Resources in Education , 1995 Handbook of Contemporary Education Economics Geraint Johnes, Jill Johnes, Tommaso Agasisti, Laura López-Torres, 2017-12-29 This Handbook provides a comprehensive overview of the modern economics of education literature bringing together a series of original contributions by globally renowned experts in their fields Covering a wide variety of topics each chapter assesses the most recent research with an emphasis on skills evaluation and data analytics Handbook of Field Experiments Esther Duflo, Abhijit Banerjee, 2017-03-21 Handbook of Field Experiments Volume Two explains how to conduct experimental research presents a catalog of research to date and describes which areas remain to be explored The new volume includes sections on field experiments in education in developing countries how to design social protection programs a section on how to combat poverty and updates on data relating to the impact and determinants of health levels in low income countries Separating itself from circumscribed debates of specialists this volume surpasses the many journal articles and narrowly defined books written by practitioners This ongoing series will be of particular interest to scholars working with experimental methods Users will find results from politics education and more Balances methodological insights with analyses of principal findings and suggestions for further research Appeals broadly to social scientists seeking to develop an expertise in field experiments Written in a language that is accessible to graduate students and non specialist economists

Education, Skills, and Technical Change Charles R. Hulten, Valerie A. Ramey, 2019-01-11 Over the past few decades US business and industry have been transformed by the advances and redundancies produced by the knowledge economy The workplace has changed and much of the work differs from that performed by previous generations Can human capital accumulation in the United States keep pace with the evolving demands placed on it and how can the workforce of tomorrow acquire the skills and competencies that are most in demand Education Skills and Technical Change explores various facets of these questions and provides an overview of educational attainment in the United States and the channels through which labor force skills and education affect GDP growth Contributors to this volume focus on a range of educational and training institutions and bring new data to bear on how we understand the role of college and vocational education and the size and nature of the skills gap This work links a range of research areas such as growth accounting skill development higher education and immigration and also examines how well students are being prepared for the current and future world of work

Solomon, 2012-08-14 Despite the best hopes of the past half century black urban pathologies persist in America The inner cities remain concentrations of the uneducated unemployed underemployed and unemployable Many fail to stay in school and others choose lives of drugs violence and crime Most do not marry leading to single parent households and children without a father figure The cycle repeats itself generation after generation It is easy to argue that nothing works given the policy failures of the past For Lewis D Solomon fatalism is not acceptable A complex and interrelated web of issues plague inner city black males joblessness the failure of public education crime mass incarceration and drugs the collapse of married two parent families and negative cultural messages Rather than abandon the black urban underclass Solomon presents strategies and programs to rebuild lives and revitalize America s inner cities These approaches are neither government oriented nor dependent on federal intervention and they are not futuristic Focusing on rehabilitative efforts Solomon describes workforce development prisoner reentry and the role of nonprofit organizations Solomon s strategies focus on the need to improve the quality of America s workforce through building human capital at the socioeconomic bottom The goal is to enable more people to fend for themselves thereby weaning them from dependency on public sector handouts Solomon shows a path forward for inner city black males Building the Anti-Racist University Shirley Anne Tate, Paul Bagguley, 2018-12-18 In the new arena for anti racist work in which we find ourselves the neo liberal post race university this interdisciplinary collection demonstrates common global political concerns about racism in Higher Education It highlights a range of issues regarding students academic staff and knowledge systems and all of the contributions seek to challenge the complacency of the post race present that is dominant in North West Europe and North America Brazil s mythical racial democracy and South Africa s post apartheid rainbow nation The collection makes clear that we are not yet past the need for anti racist institutional action because of the continuing impact of coloniality on and in these nations From within the colonial psyche which still exists in the 21st century these nations actively deracinate politics subjectivities political economy and affective relationalities when they re imagine themselves to be post race states where all citizens can have a share in the good life because now only class matters Universities have also taken on the mantle of upholding societal post race status through ineffective equality and diversity policies and strategies The collection makes the case for the urgent need to decolonize the university in post race neoliberal times through a focus on institutional racism in HEIs in Canada Brazil South Africa the UK and the USA As such it addresses institutional whiteness the transformation of organizational cultures the presence and experiences of Black people People of Colour and Indigenous people in HEIs the development of curriculum interventions widening participation and organizational change and future directions for racial equality and diversity in a post race era This book was originally published as a special issue of Race Ethnicity and Education Recent Trends in Social and Behaviour Sciences Ford Lumban Gaol, Seifedine Kadry, Marie Taylor, Pak Shen Li, 2014-02-27 The human aspect plays an important role in the social sciences The behaviour of people has become a vital area of focus in the social sciences as well Recent Trends in Social and Behaviour Sciences contains papers that were originally presented at the International Congress on Interdisciplinary Behavior and Social Sciences held 4 5 November 201 Guide to Better Social Studies Teaching, Grades 1-12, 1953 Bulletin ... Confronting Corruption in Business Alan T. Belasen, Roxana Toma, 2015-12-07 Confronting Corruption in Business focuses on the contextual issues that trigger corruption to give the reader a more thorough understanding of destructive leadership It provides students with a unique critical perspective on issues of leadership corruption and policy in different countries industries and companies While there isn t a universally agreed upon definition of corruption in social sciences it generally refers to efforts to secure wealth or power through misusing public power for private gain This kind of destructive leadership is typically treated as an anomaly but this book closes the gap in our understanding by highlighting the wider consequences of this behavior within business and on an international level Armed with this understanding one also learns how to mitigate its causes and consequences Edited by leading experts the book includes contributions from scholars with international expertise on leadership strategy political science finance organizational change and public policy It is the first book to focus on corruption on the country level and within business and students in international business management ethics and leadership classes will find it a valuable read Fortnightly Digest of South African Affairs ,1957 Formation and Properties of Juvenile Wood in Southern Pines ,2001 To satisfy the increasing demand for forest products much of the future timber supply will be from improved trees grown on managed plantations This fast grown resource will tend to be harvested in short age rotations and will contain higher proportions of juvenile wood than that of current harvests In anticipation of this resource definitive information is needed on the influence of juvenile wood on lumber properties so that grading rules and the associated allowable design stresses can be modified as needed This document reports the results of an extensive review of the literature on juvenile wood in southern pines This report defines and discusses the extent occurrence and characteristics of juvenile wood It reviews the effects that environment and silviculture have on the amount of juvenile wood produced Finally the impacts that juvenile wood has on mechanical properties were quantified The results of this quantification are significant to all producers of fast grown plantations Research has clearly shown that juvenile wood will have a detrimental impact on allowable design stresses for visually graded lumber It is critical that methods are developed to more carefully manage fast grown plantation wood for its most efficient use This review should serve as an overall collection of knowledge pertaining to juvenile wood research in southern pines and should help in the decision making efforts to improve seedling selection techniques and silvicultural practices to maximize the potential for fast grown plantations of southern pines General Technical Report FPL ,1978
