

"The Great Debaters"

Directions: Answer the following questions about the film.

1. What advice did Lord Chesterfield give Edward about the first day school?

Language: English

2. According to William Pitters, what does education depend on for the new generation?

Money, power, friends

3. According to Lord Chesterfield, William was teaching rather than learning about the outside world by not giving children "proper" way to behave in the house and the street. What is your definition for "proper" behavior? (1000)

None

4. Should the parents have taught Edward to "be the other people's son, the the school's son, not his?

5. What does William Pitters say is the biggest failure?

Lord's son was not the father's son, not a good learner, not a good person.

6. What advice did the father give William about the school children being his son?

Not to be

7. What is William's idea about being in the house with all the other people?

Thinking of it as a challenge, with the children trying to outdo him, the house is a game.

8. What event's failure caused William to call his father "the other son"?

His father told him that he could not tell anyone in the house how he felt about being his son.

9. What does William tell Thomas, "Why do you have to be your father?"

He said someone thought that he is a different person, not that they had a son who was his father.
