Studer, 2020-09-28 The ideal resource for school counseling field experiences the updated and expanded third edition of A Guide to Practicum and Internship for School Counselors in Training covers all aspects of the practicum and internship experience from the initial contact with supervisors to detailed descriptions of students different roles Readers will gain an awareness of school culture and the understanding needed to develop an individualized philosophy of school counseling Each chapter contains activities case studies worksheets and images to facilitate understanding and all material is consistent with both the Council for Accreditation of Counseling and Related Educational Programs CACREP 2016 Common Core and School Counselor Entry Level Specialty Areas and the school counselor standards identified by the American School Counselor Association ASCA Specific focus is given to strategies for implementing the ASCA National Model 4th edition as a part of clinical experiences This text can be used by faculty students and supervisors alike to support and enhance the school counseling knowledge base used to meet the needs of all students     El-Hi Textbooks & Serials in Print, 2005, 2005     A Guide to Educational Research Peter Gordon, 2014-01-14 This account of development in educational research is intended as a guide to possible research areas both fundamental and policy related for students in colleges and higher education institutions and should also be of interest to those engaged in curriculum planning and administration

El-Hi Textbooks & Serials in Print, 2003, 2003     American Book Publishing Record, 2005     Toolkit for Counseling Spanish-Speaking Clients Lorraine T. Benuto, 2017-11-14 This timely practical reference addresses the lack of Spanish language resources for mental health professionals to use with their Latino clients Geared toward both English and Spanish speaking practitioners in a variety of settings this volume is designed to minimize misunderstandings between the clinician and client and with that the possibility of inaccurate diagnosis and or ineffective treatment Coverage for each topic features a discussion of cultural considerations guidelines for evidence based best practices a review of available findings a treatment plan plus clinical tools and client handouts homework sheets worksheets and other materials Chapters span a wide range of disorders and problems over the life course and include reproducible resources for Assessing for race based trauma Using behavioral activation and cognitive interventions to treat depression among Latinos Treating aggression substance use abuse and dependence among Latino Adults Treating behavioral problems among Latino adolescents Treating anxiety among Latino children Working with Latino couples Restoring legal competency with Latinos The Toolkit for Counseling Spanish Speaking Clients fills a glaring need in behavioral service delivery offering health psychologists social workers clinical psychologists neuropsychologists and other helping professionals culturally relevant support for working with this underserved population The materials included here are an important step toward dismantling barriers to mental health care

series Research on Education in Africa the Caribbean and the Middle East the volume continues with the previously established overarching purpose of publishing chapters that are based upon research conducted in those regions by scholars many of whom are indigenous to the regions they write about and are therefore able to provide cultural insights about relevant issues as well as nonindigenous scholars who have conducted their studies in countries within the regions or about those regions This mixture of indigenous scholarship offering emic perspectives and outside scholarship offering etic perspectives continues to be a relative strength and uniqueness of this book series In addition several chapters in the current volume constitute collaborations between the authors etic and emic to the contexts about which they write This bifocality in the gaze cast upon issues covered in this book series has been well received by readers of earlier volumes of the series

Advances in Efficiency and Productivity II Juan Aparicio,C. A. Knox Lovell,Jesus T. Pastor,Joe Zhu,2020-07-20 This book surveys the state of the art in efficiency and productivity analysis examining advances in the analytical foundations and empirical applications The analytical techniques developed in this book for efficiency provide alternative ways of defining optimum outcome sets typically as a technical production frontier or as an economic cost revenue or profit frontier and alternative ways of measuring efficiency relative to an appropriate frontier Simultaneously the analytical techniques developed for efficiency analysis extend directly to productivity analysis thereby providing alternative methods for estimating productivity levels and productivity change through time or productivity variation across producers This book includes chapters using data envelopment analysis DEA or stochastic frontier analysis SFA as quantitative techniques capable of measuring efficiency and productivity Across the book s 15 chapters it broadly extends into popular application areas including agriculture banking and finance and municipal performance and relatively new application areas including corporate social responsibility the value of intangible assets land consolidation and the measurement of economic well being The chapters also cover topics such as permutation tests for production frontier shifts new indices of total factor productivity and also randomized controlled trials and production frontiers
