Private Secondary Schools Peterson's, 2011-05-01 Peterson's Private Secondary Schools is everything parents need to find the right private secondary school for their child. This valuable resource allows students and parents to compare and select from more than 1,500 schools in the U.S. and Canada and around the world. Schools featured include independent day schools, special needs schools, and boarding schools, including junior boarding schools for middle school students. Helpful information listed for each of these schools includes school's area of specialization, setting, affiliation, accreditation, tuition, financial aid, student body, faculty, academic programs, social life, admission information, contacts, and more. Also includes helpful articles on the merits of private education, planning a successful school search, searching for private schools online, finding the perfect match, paying for a private education, tips for taking the necessary standardized tests, semester programs, and understanding the private schools admission application form and process.

Annual Review of Research for School Leaders MacMillan, 1997-12 Macmillan Reference USA publishes a series of comprehensive handbooks that bring together authoritative research on a variety of educational topics. These titles are all valuable resources for school officials, teachers, public policymakers, and education professors and majors, and are sponsored by professional associations in research and education. Each handbook in the series provides an assessment of the significance of the research findings, evaluates new and emerging developments in the field, examines historical and current conflicts, controversies, and unresolved issues, links findings in one field to related fields, offers articles by professionals, researchers, and educators with firsthand experience, suggests practical ways to apply knowledge in the classroom and workplace. This is the first comprehensive and authoritative overview of research in the burgeoning field of corporate training. Sponsored by the American Psychological Association.

Training and Retraining contains contributions from professionals in the academic, government, and business worlds. Bringing together never before published findings and the best practice examples, it shows trainers how to apply educational psychology in their work while it educates psychologists on the special problems and concerns faced by trainers today. Articles cover ad hoc training practices and cost and effectiveness assessments, relevant technologies such as telecommunications and computer applications, instructional tactics and strategies, and much more.

Case Studies in Elementary and Secondary Curriculum Marius Boboc, R. D. Nordgren, 2010 Case Studies in Elementary and Secondary Curriculum provides 21 real world cases that provide the opportunity for educators to explore the different perspectives that different stakeholders take on the concept of curriculum. The cases examine how curriculum comes to life as a complex process, including the whole continuum ranging from design to implementation and evaluation, and how this process can be analyzed and changed.
