Police Integrity in South Africa Sanja Kutnjak Ivkovich, Adri Sauerman, 2020-04-29 Policing in South Africa has gained notoriety through its extensive history of oppressive law enforcement In 1994 as the country s apartheid system was replaced with a democratic order the new government faced the significant challenge of transforming the South African police force into a democratic police agency the South African Police Service SAPS that would provide unbiased policing to all the country s people More than two decades since the initiation of the reforms it appears that the SAPS has rapidly developed a reputation as a police agency beset by challenges to its integrity This book offers a unique perspective by providing in depth analyses of police integrity in South Africa It is a case study that systematically and empirically explores the contours of police integrity in a young democracy Using the organizational theory of police integrity the book analyzes the complex set of historical legal political social and economic circumstances shaping police integrity A discussion of the theoretical framework is accompanied by the results of a nationwide survey of nearly 900 SAPS officers probing their familiarity with official rules their expectations of discipline within the SAPS and their willingness to report misconduct The book also examines the influence of the respondents race gender and supervisory status on police integrity Written in a clear and direct style this book will appeal to students and scholars of criminology policing sociology political science as well as to police administrators interested in expanding their knowledge about police integrity and enhancing it in their organizations

Citizenship in Motion Hazama, Itsuhiro, Umeya, Kiyoshi, 2019-04-22 Anthropological reflections on citizenship focus on themes such as politics ethnicity and state management Present day scholarship on citizenship tends to problematise unsettle and contest often taken for granted conventional connotations and associations of citizenship with imagined culturally bounded political communities of rigidly controlled borders This book the result of two years of research conducted by South African and Japanese scholars within the framework of a bilateral project on citizenship in the 21st century contributes to such ongoing efforts at rethinking citizenship globally and as informed by experiences in Africa and Japan in particular Central to the essays in this book is the concept of flexible citizenship predicated on a recognition of the histories of mobility of people and cultures and of the shaping and reshaping of places and spaces and ideas of being and belonging in the process The book elucidates the contingency of political membership relationship between everyday practices and political membership and how citizenship is the mechanism for claiming and denying rights to various political communities Self requires others to construct itself a reality that is subject to renegotiation as one continues to encounter others in a world characterised by myriad forms of interconnecting mobilities both global and local Citizenship is thus to be understood within a complex of power relationships that include ones formed by laws and economic regimes on a local scale and beyond Citizenship in Africa Japan and indeed everywhere is best explored productively as lying between the open ended possibilities and tensions interconnecting the global and local Gaffney's Local Government in South Africa, 2007 Congressional Record, Chase's Calendar of Events 2015 Editors of Chase's Calendar of Events, 2014-10-17 Publisher's Note Products purchased from Third Party sellers are not guaranteed by the publisher for quality authenticity or access to any online entitlements included with the product 12 500 entries 196 countries 365 days Find out what's going on any day of the year anywhere across the globe If you're looking to tie a promotional event to a special month travel to a music festival halfway around the world blog about a historical milestone or do a celebrity birthday round up on your radio show or Twitter feed Chase's Calendar of Events is the one resource that has it all For broadcasters journalists event planners public relations professionals librarians editors writers or simply the curious this is one reference you can't do without Chase's Calendar of Events 2015 brings you Major sporting events such as the FIFA Women's World Cup June 6 the Pan American Games July 10 and the 48th Transpacific Yacht Race July 13 Milestones such as the 800th anniversary of the Magna Carta 200th anniversary of Waterloo 150th anniversary of Lincoln's assassination 75th anniversary of Dunkirk and the Battle of Britain

From Migrant to Worker Michele Ford, 2019-04-15 What happens when local unions begin to advocate for the rights of temporary migrant workers asks Michele Ford in her sweeping study of seven Asian countries Until recently unions in Hong Kong Japan Malaysia Singapore South Korea Taiwan and Thailand were uniformly hostile towards foreign workers but Ford deftly shows how times and attitudes have begun to change Now she argues NGOs and the Global Union Federations are encouraging local unions to represent and advocate for these peripheral workers and in some cases succeeding From Migrant to Worker builds our understanding of the role the international labor movement and local unions have had in developing a movement for migrant workers labor rights Ford examines the relationship between different kinds of labor movement actors and the constraints imposed on those actors by resource flows contingency and local context Her conclusions show that in countries Hong Kong Malaysia and Thailand where resource flows and local factors give the Global Union Federations more influence local unions have become much more engaged with migrant workers But in countries Japan and Taiwan for example where they have little effect there has been little progress While much has changed Ford forces us to see that labor migration in Asia is still fraught with complications and hardships and that local unions are not always able or willing to act

