"But you're growing all the time. Now all you have to do is to start growing outwards as well as upwards. Put on a bit more weight and we'll have you in that rugby team, don't you worry?" Rob picked up his shirt and began uncertainly pushing his arms into his sleeves. "When do they pick the team?" Mr. Williams asked. "I should have thought they'd have done it by now." "They have done it," said Rob. He bent down to pick up his socks from under a chair. "They have? And you—" "I wasn't selected," said the boy, looking attentively at the socks as if trying to discover very small differences in color and weave. Mr. Williams opened his mouth, closed it again, and stood for a moment looking out of the window. Then he gently held his hand	160
