A Reader's Guide to the Novels of Louise Erdrich Peter G. Beidler, Gay Barton, 2006 A revised and expanded comprehensive guide to the novels of Native American author Louise Erdrich from Love Medicine to The Painted Drum Includes chronologies genealogical charts complete dictionary of characters map and geographical details about settings and a glossary of all the Ojibwe words and phrases used in the novels Provided by publisher Native American Literatures Suzanne Everts Lundquist, 2004-01-01 Following the structure of other titles in the Continuum Introductions to Literary Genres series Native American Literatures includes A broad definition of the genre and its essential elements A timeline of developments within the genre Critical concerns to bear in mind while reading in the genre Detailed readings of a range of widely taught texts In depth analysis of major themes and issues Signposts for further study within the genre A summary of the most important criticism in the field A glossary of terms An annotated critical reading list This book offers students writers and serious fans a window into some of the most popular topics styles and periods in this subject Authors studied in Native American Literatures include N Scott Momaday Leslie Marmon Silko Louise Erdrich James Welch Linda Hogan Gerald Vizenor Sherman Alexie Louis Owens Thomas King Michael Dorris Simon Ortiz Cater Revard and Daine Glancy Women Constructing Men Sarah S. G. Frantz, Katharina Rennhak, 2010-01-15 Female novelists have always invested as much narrative energy in constructing their male characters as in envisioning their female The collected articles in demonstrate that the topic of female authored masculinities not only allows scholars to re discover almost every novel written by a woman but also triggers reflections on a host of theoretical questions of gender and genre Afterlives of Modernism John Carlos Rowe, 2015-02-05 In times of liberal despair it helps to have someone like John Carlos Rowe put things into perspective in this case with a collection of essays that asks the question Must we throw out liberalism s successes with the neoliberal bathwater Rowe first lays out a genealogy of early twentieth century modernists such as Gertrude Stein John Dos Passos William Faulkner and Ralph Ellison with an eye toward stressing their transnationally engaged liberalism and their efforts to introduce into the literary avant garde the concerns of politically marginalized groups whether defined by race class or gender The second part of the volume includes essays on the works of Harper Lee Thomas Berger Louise Erdrich and Philip Roth emphasizing the continuity of efforts to represent domestic political and social concerns While critical of the increasingly conservative tone of the neoliberalism of the past quarter century Rowe rescues the value of liberalism s sympathetic and socially engaged intent even as he criticizes modern liberalism s inability to work transnationally

Critical Articulations of Race, Gender, and Sexual Orientation Sheena C. Howard, 2014-09-17 Critical Articulations of Race Gender and Sexual Orientation engages scholarly essays poems and creative writings that examine the meanings of race gender and sexual orientation as interlocking systems of oppression Each chapter in this volume critically yet creatively interrogates the notion of identity as socially constructed yet interconnected and shaped by cultural associations expanding on the idea that we as individuals live in an identity matrix our self concept experiences and interpretations originate or are developed from the culture in which we are embedded The shaping of an individual s identity communication and worldview can be read shaped and understood through life art popular culture mass media and cross cultural interactions among other things The aptness of this work lies in its ability to provide a meaningful and creative space to analyze identity and identity politics highlighting the complexities of identity formation in the twenty first century Handbook of the American Novel of the Twentieth and Twenty-First Centuries Timo Müller,2017-01-11 Increasing specialization within the discipline of English and American Studies has shifted the focus of scholarly discussion toward theoretical reflection and cultural contexts These developments have benefitted the discipline in more ways than one but they have also resulted in a certain neglect of close reading As a result students and researchers interested in such material are forced to turn to scholarship from the 1960s and 1970s much of which relies on dated methodological and ideological presuppositions The handbook aims to fill this gap by providing new readings of texts that figure prominently in the literature classroom and in scholarly debate from James s The Ambassadors to McCarthy s The Road These readings do not revert naively to a time before theory Instead they distil the insights of literary and cultural theory into concise introductions to the historical background the themes the formal strategies and the reception of influential literary texts and they do so in a jargon free language accessible to readers on all levels of qualification

Nonbinary Gender Identities Charlie McNabb,2017-12-08 Nonbinary gender identities are those that fall outside the traditional binary of man and woman These include genderfluid androgynous genderqueer and a multitude of other identity terms some of which overlap Although there have always been people who identify outside the gender binary only recently have they gained popular media attention Despite some visibility however nonbinary gender identities are poorly understood by the general public It is critically important for gender minorities to find themselves in the media that they consume Just as important is the need for those outside the minority community to understand and appreciate them Nonbinary gender identities are represented in books and other media but these resources prove difficult to locate as classification vocabulary doesn t evolve as quickly as community language Reference sources identified include archives and special collections theses and dissertations key journals and related organizations and associations This timely resource the first reference on nonbinary gender identities offers an accessible entry into researching this topic Written by a nonbinary scholar and librarian this guide includes valuable appendixes that will aid every researcher and writer a glossary of the rich vocabulary emerging from nonbinary communities a guide to pronoun usage a primer on sex sexuality and gender and Library of Congress Classification information Contemporary American Women Fiction Writers Laurie Champion,Rhonda Austin,2002-11-30 American women writers have long been creating an extraordinarily diverse and vital body of fiction particularly in the decades since World War II Recent authors have benefited from the struggles of their predecessors who broke through barriers that denied women opportunities for self expression This reference highlights

