My Favorite Teacher Descriptive Essay

Introduction

Throughout our lives, we encounter numerous mentors who shape our perspectives and influence our paths. Among those, a single teacher often emerges as a beacon of inspiration and guidance. For me, that teacher is Mrs. Elizabeth Roberts. Her profound impact on my academic and personal development has left an indelible mark on my heart and mind. This essay aims to vividly describe Mrs. Roberts' qualities, her unique teaching methods, and the deep personal connection we shared.

Qualities of Mrs. Roberts

Mrs. Roberts possesses a unique combination of attributes that make her an exceptional educator. Her passion for teaching is evident in her enthusiastic approach to every lesson. With a warm and welcoming demeanor, she creates an inclusive and nurturing classroom environment. Mrs. Roberts is not only knowledgeable in her subject matter but also exhibits patience and understanding, always ready to provide support and clarification. Her ability to inspire and motivate students stems from her genuine care and commitment to their growth and success.

Innovative Teaching Methods

Mrs. Roberts is renowned for her innovative and engaging teaching methods. She employs a variety of instructional techniques to cater to diverse learning styles. Her lessons are often a blend of interactive discussions, hands-on activities, and multimedia presentations. By incorporating real-world applications and problem-solving exercises, she makes learning both relevant and enjoyable. Furthermore, Mrs. Roberts encourages critical thinking and creativity by fostering a collaborative classroom atmosphere, where students are encouraged to share their ideas and perspectives.

Walden, 2024-10-01 ACCESS Accessible Course Construction for Every Student's Success is a practical guide to digital course design that incorporates and exceeds current accessibility practices for disabled and non disabled students in higher education Today's rapid proliferation of online blended and hybrid learning systems has alerted college and university staff to unforeseen yet urgent lapses in accommodating students various learning needs and preferences This book offers a wealth of learning design and delivery strategies that meaningfully address the notions of accessibility that move beyond compliance with the Americans With Disabilities Act ADA Each chapter explores accessibility in a situated context making this an ideal resource for instructional design students and professionals learning scientists disability support personnel and faculty developing their own digital courses Create Your School Library Writing Center Timothy Horan, 2016-10-16 Colleges typically have writing centers to which students can bring their writing assignments to a peer tutor for assistance but most high schools and middle schools do not This book advocates for the creation of writing centers in 7-12 schools and explains why the school library is the best place for the writing center

There is a glaring absence of writing centers in today's K-12 schools. More and more students are being asked in college entrance testing to submit samples of their writing and employers are expecting their workers to write correctly and clearly. This book addresses the critical lack of writing centers below the undergraduate level. It demonstrates how middle school and high school librarians can create writing centers in their school libraries, explains how to assist students through a one-on-one writing tutorial method, and gives students and teachers the tools for learning and understanding the complex art of writing. Author Timothy Horan, inventor of the School Library Writing Center, establishes why school libraries represent the best and most logical places to create writing centers and why school librarians are the natural choice to direct writing center operations. He then takes readers through the process of creating a writing center from original conception up through opening day. Additional topics covered include how to publicize and grow your School Library Writing Center, maintaining your writing center for efficient operation on a daily basis as well as for years to come, how to become an effective writing center director and writing tutor, the most current technology that can be used to assist in the writing composition and research process, and working with English language learner (ELL) students within your writing center.

Identifying, Describing, and Developing Teachers Who Are Gifted and Talented Van Sickle, Meta L., Swanson, Julie D., Bazler, Judith A., Lubniewski, Kathryn L., 2018-12-07. Much of the research about teachers focuses on those who can't do it; aren't good in the classroom. However, teachers who are gifted and talented exist, but there has been little attention to date on the characteristics and practices of such teachers in the classroom. While few examples of research on positive teacher attributes include work on the expert, authentic, and creative, as well as examples of research on eminent adults, Identifying, Describing, and Developing Teachers Who Are Gifted and Talented is an essential reference source that discusses behaviors and traits in teachers who are considered gifted and talented, as well as case studies on the identification and preparation of teachers who fall into this category. Featuring research on topics such as creative innovation, emotional intelligence, and skill development, this book is ideally designed for educators, administrators, researchers, and academicians.

Resources in Education, 1994. Pedagogy in (E)Motion Nellie J. Zambrana-Ortiz, 2011-04-29. This personal creative critical work from a leading scholar of psychology is rooted in three novel concepts and aims to share critical pedagogy in the spirit of nascent potential found in the context of a colonial Puerto Rico. First comes the idea of pedagogy in emotion, or the emotional matrix of the teaching and learning process. Secondly, the author explores the notion of street pedagogy as a genuine and powerful professional tool. And thirdly, the book underscores what Zambrana Ortiz calls the interconnection of the arts/science within the political and biographical act of teaching. The purpose is to inform education teaching practice with the radical framework that, like the neurosciences, believes emotions to be a vital precursor to the planning of action, the process of decision making, and the broadening of our cognitive parameters. The chapters focus on different and yet complementary dimensions of a college teaching initiative, boasting a unique interplay between a transgressive narrative, reinvented methodology, and authentic samples of students contributions to the project Traditionally emotional and visceral experiences have been downplayed and rejected as fundamental components of knowledge This book makes the case for their reinstatement and proposes that the pleasure and commitment of teaching itself can be seen as resistance given the challenging social and political context the bureaucracy of the Puerto Rican higher education system and the cynicism of the self confessed cognoscenti who think that little political progress can come from within the university system Such resistance has proved for the author a source of inspiration and has contributed to her creation and reconceptualization of approaches to critical and useful pedagogy D education To my students who inspire many stories and provoke many emotions and challenge my capacities To Aura Ignacio and Jaime for their unconditional love and their everyday lessons A cknowledgments Many friends mentors and colleagues from the University of Puerto Rico and United States were very important pieces to my creative work Thanks to Donaldo Macedo who encouraged the initial proposal and to Joe Kincheloe for accepting it and bringing guidance in the right moment Colleagues like Roam Torres and Angeles Molina from their directive positions were extremely supportive while Sandra Macksoud Jos Sol s Pedro Subirats and Ada Prabhavat gave me guidance and constant insights in editing and translation as well as crucial material for my narrative Juan Vadi enhanced my graphic elements with his talent while college mentors current colleagues teachers and former graduate and undergraduate students allowed me to write their stories and reflections binging fresh accents and life to the book Thanks for ever