Extremisms in Africa Volume 2 Alain Tschudin, Craig Moffat, Stephen Buchanan-Clarke, Susan Russell, Lloyd Coutts, 2019-06-18 Over the past two decades the rapid emergence and spread of both local and transnational extremist organisations has become a primary source of insecurity in Africa Extremist organisations represent the fluid and variable nature of conflict systems today and are at the heart of some of Africa's most enduring conflicts Moreover the inability of African states to contain the threat of extremism or of heavy handed security responses has led to the loss of thousands of lives displaced millions and deeply impacted the continent's democratisation and development goals This is the second anthology published by Good Governance Africa GGA on the topic of extremism and political violence in Africa Extremisms in Africa one of the first anthologies of its kind on this topic to be authored and published on the African continent provided an account of how extremist groups arose in Africa and the various ways in which they have harnessed their global agendas to local conflict dynamics and structural challenges enabling them to exploit the grievances of individuals and communities for their cause This anthology Extremisms in Africa Volume 2 looks forward giving special attention to the ways in which emergent trends global geopolitics and conflict dynamics merge to impact upon the African continent To this end we have sought to engage diverse topics ranging from ecological concerns surrounding climate change and migration the implications of such human movement for modern day trafficking and slavery and the roles of women and youth State responses to extremism on the African continent are not uniform the capacity of individual states to detect identify police investigate and prosecute is highly variable At the most fundamental level extremism is ripe to arise in contexts where governments are failing especially when democracy is on the wane This anthology identifies some of the most pressing challenges in addressing extremism today and provides chapters that could offer actionable policy insights to governments and civil society Given the nature of Africa's geopolitical landscape state and security services alone cannot prevent extremism It will take a whole of society approach where government civil society academia communities families and individuals collaborate to better understand the local dynamics of recruitment and radicalisation and develop context specific strategies in response This anthology will hopefully provide practitioners with improved insight into some of the key challenges and potential solutions in preventing extremism while also being of interest to the general reader

Comparing Police Organizations Jenny Fleming, Sebastian Roché, 2024-02-15 Police citizen encounters do not occur in a vacuum Police systems globally have similarities and or differences which remain largely understudied and therefore underexplained Comparative policing is a new frontier for policing research as it aims at integrating the institutional and or macro determinants of police strategy and provides important insights into the context in which such strategies emerge This volume shows how lessons and insights emerge from a comparative approach to policing research in various regions of the world It demonstrates the explanatory power of cross national studies with a particular focus on politics policies and for what concerns the nature of police work and the legitimacy of policing The book presents comparative studies from different geographical locations such as Latin and Central America Africa India and Europe and offers insights on Police worker politics in India and Brazil Police non state security actors and political legitimacy in central America Trust in the police and the militarization of law enforcement in Latin America The origins of police legitimacy in Europe How organizational contexts matter by analyzing police adolescent encounters in France and Germany Legitimacy and cooperation with the police in two African states Cross state and cross society research is desirable to increase our understanding of variations of the macro context in which police forces operate what policing means for citizens and for police officers as professional workers This insightful volume is a key resource for scholars and researchers of policing criminology sociology and law This book was originally published as the inaugural volume of Comparative Policing Review Policing and Society International Encyclopedia of Terrorism Martha Crenshaw, John Pimlott, 2015-04-22 This timely reference book places the growing 20th century phenomenon of terrorism in an historical context Starting with the use of assassination in Ancient Greece and including the recent bombing of the American military complex in Dhahran Saudi Arabia this encyclopedia covers the globe in its presentation of all aspects of terrorism history theories of types of and responses to as well methods and techniques There is a chronology of major terrorist events from 1945 an A to Z listing of terrorist groups and leaders a select bibliography and indexes general name and geographical Yusif Sayigh Rosemary Sayigh, 2015-03-01 An acclaimed economist and lifelong Palestinian nationalist Yusif Sayigh 1916 2004 came of age at a time of immense political change in the Middle East Born in al Bassa near Acre in northern Palestine he was witness to the events that led to the loss of Palestine and his memoir therefore constitutes a vivid social history of the region as well as a revealing firsthand account of the Palestinian national movement almost from its earliest inception Family and everyday life co villagers landscapes pleasures outings schooling and political figures recreate the vanished world of Sayigh s formative years in the Levant An activist in Palestine he was taken prisoner of war by the Israelis in 1948 Later as an economist he wrote extensively on Arab oil economic development and manpower teaching for many years at the American University of Beirut and taking early retirement in 1974 to work as a consultant for a number of pan Arab and international organizations A single chapter on Palestinian politics provides insights into his later activist work and experiences of working as a consultant with the Palestine Liberation Organization to produce an economic plan for an eventual Palestinian state This fascinating memoir by a pioneer and major figure of the Palestinian national movement is a welcome addition to the growing literature on Palestinian life during the first half of the twentieth century as well as an account of some of the most pressing political and economic issues to have faced the Arab world for the better part of the twentieth century Palmer's Index to "The Times" Newspaper ,1894 Covers the period from 1790 to 1905 in The Times of London A Goldstar Century Ian Hall, 2015-10-30 Number 31 Squadron RAF will celebrate its centenary in 2015 a pivotal milestone for a Squadron engaged at the forefront of military activity for the past 100 years With a number of events lined up to celebrate this important anniversary former Commanding Officer of the Squadron Ian Hall has set himself the ambitious task of penning the Squadron s entire history from formation right up to current day activities This lively and informative narrative is interspersed with first hand accounts taken from interviews conducted with the men who made make up the Squadron The first twenty five years of the Squadron s history were spent on India s North West Frontier hence the Squadron motto First in the Indian Skies During the Second World War it was occupied mainly in the Middle East and North Africa before moving to the Burma theatre for the remainder of the war Upon returning to the UK in 1948 the Squadron performed communications duties until in 1955 it joined the Cold War in West Germany operating successively in reconnaissance and strike attack roles Operational deployment in recent years has seen the Squadron deployed during the Gulf War the Iraq War in Kosovo and Afghanistan With troops pulling out of Afghanistan in 2014 31 Squadron have now completed a circular history and there seems no better time than now to commit it to print Each and every facet of this long and varied history is relayed in a style that serves to provide an account that is at once celebratory and objective when it comes to recording not only the facts of the various deployments but also the personal stories of the men behind the headlines

