alien contact Unspeakable Things Unspoken Isabelle M. Hamley, 2019-01-30 The story of the raped and murdered woman of Judges 19 and the civil war and mass marriage that ensue in chapters 20-21 are hardly favorite tales of the Hebrew Bible. The chapters have often been dismissed as little more than an anachronistic epilogue, an awkward amalgamation of earlier stories or a text of terror proof of patriarchal oppression. This book argues that far from being a clumsy collage, Judges 19-21 is a carefully narrated tale that chronicles the descent of a nation into extreme individualism and fragmentation. In dialogue with continental philosopher Luce Irigaray, it will uncover the dynamics of identity formation and how differential constructions of identity of the One and the Other yield patterns of victimization and justification of violence. This literary philosophical reading will bring out silences and missed possibilities for the subjectivity of women whilst also shedding light on the victimization of men within the logic of totalitarian identity constructions. The end of Judges therefore offers a theological conclusion to the book as a whole and opens up avenues for thought on theological anthropology, understandings of identity and gender, and a theological commentary on violence. Fighting Terror after Napoleon Beatrice de Graaf, 2020-10 Europe was forged out of the ashes of the Napoleonic wars by means of a collective fight against revolutionary terror. The Allied Council created a culture of inclusion and exclusion of people that were persecuted and those who were protected using secret police, black lists, border controls, and fortifications, and financed by European capital holders. Rizzoli & Isles Tess Gerritsen, 2017 Boston PD detective Jane Rizzoli and medical examiner Maura Isles pursue a shadowy psychopath who is keeping secrets and taking lives. Turnskin Steven Hammonds, 2013-11-11 This novel contains Escape, Entrapment, Torture, Alchemic Experiments, a little Romance, and Fights. In the vain of trouble through Lycanthropes. The Complete Peter Cushing David Miller, 2005 This book is a complete guide to the career and films of Peter Cushing, one of Britain's best loved actors who has played such classic roles as Doctor Who and Sherlock Holmes. Sallust, Translated by W. Rose, with Improvements and Notes Sallust, 1830 Languages of Resistance, Transformation, and Futurity in Mediterranean Crisis-Scapes Maria Boletsi, Janna Houwen, Liesbeth Minnaard, 2020-09-01 This collection rethinks crisis in relation to critique through the prism of various declared crises in the Mediterranean: the refugee crisis, the Eurozone crisis, the Greek debt crisis, the Arab Spring, the Palestinian question, and others. With contributions from cultural, literary, film, and migration studies, and sociology, this book shifts attention from Europe to the Mediterranean as a site not only of intersecting crises but a breeding ground for new cultures of critique, visions of futurity, and radical imaginaries shaped through or against frameworks of crisis. If crisis rhetoric today serves populist, xenophobic, or anti-democratic agendas, can the concept of crisis still do the work of critique or partake in transformative languages by scholars, artists, and activists? Or should we forge different vocabularies to understand present realities? This collection explores alternative mobilizations of crisis and forms of art, cinema, literature, and cultural practices across the Mediterranean that disengage from dominant crisis narratives.
