Triana-Tremain, 2022-08-30 This book is an accessible contemporary and comprehensive guide to the concepts and practice of evaluation Authors Gail Vallance Barrington and Beverly Triana-Tremain integrate new approaches and concerns and classic frameworks with practical tools that readers can use to design evaluation studies They show how evaluators measure whether the planned and implemented interventions or services are achieving their goals and objectives while focusing on the questions most important to the community and organizations in which the evaluation takes place The book stresses the role of critical and evaluative thinking as well as self reflection and demonstrates the importance of context and equity in today's turbulent environment offering a new stance for evaluators to support global as well as local issues American Machinist, 1889 Defense, 1942 The Schenley Experiment Jake Oresick, 2017-04-14 The Schenley Experiment is the story of Pittsburgh's first public high school a social incubator in a largely segregated city that was highly even improbably successful throughout its 156 year existence Established in 1855 as Central High School and reorganized in 1916 Schenley High School was a model of innovative public education and an ongoing experiment in diversity Its graduates include Andy Warhol actor Bill Nunn and jazz virtuoso Earl Hines and its prestigious academic program and pensions lured such teachers as future Pulitzer Prize winner Willa Cather The subject of investment as well as destructive neglect the school reflects the history of the city of Pittsburgh and provides a study in both the best and worst of urban public education practices there and across the Rust Belt Integrated decades before Brown v Board of Education Schenley succumbed to default segregation during the white flight of the 1970s it rose again to prominence in the late 1980s when parents camped out in six day long lines to enroll their children in visionary superintendent Richard C Wallace's reinvigorated school Although the historic triangular building was a cornerstone of its North Oakland neighborhood and a showpiece for the city of Pittsburgh officials closed the school in 2008 citing over 50 million in necessary renovations a controversial event that captured national attention Schenley alumnus Jake Oresick tells this story through interviews historical documents and hundreds of first person accounts drawn from a community indelibly tied to the school A memorable important work of local and educational history his book is a case study of desegregation magnet education and the changing nature and legacies of America's oldest public schools Market World and Chronicle ,1914 The Northwestern Miller ,1916 The City Record New York (N.Y.),1917 School's Choice Wagma Mommandi,Kevin Grant Welner,2021 This book takes a comprehensive look at the ways in which charters control enrollment and retention in their schools often limiting equitable access for all students It critiques the manner in which charters counsel out students frequently English learners students with special needs and non White students for even minor infractions or poor academic performance and urges state and federal policy makers to design a more inclusive and equitable charter sector