American women writers who continue to build upon the formerly male dominated canon Included are alphabetically arranged entries for more than 60 American women writers of diverse ethnicity who wrote or published their most significant fiction after World War II Each entry is written by an expert contributor and includes L DBLA brief biography L DBLA discussion of major works and themes DBLA survey of the writer s critical reception L DBLA bibliography of primary and secondary sources

Sister Nations Heid Ellen Erdrich, Laura Tohe, 2010-06 A captivating anthology of fiction prose and poetry Contributors include Louise Erdrich Joy Harjo and Diane Glancy

Louise Erdrich's Justice Trilogy Connie A. Jacobs, Nancy J. Peterson, 2021-10-01 Louise Erdrich is one of the most important prolific and widely read contemporary Indigenous writers Here leading scholars analyze the three critically acclaimed recent novels The Plague of Doves 2008 The Round House 2012 and LaRose 2016 that make up what has become known as Erdrich s justice trilogy Set in small towns and reservations of northern North Dakota these three interwoven works bring together a vibrant cast of characters whose lives are shaped by history identity and community Individually and collectively the essays herein illuminate Erdrich s storytelling abilities the complex relations among crime punishment and forgiveness that characterize her work and the Anishinaabe contexts that underlie her presentation of character conflict and community The volume also includes a reader s guide to each novel a glossary and an interview with Erdrich that will aid in readers navigation of the justice novels These timely original and compelling readings make a valuable contribution to Erdrich scholarship and subsequently to the study of Native literature and women s authorship as a whole

The Native American Renaissance Alan R. Velie, A. Robert Lee, 2013-11-11 The outpouring of Native American literature that followed the publication of N Scott Momaday s Pulitzer Prize winning House Made of Dawn in 1968 continues unabated Fiction and poetry autobiography and discursive writing from such writers as James Welch Gerald Vizenor and Leslie Marmon Silko constitute what critic Kenneth Lincoln in 1983 termed the Native American Renaissance This collection of essays takes the measure of that efflorescence The contributors scrutinize writers from Momaday to Sherman Alexie analyzing works by Native women First Nations Canadian writers postmodernists and such theorists as Robert Warrior Jace Weaver and Craig Womack Weaver s own examination of the development of Native literary criticism since 1968 focuses on Native American literary nationalism Alan R Velie turns to the achievement of Momaday to examine the ways Native novelists have influenced one another Post renaissance and postmodern writers are discussed in company with newer writers such as Gordon Henry Jr and D L Birchfield Critical essays discuss the poetry of Simon Ortiz Kimberly Blaesser Diane Glancy Luci Tapahonso and Ray A Young Bear as well as the life writings of Janet Campbell Hale Carter Revard and Jim Barnes An essay on Native drama examines the work of Hanay Geiogamah the Native American Theater Ensemble and Spider Woman Theatre In the volume s concluding essay Kenneth Lincoln reflects on the history of the Native American Renaissance up to and beyond his seminal work and discusses Native literature s legacy and future The essays collected here underscore the vitality of Native American literature and the need for debate on theory and ideology      Nationhood and Improvised Belief in American Fiction Ann Genzale, 2021-01-15 Nationhood and Improvised Belief in American Fiction highlights the ways religious belief and practice intersect with questions of national belonging in the work of major contemporary writers Through readings of novels by Louise Erdrich Toni Morrison Cristina Garcia and others this book argues that the representations of syncretic culturally hybrid and improvised forms of religious practice operate in these novels as critiques of exclusionary constructions of national identity providing models for alternate ways of belonging based on shared religious beliefs and practices Rather than treating the religious history of the U S as one of increasing secularization this book instead calls for greater attention to the diversity of religious experience in the U S as well as a deeper understanding of the ways in which these experiences can inform relationships to the national community      The Modernist God State Michael Lackey, 2012-03-22 The Modernist God State seeks to overturn the traditional secularization approach to intellectual and political history and to replace it with a fuller understanding of the religious basis of modernist political movements Lackey demonstrates that Christianity instead of fading after the Enlightenment actually increased its power by becoming embedded within the concept of what was considered the legitimate nation state thus determining the political agendas of prominent political leaders from King Leopold II to Hitler Lackey first argues that novelists can represent intellectual and political history in a way that no other intellectual can Specifically they can picture a subconscious ideology which often conflicts with consciously held systems of belief short circuiting straight into political action an idea articulated by E M Forster Second in contrast to many literary scholars who discuss Hitler and the Nazis without studying and quoting their texts Lackey draws his conclusions from close readings of their writings In doing so he shows that one cannot understand the Nazis without taking into account the specific version of Christianity underwriting their political agenda      Blockades and Resistance Bruce W. Hodgins, Ute Lischke, David T. McNab, 2003 This book examines Aboriginal resistance movements on Canada focussing especially on the Temagami and Oka blockades      The Concept of Community from a Global Perspective , 2024-05-21 This volume presents essays analysing the ambivalent history of the globally influential political and social concept of community and the paradigms it has engendered in academia and politics While the term community often evokes positive sentiments it is also linked to oppressive regimes and exclusion A survey of the term's use is followed by studies of the sociologist Ferdinand Tönnies and of the use of the term in disciplines such as politics applied linguistics anthropology literary theory philosophy and intellectual history The volume concludes with an analysis of the application of the concept in politics in the UK debates between liberals and communitarianists utopianism and African philosophy Contributors are Niall Bond Christopher Adair Toteff Daniel Alvaro Alexander Wierzock Sebastian Klauke Antonin Cohen Jan Buts Stéphane Vibert Rami Astruc Elisabeth Bouzonviller Françoise Orazi Andrew Vincent Astrid von Busekist Robert Kramm and Thaddeus Metz      Virginia Woolf Jeanne Dubino, 2014-11-30 No detailed description available for Virginia Woolf      The Queerness of Native American

