Chemical Control Michael Crowley, 2016-01-26 This thoroughly researched study highlights the international community's failure to regulate contemporary state research development marketing and or deployment of riot control agents and incapacitating chemical agent weapons Appendix, Budget of the United States Government, Fy 2015 Executive Office Of The President, Office of Management and Budget (U.S.), 2014-04-15 Presents detailed information on individual programs and appropriation accounts that constitute the budget Includes for each Government department and agency the text of proposed appropriations language budget schedules for each account new legislative proposals and explanations of the work to be performed and the funds needed and proposed general provisions applicable to the appropriations of entire agencies or groups of agencies The Budget of the United States Government United States. Office of Management and Budget, 2015 The Double X Economy Linda Scott, 2020-07-21 Winner of the 2020 Porchlight Business Book of the Year Award One of The Guardian's Best Books of 2020 Finalist for the 2020 Royal Science Society Book Prize and the 2020 Porchlight Business Book Awards Longlisted for the 2020 Financial Times husbands burning brides whose dowries have been spent men appropriating women's earnings and widows land banks discriminating against women applying for loans corporations paying women less than men men treating women as their intellectual inferiors due to primitive notions of female brain development governments depriving women of affordable childcare and so much more As Scott takes us from the streets of Accra where sex trafficking is widespread to American business schools where women are routinely patronized the pervasiveness of the Double X Economy becomes glaringly obvious But Scott believes that this rampant problem can be solved She proposes concrete actions and urges her readers to rise up and join the global movement for women's economic empowerment that is gaining momentum by the day Law and Society, 1977 National Library of Medicine Current Catalog National Library of Medicine (U.S.), 1968 First multi year cumulation covers six years 1965 70

The Use of Dispersants in Marine Oil Spill Response National Academies of Sciences, Engineering, and Medicine, Division on Earth and Life Studies, Board on Environmental Studies and Toxicology, Ocean Studies Board, Committee on the Evaluation of the Use of Chemical Dispersants in Oil Spill Response, 2020-05-24 Whether the result of an oil well blowout vessel collision or grounding leaking pipeline or other incident at sea each marine oil spill will present unique circumstances and challenges The oil type and properties location time of year duration of spill water depth environmental conditions affected biomes potential human community impact and available resources may vary significantly Also each spill may be governed by policy guidelines such as those set forth in the National Response Plan Regional Response Plans or Area Contingency Plans To respond effectively to the specific conditions presented during an oil spill spill responders have used a variety of response options including mechanical recovery of oil using skimmers and booms in situ burning of oil monitored natural attenuation of oil and dispersion of oil by chemical dispersants Because each response method has advantages and disadvantages it is important to understand specific scenarios where a net benefit may be achieved by using a particular tool or combination of tools This report builds on two previous National Research Council reports on dispersant use to provide a current understanding of the state of science and to inform future marine oil spill response operations The response to the 2010 Deepwater Horizon spill included an unprecedented use of dispersants via both surface application and subsea injection The magnitude of the spill stimulated interest and funding for research on oil spill response and dispersant use in particular This study assesses the effects and efficacy of dispersants as an oil spill response tool and evaluates trade offs associated with dispersant use      Budget of the United States Government United States. Moving the Needle on Children's Physical Activity - How to Best Promote More Movement? Mirko Brandes ,Jennifer Sacheck,2024-07-24 Globally physical inactivity is on the rise in most countries and according to the WHO it is considered one of the leading major public health risks As children s physical activity behaviors are conveyed into adulthood many interventions focus on establishing healthy physical activity habits in children to prevent the potential negative health outcomes associated with low physical activity over the life course The school environment provides an opportunity to reach the majority of children however physical activity promotion in schools can often be a challenge Barriers to the success of physical activity interventions include the physical social and economic environment competencies and workload of teachers as well as the perception that physical activity may interfere with the primary task of schools which is education Moreover the evaluation of physical activity interventions for children is challenging raising a discussion on how to best evaluate these interventions      Yearbook of International Organizations 2014-2015 (Volume 4) Union Of International Associations,Union of International Associations,2014-09-17 The Yearbook of International Organizations provides the most extensive coverage of non profit international organizations currently available Detailed profiles of international non governmental and intergovernmental organizations IGO collected and documented by the Union of International Associations can be found here In addition to the history aims and activities of international organizations with their events publications and contact details the volumes of the Yearbook include networks between associations biographies of key people involved and extensive statistical data Providing both an international organizations and research bibliography Volume 4 cites over 46 000 publications and information resources supplied by international organizations and provides nearly 18 000 research citations under 40 subject headings This volume also includes a research bibliography on international organizations and transnational associations      Investigating Light and Shadow with Young Children (Ages 3-8) Beth Dykstra Van Meeteren,2022-06-17 Children are intrigued by switches that power a light source and by items that reflect light and sparkle and they take notice of personal shadows cast on the playground An understanding of light and shadow is crucial to many STEM fields including astronomy biology engineering architecture and more This book shows teachers how to engage children ages 3 8 with light and shadow in a playful way building an early foundation for the later more complex study of this phenomena and ultimately for children's interest in professions within the STEM fields. The text offers guidance for arranging the physical environment of classrooms integrating literacy learning and investigations and building partnerships with administrators. Each volume in the STEM for Our Youngest Learners Series includes examples of educators and children engaging in inquiry learning, guidance for selecting materials and arranging the learning environment, modifications and accommodations for diverse learners, support for establishing adult learning communities, and more.

Cognitive Biases in Health and Psychiatric Disorders Tatjana Aue, Hadas Okon-Singer, 2020-02-23. Cognitive Biases in Health and Psychiatric Disorders: Neurophysiological Foundations focuses on the neurophysiological basis of biases in attention, interpretation, expectancy, and memory. Each chapter includes a review of each specific bias, including both positive and negative information in both healthy individuals and psychiatric populations. This book provides readers with major theories, methods used in investigating biases, brain regions associated with the related bias, and autonomic responses to specific biases. Its end goal is to provide a comprehensive overview of the neural, autonomic, and cognitive mechanisms related to processing biases. Outlines neurophysiological research on diverse types of information processing bias, including attention bias, expectancy bias, interpretation bias, and memory bias. Discusses both normal and pathological forms of each cognitive bias. Provides specific examples on how to translate research on cognitive biases to clinical applications. Congressional Record United States Congress, August's Consultations in Feline Internal Medicine, Volume 7 Susan E.
