Gasbarrone, 2024-10-15 Quebec's early novels are full of sacred themes and motifs devotional objects and practices parables and scripture priests and nuns transcendence divinity and eternity Yet the critical gaze of the past fifty years has seldom engaged the idea of the sacred in a sustained way Indeed the presence of the sacred has alienated modern and postmodern readers who ignore or downplay its significance leading to misguided assessments of these works as mediocre and even unreadable for contemporary audiences The Sense of the Sacred in the Early Novels of Quebec reexamines seven classic novels at the foundations of Quebec's national literature Patrice Lacombe's La Terre paternelle 1846 P J O Chauveau's Charles Guérin 1853 Antoine Gérin-Lajoie's Jean Rivard 1874 Philippe Aubert de Gaspé's Les Anciens Canadiens 1863 Laure Conan's Angeline de Montbrun 1884 Louis Hémon's Maria Chapdelaine 1916 and Félix Antoine Savard's Menaud maître-draveur 1937 Through chapters that focus on sacred themes character analysis narrative temporalities and the hermeneutics of the sacred Lisa Gasbarrone demonstrates that these novels are more nuanced and innovative than their reputation has allowed The Sense of the Sacred in the Early Novels of Quebec reintroduces readers to classic works of French Canadian literature that ironically and provocatively cast their quarrel with modernity in that essentially modern form the novel Ontario Library Review ,1926 Jean Rivard économiste. Doucette,1984-12-15 It is only recently that historians of the theatre in French Canada have turned their attention to playwrights active before the twentieth century Their practice had been to trace the roots of theatre to mid 1930s to the appearance of Father Emile Legault and his troupe the Compagnons de Saint Laurent dismissing what had gone before In this innovative history Leonard Doucette sets out deal for the first time with all plays that have survived to 1867 and to link them with the evolution of politics institutions and culture in French Canada The study of theatre has often been handicapped also by the outdated practice of defining the literary cultural history of a nation by identifying the masterpieces produced in specific periods and then defining other works in terms of what they are not The surprisingly rich and varied history of theatrical forms in French Canada has just begun to receive the attention it deserves from scholars Some of the texts and authors referred to in this history are identified for the first time the materials cited and conclusions drawn are based upon original research in major Canadian libraries as well as the works of published critics and historians The result is an excellent introduction to the various forms theatre has taken and the problems it has encountered in French Canada The Farm Novel in North America Florian Freitag,2013 Provides the first history of the North American farm novel a genre which includes John Steinbeck s The Grapes of Wrath Sheila Watson s The Double Hook and Louis H mon s Maria Chapdelaine From John Steinbeck s The Grapes of Wrath and Martha Ostenso s Wild Geese to Louis H mon s Maria Chapdelaine some of the most famous works of American English Canadian and French Canadian literature belongto the genre of the farm novel In this volume Florian Freitag provides the first history of the genre in North America from its beginnings in the middle of the nineteenth century to its apogee in French Canada around the middleof the twentieth Through surveys and selected detailed analyses of a large number of farm novels written in French and English Freitag examines how North American farm novels draw on the history of farming in nineteenth century North America as well as on the national self conceptions of the United States English Canada and French Canada portraying farmers as national icons and the farm as a symbolic space of the American English Canadian and French Canadian nations Turning away from traditional readings of farm novels within the frameworks of regionalism and pastoralism Freitag takes a comparative look at a genre that helped to spatialize North American national dreams Florian Freitag is Assistant Professor of American Studies at the University of Mainz Germany History of Literature in Canada Reingard M. Edgington, 2025-08-12 Poet and provocateur William Chapman 1850 1917 wrote patriotic verse recounting the history of New France envisioning a glorious future for its descendants Despite his many literary achievements he was a two time laureate of the Académie française and a nominee for the Nobel Prize in Literature Chapman is more often remembered for his explosive feud with Louis Fréchette a rivalry that pitted the two national poets against one another and played out in vicious invective across the pages of Quebec newspapers Chapman's lifelong quest to glorify French Canada and accumulate literary prestige in North America and Europe positioned him squarely between the new country and the old world Over the course of his forty year career Chapman published five collections of poetry Les Qu becquoises 1876 Les Feuilles d rable 1890 Les Aspirations 1904 Les Rayons du Nord 1909 and Les Fleurs de givre 1912 whose very titles underscore his devotion to French Canadian identity as well as his literary ambition Integrating close readings of Chapman s verse with archival material related to his writing life Erin Edgington revisits his full oeuvre on its own terms and in context discerning the particular ways Chapman expressed the ideas of literary value and national literature that motivated him from a young age from juvenilia like Les Mines d or de la Beauce 1881 to his polemical essays and his unfinished magnum opus L pop e canadienne Between the New Country and the Old World challenges the prevailing narrative that has labelled Chapman a second rate forgettable poet showing how his life and work reveal important insights into literary fame poetics in a transitional moment at the turn of the century and the history of French literature in North America
