Elephants Guanghai Wan, Ming Lu, 2019-10-29 Urbanization is one of the most important phenomena in economic development. In the past three decades Asian urban populations expanded by almost one billion, a figure expected to double in the next three decades. Clearly both the scale and pace of urbanization in Asia is unprecedented in human history and will dominate the global urbanization landscape. Asia's urbanization in turn is dominated by what is happening in China and India, the two most populous, fastest growing economies in the world. Cities of Dragons and Elephants: Urbanization and Urban Development in China and India aims at addressing the two most fundamental issues of urbanization: why and where to urbanize. Contributed by a team of top experts from both countries, it uses original research to explore both the speed and scale of urbanization and urban systems or spatial distribution of urbanities in different sized cities. It examines various drivers of urbanization alongside the benefits and costs and the role of markets, governments and NGOs. Cities of Dragons and Elephants presents evidence-based policy suggestions regarding the labor market, the land and housing market, FDI and the capital market, education, environment, poverty and inequality. It uses the similarities between India and China to draw conclusions and implications of enormous relevance to many governments and institutions in Asia and beyond. Camels in the Sky V. Muzafer Ahamed, 2018-10-11 Journeying from the green rain-soaked Kerala into the amphitheatre of the Sun, our traveller-journalist finds that there is no better metaphor than the desert to instil the lessons of life and death, love and hatred, thirst and water. From a single shower of rain which brings the gaaf tree back to life after a decade to the ever-shifting dunes of gold and thousand-year-old sand palaces, the mysterious poetry of the desert is everywhere on display if one but has the eye and heart to see it. As the deserts of Nafud, Dahna and Rub al Khali in Arabia both embrace and trap the travellers, the outpouring of the landscape's longing for rivers recalls a past filled with water. This narrative describes the history, prehistory, archaeology, legends, folklore and travails of the migr Asian work force that tames the harsh desert as never before. All India Reporter, 1960 Vols 1-36, 1914-1949 issued in separate parts called sections: e.g. journal section, Federal Court section, Privy Council section, Allahabad section, Bombay section etc.