Inner Beauty Is What Counts Demetrakis Ioannou, 2015-09-29 When we hear Parimies Greek for proverbs and sayings we often say I remember my grandmother saying that but we probably never fully captured the power and depth of these words Even though the young generations of migrants of the diaspora may have been exposed to the language of the Parimies by their parents and grandparents the beauty and strength of the messages was only vaguely understood as the next generations experienced a language barrier which prevented full comprehension and appreciation of these proverbs During my childhood Parimies comprised a rich part of my parents and grandparents vocabulary who often conveyed messages to us through the powerful tool of these proverbs The wisdom philosophy and logic of the Parimies fascinated me as a young boy I made a promise to myself that one day I would present these ancient gems in a way which I hope will ignite a spark of inspiration to be carried through to future generations Well this is what this book is all about I have stayed true to my goal and after four years of research and hard work I put before you every aspect of the fascinating world of the Parimies I hope that the humour and sadness of the stories used as examples mainly true stories from my own life experience will resonate with you dear reader and give you an insight of the richness of the Greek Cypriot culture family values and life in general Its the kind of book that you will come back to from time to time and I truly hope that it will find a very special place in your personal library

Handbook of BRICS and Emerging Economies PB Anand, Shailaja Fennell, Flavio Comim, 2020-12-16 Ever since Jim O Neill at Goldman Sachs coined the term BRICS in 2001 there have been many different assessments of these major emerging economies with some even proclaiming that the promise of the BRICS comprising Brazil Russia India China and South Africa is over However the so called arranged marriage still seems to be working well with the club having become a formal international forum with summit declarations ministerial meetings and numerous BRICS wide fora Is this euphoria misplaced Is there a BRICS model of economic and human development Are inequalities increasing and is this the denouncement of the economic successes Are geo political tensions rising between these nations During the post COVID 19 situation the importance of bilateral and multilateral co operation mechanisms and institutions is becoming clear This book focuses on one such emerging co operation mechanism of BRICS but also more widely on those five countries and other similar economies As a global depression looms large global economic recovery depends on the performance of not only its largest economies but also many other important and significant economies within the so called G20 group Even prior to the COVID 19 outbreak multilateral institutions have been under considerable strain as with the relationship between the United States of America and China and risks to global economic recovery appear very real This book brings together multi disciplinary perspectives from over sixty scholars and it presents a comprehensive and deep dive into the BRICS and emerging economies and into an understanding the political economic and social contexts that can help in designing approaches for recovery and regaining the last momentum in the journey towards the Sustainable Development Goals Africa Toyin Falola, Daniel Jean-Jacques, 2015-12-14 These volumes offer a one stop resource for researching the lives customs and cultures of Africa s nations and peoples Unparalleled in its coverage of contemporary customs in all of Africa this multivolume set is perfect for both high school and public library shelves The three volume encyclopedia will provide readers with an overview of contemporary customs and life in North Africa and sub Saharan Africa through discussions of key concepts and topics that touch everyday life among the nations peoples While this encyclopedia places emphasis on the customs and cultural practices of each state history politics and economics are also addressed Because entries average 14 000 to 15 000 words each contributors are able to expound more extensively on each country than in similar encyclopedic works with shorter entries As a result readers will gain a more complete understanding of what life is like in Africa s 54 nations and territories and will be better able to draw cross cultural comparisons based on their reading The West and China in Africa Alemayehu Mekonnen, 2015-11-13 The West and China in Africa Civilization without Justice is an outcome of Dr Alemayehu Mekonnen s personal intellectual struggle life experience and an attempt to understand Christ and his message within the cultural context of Africa The intellectual struggle has to do with the paradoxical reality of Africa s situation An attempt to reconcile the seemingly irreconcilable situation of Africa tests and stretches anyone s mind beyond limit According to archaeological and geological findings Africa is the first habitat of humanity and yet it is the least habitable place in the world today The continent is extremely rich with natural resources but it is known for poverty disease malnutrition and starvation As some Afro centric scholars argue Africa is the birthplace of world civilization and yet it is known for destruction Social instability is rampant coup d etat and counter coup d etat is common Displacement and the number of refugees are ever increasing As a person of African origin and now a US citizen Mekonnen was able to see realities objectively in the eyes of an African and American This book explores the myth and reality of Western Eastern and African dictators role in the history of Africa
