Islamic Veiling In Legal Discourse:

Islamic Veiling in Legal Discourse Anastasia Vakulenko, 2012-09-10 Islamic Veiling in Legal Discourse looks at relevant law and surrounding discourses in order to examine the assumptions and limits of the debates around the issue of Islamic veiling that has become so topical in recent years For some Islamic veiling indicates a lack of autonomy the oppression of women and the threat of Islamic radicalism to western secular values For others it suggests a positive autonomous choice a new kind of gender equality and a legitimate exercise of one's freedom of religion a treasured right in democratic societies This book finds that across seemingly diverse legal and political traditions a set of discursive frameworks the preoccupation with autonomy and choice the imperative of gender equality and a particular western understanding of religion and religious subjectivity shape the positions of both proponents and opponents of various restrictions on Islamic veiling Rather than take a position on one or the other side of the debate the book focuses on the frameworks themselves highlighting their limitations

FGC and Islamic veiling This volume will be of interest to scholars students and readers of gender studies feminism cultural and religious studies sociology South Asian studies and International Relations Un-Veiling Dichotomies Giorgia Baldi,2021-09-27 This book analyzes the implication of secular liberal values in Western and human rights law and its impact on Muslim women It offers an innovative reading of the tension between the religious and secular spheres The author does not view the two as binary opposites Rather she believes they are twin categories that define specific forms of lives as well as a specific notion of womanhood This divergence from the usual dichotomy opens the doors for a reinterpretation of secularism in contemporary Europe This method also helps readers to view the study of religion vs secularism in a new light It allows for a better understanding of the challenges that contemporary Europe now faces regarding the accommodation of different religious identities For instance one entire section of the book concerns the practice of veiling and explores the contentious headscarf debate It features case studies from Germany France and the UK In addition the analysis combines a wide range of disciplines and employs an integrated comparative and inter disciplinary approach The author successfully brings together arguments from different fields with a comparative legal and political analysis of Western and Islamic law and politics This innovative study appeals to students and researchers while offering an important contribution to the debate over the role of religion in contemporary secular Europe and its impact on women s rights and gender equality