Literature Lisa Tatonetti, 2014-11-30 With a new and more inclusive perspective for the growing field of queer Native studies Lisa Tatonetti provides a genealogy of queer Native writing after Stonewall Looking across a broad range of literature Tatonetti offers the first overview and guide to queer Native literature from its rise in the 1970s to the present day In The Queerness of Native American Literature Tatonetti recovers ties between two simultaneous renaissances of the late twentieth century queer literature and Native American literature She foregrounds how Indigeneity intervenes within and against dominant interpretations of queer genders and sexualities recovering unfamiliar texts from the 1970s while presenting fresh cogent readings of well known works In juxtaposing the work of Native authors including the longtime writer activist Paula Gunn Allen the first contemporary queer Native writer Maurice Kenny the poet Janice Gould the novelist Louise Erdrich and the filmmakers Sherman Alexie Thomas Bezucha and Jorge Manuel Manzano with the work of queer studies scholars Tatonetti proposes resourceful interventions in foundational concepts in queer studies while also charting new directions for queer Native studies Throughout she argues that queerness has been central to Native American literature for decades showing how queer Native literature and Two Spirit critiques challenge understandings of both Indigeneity and sexuality

The Oxford Encyclopedia of American Literature Jay Parini, 2004 The Encyclopedia of American Literature gathers together 350 essays from over 190 leading scholars on the whole of American literature from European discovery to the present At the core of the Encyclopedia lie 250 essays on poets playwrights essayists and novelists Figures such as Whitman Melville Faulkner Frost and Morrison are discussed in detail with each examined in the context of his or her times an assessment of the writer's current reputation a bibliography of major works and a list of major critical and biographical works about the writer Fifty entries on major works such as Moby Dick Song of Myself Walden The Great Gatsby The Waste Land Their Eyes Were Watching God Death of a Salesman and Beloved place the work in its historical context and offer a range of possibilities with regard to critical approach The Encyclopedia also contains essays on literary movements periods and themes pulling together a broad range of information and making connections between them Each entry has its own primary and annotated secondary bibliography and a system of cross references helps readers locate information with ease The Encyclopedia of American Literature is an outstanding reference source for students studying authors or particular pieces of literature libraries looking for one comprehensive source and readers interested in American literature its authors and its connection with various areas of study

A to Z of American Women Writers Carol Kort, 2014-05-14 Presents a biographical dictionary profiling important women authors including birth and death dates accomplishments and bibliography of each author's work

Writing Together, Writing Apart Linda K. Karell, 2002-01-01 In this study of collaborative writing in western American literature Linda K Karell asks broad and fruitful questions about how writing in general is produced By examining collaboration both as a process and as a product she challenges the definition of an author as an individual genius who creates original works of art in isolation From a collaborative view what was a fairly direct cause and effect scenario individual author inspiration original literary masterpiece becomes something much less clear An individual is always located within a shifting context of texts from which he or she draws to produce often with substantial and varied support from other writers editors spouses or partners and institutions a work that will be termed original Collaboration insists on recognizing this oft hidden contribution of others as an important component of meaning something our traditional understanding of the author persists in ignoring or displacing Karell provides a close analysis of the various means by which writers work with others to produce their final literary products Methods include traditional joint writing practices such as ghostwriting or edited texts as in the case of Mourning Dove and ethnographer Lucullus McWhorter the incorporation of existing diaries or letters from other writers for example Wallace Stegner's Angle of Repose with Mary Hallock Foote and dual authored texts such as those produced by Louise Erdrich and Michael Dorris By challenging the seductive myth of the solitary writer within the context of the myth of the independent westerner Karell makes the compelling argument that collaboration is an inescapable part of writing
