Losing her sight may have ended Miranda Hernandez's Marine Corps career but she's determined not to lose her independence as well. With her guide dog Sam by her side she's taking the first steps toward a new life despite her overprotective family's interference. But there's one last mission to complete before she can put her past and her guilt to rest. She has no time for the velvety voiced neighbor who keeps showing up at her door. And in her dreams FDNY firefighter Ben Murphy has a reputation for always keeping things casual in the bedroom and his heart well out of reach. But there's something about Miranda's strength and resilience that makes him want more than just another temporary fling. Despite her blindness she sees him more clearly than anyone ever has before including himself. And for the first time he wonders if he could truly be enough for a woman to love. But everything shatters when a well intentioned white lie spirals into a firestorm of doubt and betrayal. Can they find the courage to face their deepest fears or will the wounds of the past prove too deep for even love to heal.
