Screwed-Up School Reform Bruce S. Cooper,Richard G. Shear,2012-09-11 The unspoken American promise is that each generation will lead a better more successful life than the previous one In earlier times it was an education that provided the next generations a better life For today s children though decades of failed school reform have left a generation wondering if this promise has been broken Despite policies programs and resources American education does not live up to its expectations In Screwed Up School Reform Richard G Shear and Bruce S Cooper reveal that generations of school reforms have actively worked to cure the symptoms of broken schools but not the overarching fundamental problems that permeate the system Virtually an entire society has failed to understand the main problem with American education children are rejecting its practices and conditions But the screwed up education system is fixable and it can be fixed now If reformers focus instead on changing education s foundation then children will instead succeed at school and in their personal lives
