

My Childhood Days

It was a green universe where I was born. I was born and raised in a little town which could about cognize as countryside. Now, the little town has already collapsed and turned into a developing-city. It is so sad that I can merely remember my childhood yearss in my head alternatively of sing the little town.

It was a little town with warm-hearted villagers. We were all friends and ever portion our nutrients and games. Mak Kwan had the most celebrated cookery while En. Chong could wing the kite highest. Hmm... I could still smell the curry in the air! My brother and I, we used to hotfoot to Mak Kwan's place and asked for curry when we smell it. Mak Kwan ne'er diminution and ever offers us a large bowl of curry to portion with our household. The satisfaction is so difficult to depict.

In my childhood yearss, I loved to angle in the rivers. Particularly hand-fishing! I ne'er like to angle with the rods because it is excessively mussy. Although I like to angle, I am non good at it. So, it was ever a large surprise for me when I succeeded to catch a fish. It made me smile all the twenty-four hours because I was over the Moon! I normally went angling with my brother. Not like me, he was good at hand-fishing. He could ever catch a basket-full of fish. But, we merely chose a fish to convey place and allow the others go. Brother said that this was to do certain that there are ever fishes in the rivers.

One twenty-four hours, I watched "Recess" and I was so impressed by the tree-house. I asked for permission to construct a tree-house, and my male parent promised to do me one! God is so good to me! My pa said that it was his dream when he was little excessively, so, he tried to do his and my dream came true. Then, we started to continue. First, we selected a tree which was suited to construct a tree-house. After that, we drew a simple blue-print of the tree-house. We chopped down some trees and cut them into boards (it was non encouraged to cut down trees at that clip, but no 1 stopped us because everyone was excited to see the tree-house) . After three months, it was done! Not every bit epicurean as the one in "Recess" , but it was reasonably good. At that clip, I thought that I would go a good designer because I could plan and construct. Now, I learned that I was naif and stupid. In my childhood yearss, it was non merely my resort area, but besides my safe oasis when I was scolded by my parents. It used to be my place to place.

In the little town I lived, there was a little jungle. My brother and I enjoyed jungle trekking and explored some new things in the jungle. We had an album named 'Jungle Diary' . We wrote down all the interesting incident during the geographic expedition. We besides collected the alone foliages, stucked it in the album and did some notes. We besides liked to detect the animals' life style. We had an old digital camera, we shot the exposure of the birds and wrote down the features

English Essay Writing Handbook Emmanuel Tatah Mentan, 2019-01-23 There is no available information at this time
Author will provide once available Bodies That Remember Anita Anantharam, 2012-01-30 An engaging and informative exploration of four women poets writing in Hindi and Urdu over the course of the twentieth century in India and Pakistan Anantharam follows the authors and their works as both countries undergo profound political and social transformations The book tells of how these women forge solidarities with women from different castes classes and religions through their poetry

Mahadevi Varma , Narrating the Self Tomi Suzuki, 1996 Narrating the Self examines the historical formation of modern Japanese literature through a fundamental reassessment of its most characteristic form the I novel an autobiographical narrative thought to recount the details of the writer's personal life thinly veiled as fiction Closely analysing a range of texts from the late nineteenth century through to the present day the author argues that the I novel is not a given form of text that can be objectively identified but a historically constructed reading mode and cultural paradigm that not only regulated the production and reception of literary texts but also defined cultural identity and national tradition Instead of emphasising as others have the thematic and formal elements of novels traditionally placed in this category she explores the historical formation of a field of discourse in which the I novel was retroactively created and defined Parents and Children in the Mid-Victorian Novel Madeleine Wood, 2020-10-30 This book produces an original argument about the emergence of trauma in the nineteenth century through new readings of Dickens Emily and Charlotte Bronte Collins Gaskell and Elliot Madeleine Wood argues that the mid Victorian novels present their protagonists in a state of damage provoked and defined by the conditions of the mid century family the cross generational relationship is presented as formative and traumatising By presenting family relationships as decisive for our psychological state as well as our social identity the Victorian authors pushed beyond the contemporary scientific models available to them Madeleine Wood analyses the literary and historical conditions of the mid century period that led to this new literary emphasis and which paved the way for the emergence of psychoanalysis in Vienna at the fin de siècle Analysing a series of theoretical texts Madeleine Wood shows that psychoanalysis shares the mid Victorian concern with the unequal relationship between adult and child focusing her reading through Freud's early writings and Jean Laplanche's general theory of seduction Mirabai Nancy M. Martin, 2023 Mirabai an iconic sixteenth century Indian poet saint is renowned for her unwavering love of God her disregard for social hierarchies and gendered notions of honor and shame and her challenge to familial feudal and religious authorities Defying attempts to constrain and even kill her she could not be silenced Though verifiable facts regarding her life are few her fame spread across social linguistic and religious boundaries and stories about her multiplied across the subcontinent and the centuries In Mirabai Nancy M Martin traces the story of this immensely popular Indian saint from the earliest manuscript references to her through colonial and nationalist developments to scholarly and popular portrayals in the decades leading up to Indian independence This book examines Mirabai's place as both insider and outsider to the developing strands of devotional Hinduism and her role in contested terrain of debates around the education and independence of women and the crafting of Indian and Hindu identities Mirabai offers a comprehensive and multi-layered portrait of this remarkable and still controversial woman who continues to be a source of inspiration and catalyst for self-actualization for spiritual seekers artists activists and so many others in India and around the world today
