A Closer Look Lynne Dorfman, Diane Dougherty, 2023-10-10 In A Closer Look Lynne Dorfman and Diane Dougherty provide the tools and strategies you need to use formative assessment in writing workshop

Through Lynne and Diane's ideas you will be able to establish an environment where students will internalize ways that they can assess their own writing and become independent writers. Lynne and Diane share methods for collecting and managing information and show practical simple and concise ways to document student thinking. In the accompanying online videos they demonstrate conferences with individual writers, small groups, and whole groups. Quick, easy to manage assessment methods emphasize that formative assessment does not have to take a long time to be worthwhile and effective. Vignettes from classroom teachers, principals, and authors add a variety of perspectives and classroom experiences on this important topic. A Closer Look shows that when students are in charge of their own writing process and set and reach their own goals, writing becomes a vibrant, energetic part of the day.

Writing Winning Reports Sandy Woolley, 2005. Written reports have been a favorite format for sharing knowledge in schools since the invention of paper and pen. Writing Winning Reports stresses not only producing a polished report but also gaining important research and organizational skills in the process. It presents guidelines for 15 broad research topics. Each unit provides an outline of how to organize the report, a point breakdown for grading, a list of alternative projects. Guidelines are open enough to allow for individual creativity but organized to assure successful presentation. This is easy to use format is the beginning of winning reports. Book jacket
