Effective School Librarianship Patrick Lo,Heather Rogers,Dickson K.W. Chiu,2018-04-27 These volumes provide a series of informative interviews with school teacher librarians practicing in different parts of the world The 2 volume set showcases the resilience creativity and best practices from successful school librarians from Europe Asia Africa Australia and North and South America The librarians interviewed come from all different schools and schools systems from a tiny recently built school library in a rural village in Africa to an ultra modern library in Sweden Featuring 37 interviews with successful school librarians from across the globe the volumes let us hear the stories from countries around the world They tell about their creative and innovative school library projects their unconventional reading programs and their best practices and experiences in addressing the challenges of supporting basic literacy A wide selection of methodologies and approaches are discussed offering a global voyage through topics important in school librarianship The 2 volume set also addresses recent advancements in information and communication technologies ICTs and the shift toward inquiry based learning that impacts school libraries worldwide The books are packed with information that can be used by school librarians teachers school administrators and others in a variety of ways Readers can borrow best practices from the experiences presented in the book and the volumes can also serve as a strong voice for practicing school librarians and the profession through expanding the opportunities for professional sharing in the international school library community

Cases on Establishing Effective Collaborations in Academic Libraries Piorun, Mary E., Raboin, Regina Fisher, 2022-10-07 The forming and nurturing of new partnerships and collaborations is a critical component of librarianship Academic libraries have a long history of collaboration within the library across their institutions and in their local communities However forming new partnerships can be time consuming and at times frustrating leaving important opportunities connections and projects unrealized Cases on Establishing Effective Collaborations in Academic Libraries presents case studies on effective collaborations in a variety of settings with different objectives staffing levels and budgets that have proven to be successful in creating and maintaining strong and productive partnerships It identifies and shares the role of the academic library in developing effective partnerships and collaborations within academia and the broader community Covering topics such as controlled digital lending research computing and college readiness enhancement this premier reference source is a vital resource for librarians and libraries consortiums university administrators students and educators of higher education community leaders researchers and academicians

Current Index to Journals in Education ,2001 Library User Education Barbara I. Dewey, 2002-05-09 Material presented here is replete with concrete new ideas not only for collaboration but also for funding training personal involvement Web based instruction and other concepts too numerous to mention And the best thing about these ideas is that they are not the usual endlessly discussed theories these are ideas that have worked and some which have failed in the real world Despite the myriad new works available today related to library instruction in general and information literacy in particular none is devoted solely to collaborative efforts between teaching faculty and librarians This is where Library User Education Powerful Learning Powerful Partnerships shines just as in the real world it's all about collaboration Angela Weiler Portal
