FINDING A LUCKY NUMBER

To a Nephew

When I was like you I crossed a street
To a store, and from the store
Up an alley, as I rolled chocolate
In my mouth and looked around
With my face. The day was blue
Between trees, even without wind,
And the fences were steaming
And a dog was staring into a paint bucket
And a Mexicano was raking
Spilled garbage into a box,
A raffle of egg shells and orange peels.
He nodded his head and I nodded mine
And rolled chocolate all the way
To the courthouse, where I sat
In the park, with a leaf falling
For every person who passed—
Three leaves and three daughters
With bags in their hands.
I followed them under trees,
The leaves rocking out of reach
Like those skirts I would love
From a distance. I lost them pez set out to change this The Other Latin is a diverse collection of essays written by some of the best emerging and established contemporary writers of Latin origin to help answer the question How can we treat U S Latina and Latino literature as a definable whole while acknowledging the many shifting identities within their cultures By telling their own stories these authors illuminate the richness of their cultural backgrounds while adding a unique perspective to Latina and Latino literature This book sheds light on the dangers of abandoning identity by accepting cultural stereotypes and ignoring diversity within diversity These contributors caution against judging literature based on the race of the author and lament the use of the term Hispanic to erase individuality Honestly addressing difficult issues this book will greatly contribute to a better understanding of Latina and Latino literature and identity
