Handbook of Research on Acquiring 21st Century Literacy Skills Through Game-Based Learning Lane, Carol-Ann, 2022-01-07 Emerging technologies are becoming more prevalent in global classrooms Traditional literacy pedagogies are shifting toward game based pedagogy addressing 21st century learners Therefore within this context there remains a need to study strategies to engage learners in meaning making with some element of virtual design Technology supports the universal design learning framework because it can increase the access to meaningful engagement in learning and reduce barriers The Handbook of Research on Acquiring 21st Century Literacy Skills Through Game Based Learning provides theoretical frameworks and empirical research findings in digital technology and multimodal ways of acquiring literacy skills in the 21st century This book gains a better understanding of how technology can support learner frameworks and highlights research on discovering new pedagogical boundaries by focusing on ways that the youth learn from digital sources such as video games Covering topics such as elementary literacy learning indigenous games and student worker training this book is an essential resource for educators in K 12 and higher education school administrators academicians pre service teachers game developers researchers and libraries South African national bibliography ,1999 Classified list with author and title index Masixhase abantwana bakwazi ukufunda nokubhala - Let us enable our children to read and write Stofile Sindiswa & Nomlomo Vuyokazi ,Nkomo, Sibhekinkosi, Anna, Magxala, Xoliswa, Patience, Mawela, Rethabile, Mudzielwana, Ndileleni, Magadla, Noluthando, Nondalana, Nomfundo, Kosi, Tembisa, Foncha, J.W., Linake, M.A. & Abongdia, J.A., Sigcau, Eurika, Nompucuko, Kemende, Wunseh, Quinta, McCarthy, Karen, Gxowa-Dlayedwa, Ntombizodwa, 2020-03-31 This book advances knowledge and scholarship on reading and writing by applying both theoretical and practical means of enhancing early literacy development at school level and in our communities The uniqueness of the book lies in its inclusive approach to accommodate a variety of readers including language and literacy teachers practitioners and scholars It uses two languages namely English and isiXhosa to address some of the critical issues on literacy teaching and learning and to disseminate knowledge to a diverse readership including parents students teachers and other relevant stakeholders who are committed to making a difference in the teaching and learning of literacy in different languages The aim is to transform and enrich discourse on language and literacy development which is predominantly in English and does not include African languages that are also used as the main languages of learning and teaching in the Foundation Phase Grades R 3 Linguistics and Language Behavior Abstracts ,2008 Preparing Antiracist Teachers Christine Montecillo Leider, Christina L. Dobbs, Erin Nerlino, 2024-12-27 Preparing Antiracist Teachers Fostering Antiracism and Equity in Teacher Preparation examines multiple strategies and theories for developing antiracist attitudes and actions in teachers and teacher candidates This textbook uses critical consciousness as a framework to help practitioners and scholars to facilitate the process of doing antiracist work The book is divided into three sections with Part 1 focusing on critical reflection which refers to a social analysis and moral rejection of societal inequities such as social economic racial ethnic and gender inequities that constrain well being and human agency It shows that those who are critically reflective view social problems and inequalities in systemic terms and are therefore better able to address them Part 2 examines sociopolitical efficacy which refers to the perceived capacity to effect social and political change by individual and or collective activism Part 3 centers on critical action that is individual or collective action taken to change aspects of society such as institutional policies and practices that are perceived to be unjust This is a broad view of activism that can include participation in activities such as voting community organizing and peaceful protests Showcasing both USA based and international case studies Preparing Antiracist Teachers will support teacher educators in their work by presenting nuanced and important means of teacher education for antiracism and critical consciousness It will also benefit those studying related courses including Teacher Education Social Justice Education and Multicultural Education

Revitalizing Minority Voices Renée DePalma, Diane Brook Napier, Willibroad Dze-Ngwa, 2015-10-13 Whose voices are taken into account in language policy and planning and whose have been ignored or more actively silenced This is the central question addressed in this book What are the political and social factors that have helped to create these historical exclusions in terms of endangerment and loss of traditional languages What are the global influences on the local landscape of languages and linguistic rights What are the implications for cultural heritage and identity In analyzing these questions and reporting on research in an array of countries the chapter authors also suggest ways forward toward designing more inclusive policies and practices in educational contexts whether in the context of obligatory schooling or in less formal educational contexts UNESCO estimates that at least 43% of the estimated 6000 languages spoken in the world are endangered Such statistics remind us that the linguistic diversity that characterizes the human condition is a fragile thing and that certain languages need to be cultivated if they are to survive into the 21st century and beyond The chapters in this volume originated as presentations at the XV World Congress of Comparative Education Societies Buenos Aires Argentina 2013 They represent several global regions namely Africa Asia Europe and North America They provide analyses of language policy and politics at the local regional national and transnational levels grass roots linguistic revitalization initiatives and the attitudes of minority and majority speakers toward minoritized languages and cultures and towards intercultural and multilingual education programs
