reading

Islam and the Fate of Others Mohammad Hassan Khalil,2012-05-03 Can non Muslims be saved And can those who are damned to Hell ever be redeemed In Islam and the Fate of Others Mohammad Hassan Khalil examines the writings of influential medieval and modern Muslim scholars on the controversial and consequential question of non Muslim salvation This is an illuminating study of four of the most prominent figures in the history of Islam Ghazali Ibn Arabi Ibn Taymiyya and Rashid Rida Khalil demonstrates that though these paradigmatic figures tended to affirm the superiority of the Islamic message they also envisioned a God of mercy and justice and a Paradise populated by Muslims and non Muslims Islam and the Fate of Others reveals that these theologians interpretations of the Qur an and hadith corpus from optimistic depictions of Judgment Day to notions of a temporal Hell and salvation for all challenge widespread assumptions about Islamic scripture and thought Along the way Khalil examines the writings of many other important writers such as Ibn Qayyim al Jawziyya Mulla Sadra Shah Wali Allah of Delhi Muhammad Ali of Lahore James Robson Sayyid Qutb Yusuf al Qaradawi Farid Esack Reza Shah Kazemi T J Winter and Muhammad Legenhausen Islam and the Fate of Others is both timely and overdue
