Mammoth Books presents A Ghostly Gathering Angela Slatter, Mark Morris, Ramsey Campbell, Thana Niveau, 2012-07-26 The Pier Thana Niveau The pier exists explains Thana Niveau and yes it is decorated with strange plaques and cryptic memorials although none are quite as morbid as I've invented It's mostly Clevedon Pier which is where the story was born I was reading the plaques one day and a couple of the quirkier ones made me wonder What if they weren't written by the living to remember the dead at all but were instead a channel for voices from somewhere else Somerset is the original Wicker Man country after all It's a place rich in pagan tradition and many of its strange rituals are lost to time Or are they Fallen Boys Mark Morris Porthellion Quay which features in this story is a real place only the name is different says Morris My family and I spent a lovely sunny day there one summer a few years ago during a Cornish holiday I love Cornwall not only because it's breathtakingly beautiful but also because it is wild and rugged and desolate and because past echoes and ancient legends seem to seep out of the very rock It's a landscape which lends itself perfectly to the kinds of ghost stories I love of which it seems there are far too few these days stories which are not cosy and comforting and familiar but which are dark and insidious and evoke a crawling sense of dread Lavender and Lychgates Angela Slatter Lavender and Lychgates is the second last story in Sourdough and Other Stories recalls Slatter I had ideas I wanted to continue to explore consequences of actions in an earlier story in the collection and I had a picture in my head of a young girl in a graveyard Many years ago a friend had told me a garbled tale of lilacs and lychgates the details of which I cannot remember I managed to garble it even more and I couldn't get the words lavender and lychgates out of my head nor the image of shadows swirling in the apex of a lychgate roof above the heads of people passing out underneath I also wondered what happens when you hang onto a memory too tightly With the Angels Ramsey Campbell My fellow clansman Paul Campbell will remember the birth of this tale he reveals At the Dead Dog party after the 2010 World Horror Convention in Brighton someone was throwing a delighted toddler into the air I was ambushed by an idea and had to apologise to Paul for rushing away to my room to scribble notes The result is here The Mammoth Book of Ghost Stories by Women Marie O'Regan, 2012-10-18 25 chilling short stories by outstanding female writers Women have always written exceptional stories of horror and the supernatural This anthology aims to showcase the very best of these from Amelia B Edwards's The Phantom Coach published in 1864 through past luminaries such as Edith Wharton and Mary Elizabeth Braddon to modern talents including Muriel Gray Sarah Pinborough and Lilith Saintcrow From tales of ghostly children to visitations by departed loved ones and from heart rending stories to the profoundly unsettling depiction of extreme malevolence what each of these stories has in common is the effect of a slight chilling of the skin a feeling of something not quite present but nevertheless there If anything this showcase anthology proves that sometimes the female of the species can also be the most terrifying The Mammoth Book of Haunted House Stories Peter Haining, 2011-09-01 Expanded and with great new stories this is the biggest and best anthology

Call of the Great Spirit / The Fugitive Gloria Van Rooyen,2013-07 This book is all about the fantasies that we have from childhood that go on for as long as we dare to dream How often have we imagined being somewhere else or someone else This story allows us to do just that in our vivid imagination Pretend that you are living during the time when hybrids inhabited the earth and you were a Mermaid an Immortal a God Fairy or a hybrid of any being Travel was as easy as being beamed up by a violet flame and you flew through the Cosmos at leisure But remember the darker side There are also ogre demons with evil wisdom and daily life is dangerous for all beings Gods will come down to Earth whenever you called them for assistance Then there is also a time of abuse and suffering because of the shape shifters and werewolves and long lonely journeys through storms and drought Experience a journey through the desert into Egypt and witness the Great Sphinx sink into an abyss caused by an earthquake Hear the roar of the God of the East as he is liberated from his tomb So dream on dear one and delight in your adventures

Mammoth Books presents Oh I Do Like To Be Beside the Seaside Christopher Fowler,2012-07-26 Oh I Do Like To Be Beside The Seaside came about firstly because I was commissioned to write a story for the World Horror Convention souvenir book and as the event was to take place in Brighton it seemed logical to set a tale on the South coast of England I had written a fantasy novel Calabash some years earlier hinting at the dark madness of such seaside towns which are the antithesis of their Mediterranean counterparts I thought of the depressing Morrissey song Every Day is Like Sunday which captures the awfulness of English resorts Coincidentally Kim Newman and I were discussing the inherent creepiness of pantomime dames and I decided it was time to give vent to my horror of these coastal pleasure domes I wish I'd thought to include screaming gangs of hen nighters as well And I thought it was a nice touch to have everyone in the story telling the hero to fuck off until he finally does

