The Routledge Handbook of Arabic Linguistics Elabbas Benmamoun, Reem Bassiouney, 2017-12-22 The Routledge Handbook of Arabic Linguistics introduces readers to the major facets of research on Arabic and of the linguistic situation in the Arabic speaking world The edited collection includes chapters from prominent experts on various fields of Arabic linguistics The contributors provide overviews of the state of the art in their field and specifically focus on ideas and issues Not simply an overview of the field this handbook explores subjects in great depth and from multiple perspectives In addition to the traditional areas of Arabic linguistics the handbook covers computational approaches to Arabic Arabic in the diaspora neurolinguistic approaches to Arabic and Arabic as a global language The Routledge Handbook of Arabic Linguistics is a much needed resource for researchers on Arabic and comparative linguistics syntax morphology computational linguistics psycholinguistics sociolinguistics and applied linguistics and also for undergraduate and graduate students studying Arabic or linguistics

Arabic and contact-induced change Stefano Manfredi ,2019 This volume offers a synthesis of current expertise on contact induced change in Arabic and its neighbours with thirty chapters written by many of the leading experts on this topic Its purpose is to showcase the current state of knowledge regarding the diverse outcomes of contacts between Arabic and other languages in a format that is both accessible and useful to Arabists historical linguists and students of language contact

Fragments of Languages ,2024-10-07 The book deals with the concept of fragmentation as applied to languages and their documentation It focuses in particular on the theoretical and methodological consequences of such a fragmentation for the linguistic analysis and interpretation of texts and hence for the reconstruction of languages Furthermore by adopting an innovative perspective the book aims to test the application of the concept of fragmentation to languages which are not commonly included in the categories of Corpussprache Tr mmersprache and Restsprache This is the case with diachronic or diatopic varieties of even well known languages which are only attested through a limited corpus of texts as well as with endangered languages In this latter case not only is the documentation fragmented but the very linguistic competence of the speakers due to the reduction of contexts of language use interference phenomena with majority languages and consequent presence of semi speakers