Mammoth Books presents Lethal Legends Mark Valentine, Michael Kelly, Simon Kurt Unsworth, Terry Dowling, 2012-07-26 THE WOODS Michael Kelly Michael Kelly reveals The Woods was written for an anthology seeking regional horror and ghost stories I'd just read Hemingway's Hills Like White Elephants Now in no way am I comparing myself to Hemingway but I wanted to write a similarly brief tale with only two main characters and where the horror was off stage As well the setting had to be distinctly Canadian What I thought could be more Canadian than the frozen north and allusions to mythical beasts MAMI WATA Simon Kurt Unsworth Unsworth reveals When I was first asked to contribute to Exotic Gothic 3 which was to feature Gothic influenced stories in non Gothic environments I agreed without really thinking about it and then spent a long time struggling trying to work out how precisely I was going to manage it or quite how to make a start I knew what I wanted to do sort of but not exactly how to do it so one day alarmingly close to the deadline I did a fun thing I freewheeled through Google Using a small document about Zambian myths and cultures I found online I set the story in Zambia for no reason other than an old family friend lives there and it seemed exotic in Gothic terms I used one Zambian word from it as a search term and read what came up took one intriguing Zambian term from the search results and searched for that etc and disappeared into Google's merry depths I ended up with an academic paper about a particular myth a travel blog about a sort of beer made from corn and a weird little my God's better than your God blog by a kid in Africa and somewhere in the middle of that the story appeared THE AXHOLME TOLL Mark Valentine In the following story the book called The MS in a Red Box really exists the author reveals All of the legends about the Isle and about Beckett's assassins are also genuine except so far that of the Toll and their final place of rest or unrest TWO STEPS ALONG THE ROAD Terry Dowling Two Steps Along the Road came out of a conversation with US editor Daniel Olson Dowling explains where we discussed me doing a ghost story set in Vietnam for Exotic Gothic 3 and the interesting possibilities it might provide for delivering atmosphere and an interesting perspective on familiar things Before I knew it I was blending two separate elements that were demanding attention the notion of a root form behind all hauntings regardless of what form they took and the unnerving realization that the eyes of a quite attractive teaching colleague would be truly terrifying to behold if they were set just a tad closer together The ideas were intended for very different stories but as so often happens they decided they were meant for each other      The Mammoth Book of Angels & Demons Paula Guran,2013-05-16 Despite our tendency to think of the demonic as evil and the angelic as good our own legends don't always bear this out Angels can be the incarnation of light and salvation but they can also fall Satan himself is a fallen angel Demons can be truly demonic but these unearthly creatures can also on occasion lend humankind a hand Temptation can lead to revelation supernatural messengers who bring true justice may not be welcomed and beings seeking redemption can be blind to mortal needs Stories from world renowned authors of science fiction and fantasy including Neil Gaiman George R R Martin and Joyce Carol Oates and rising stars portray angels in all their glory demons at their most dreadful and a surprising variety of modern interpretations of ancient myth      The Mammoth Book of Locked Room Mysteries & Impossible Crimes Mike Ashley,2011-09-01 This collection of criminal conundrums are more than whodunits they're howdunits and are intended to stretch your powers of deduction to the limits      The Mammoth Book of True Hauntings Peter Haining,2011-09-01 This giant collection includes a huge range of 20th century first hand accounts of hauntings such as the American troops who repeatedly saw the ghosts of a dead platoon of men while on patrol in Vietnam and the witnessed haunting of a house near Tintagel in Cornwall that led actress Kate Winslet to pull out of buying the property It covers the full spectrum of credible hauntings from poltergeists the noisy dangerous and frightening spirits that are usually associated with pubescent girls like the Bell Witch to phantoms like the Afrits of Saudi Arabia and seduction spirits such as the Lorelei which have lured German men to death Also included are the notes of the most famous ghost hunters of the twentieth century such as Hans Holzer Susy Smith USA Harry Price Jenny Randles UK Joyce Zwarycz Australia Eric Rosenthal South Africa and Hwee Tan Japan Plus essays by such names as Robert Graves Edgar Cayce and M R James outlining their own often extraordinary conclusions as to just what ghosts might be along with a full bibliography and list of useful resources Praise for MBO Haunted House Stories A first rate list of contributors Hair raising Time Out All we need say is buy it Starlog      The Mammoth Book of Classical Whodunnits Mike Ashley,2014-02-11 In the golden days of Ancient Greece and Rome amidst the splendid art and architecture the philosophy and politics there was always a full measure of intrigue mystery and murder In this new collection twenty two writers take up their pens to give an enthralling picture of classical crime Favourite historical detectives such as Gordianus the Finder Decius Metellus and Sister Fidelma rub shoulders with eminent temporary sleuths such as Socrates and that honourable man Brutus whilst other great names Augustus Archimedes and even the spoilt and beautiful goddess of love Aphrodite herself also become enmeshed in terrible and ingenious crimes Contributors include Keith Heller Edward D Hoch Phyllis Ann Karr Theodore Mathieson Amy Myers Wallace Nichols Anthony Price Steven Saylor Darrell Schweitzer Brian Stableford Keith Taylor and many more      The Mammoth Book of Body Horror Marie O'Regan,Paul Kane,2012-03-01 A gripping collection which offers for the first time a chronological overview of the popular contemporary sub genre of body horror from Edgar Allan Poe to Christopher Fowler with contributions from leading horror
