Karl V Roman:

Karl V. Gertrud Schmirger, 1967 Mercenary Swedes Svante Norrhem, 2019-05-11 Four hundred years ago France persuaded Sweden to fight on its side against Germany in the war between Protestant and Catholic states Rather than some lofty purpose what convinced Sweden was money Under the 1631 agreement Sweden received French subsidies to the tune of 400 000 riksdaler a year for five years This was only the first in a long line of subsidy agreements between the countries Sweden enjoyed French largesse for no fewer than 166 years In this wide ranging international study Svante Norrhem traces the patterns of cooperation between the two countries With his unique command of the archival material he discusses the reasons for the agreements and the mutual dependency that resulted Dictionary of Royal Lineage of Europe and Other Countries Carl Magnus Allström, 1904 The Holy Roman Empire, 1495-1806: A European Perspective Robert Evans, Peter Wilson, 2012-07-25 This text offers a collective exploration of aspects of cross border and transnational interaction in the Holy Roman Empire Karl V. Gertrud Schmirger, Karl V. Römisch-deutscher Kaiser, 1956 Gender and Germanness Patricia Herminghouse, Magda Mueller, 1998-02-01 Cultural Studies have been preoccupied with questions of national identity and cultural representations At the same time feminist studies have insisted upon the entanglement of gender with issues of nation class and ethnicity Developments in the wake of German unification demand a reassessment of the nexus of gender Germanness and nationhood The contributors to this volume pursue these strands of the cultural debate in German history literature visual arts and language over a period of three hundred years in sections devoted to History and the Canon Visual Culture Germany and Her Others and Language and Power Contributors L Adelson A Taylor Allen K Bauer R Berman B Byg M Denman E Frederiksen S Friedrichsmeyer E Kaufmann L Koepnick B Kosta S Lefko A M O Sickey B Mennel H M M ller B Peterson L Pusch D Sweet H Watt S Zantop A History of Eastern Europe Robert Bideleux, Ian Jeffries, 2006-04-10 A History of Eastern Europe Crisis and Change is a wide ranging single volume history of the lands between the lands which have lain between Germany Italy and the Tsarist and Soviet empires Bideleux and Jeffries examine the problems that have bedevilled this troubled region during its imperial past the interwar period under fascism under communism and since 1989 While mainly focusing on the modern era and on the effects of ethnic nationalism fascism and communism the book also offers original striking and revisionist coverage of ancient and medieval times the Hussite Revolution the Renaissance the Reformation and the Counter Reformation the legacies of Byzantium the Ottoman Empire and the Hapsburg Empire the rise and decline of the Polish Lithuanian Commonwealth the impact of the region s powerful Russian and Germanic neighbours rival concepts of Central and Eastern Europe the 1920s land reforms and the 1930s Depression Providing a thematic historical survey and analysis of the formative processes of change which have played the paramount roles in shaping the development of the region A History of Eastern Europe itself will play a paramount role in the studies of European historians German Political Philosophy Chris Thornhill, 2007-01-24 This book combines philosophical intellectual historical and political theoretical methodologies to provide a new synoptic reading of the history of German political philosophy Incorporating chapters on the political ideas of Luther and Zwingli on the politics of the early Enlightenment on Idealism on Historicism and Lukács on early Twentieth Century political theology on the Frankfurt School and on Habermas and Luhmann the book sets out both a broad and a detailed discussion of German political reflection from the Reformation to the present In doing so it explains how the development of German political philosophy is marked by a continual concern with certain unresolved and recurrent problems It claims that all the major positions address questions relating to the origin of law that all seek to account for the relation between legal validity and metaphysical and theological superstructures and that all are centred on the attempt to conceptualise and reconstruct the character of the legal subject

Eternal Blessedness for All Anette I Hagan, 2014-01-30 Eternal Blessedness for All shows how the acclaimed father of modern theology Friedrich Schleiermacher brilliantly approached this problem It took many twists and turns of historical and philosophically minded analyses however for him to get to a theologically appropriate answer This book unpacks those efforts in manageable form based on a close examination of a pivotal 1819 essay On the Doctrine of Election his masterpiece Christian Faith sermons and other related sources Schleiermacher was the first modern theologian of stature to endorse the universal restoration of all humanity This study also displays the historical ecumenical and doctrinal contexts in which his views were fashioned

War and Peace in the Altmark Michael Göllnitz, Eckart Reihlen, Lutz Buchmann, 2024-11-15 In 1607 the wealthy childless Prussian lawyer Nicolaus III Gercken dedicated his estate to support the academic education of his grandfather's descendants The Nicolaus Gercken Family Foundation still distributes land lease income to studying family members every year The foundation's successes and crises reflect German history from the 16th to the 21st century War and Peace in the Altmark is a richly illustrated German history book that describes the end of feudalism the development of modern political philosophy and the impact of technological progress on human collaboration up to the 21st century The survival of the foundation despite war confiscation and repression in Germany is a fascinating tale

Reformations Carlos M. N. Eire, 2016-06-28 This fast paced survey of Western civilization's transition from the Middle Ages to modernity brings that tumultuous period vividly to life Carlos Eire popular professor and gifted writer chronicles the two hundred year era of the Renaissance and Reformation with particular attention to issues that persist as concerns in the present day Eire connects the Protestant and Catholic Reformations in new and profound ways and he demonstrates convincingly that this crucial turning point in history not only affected people long gone but continues to shape our world and define who we are today The book focuses on the vast changes that took place in Western civilization between 1450 and 1650 from Gutenberg's printing press and the subsequent revolution in the spread of ideas to the close of the Thirty Years War Eire devotes equal attention to the various Protestant traditions and churches as well as to Catholicism skepticism and secularism and he takes into account the expansion of European culture and religion into other lands particularly the Americas and Asia He also underscores how changes in religion transformed the Western secular world A book created with students and nonspecialists in mind Reformation is an inspiring provocative volume for any reader who is curious about the role of ideas and beliefs in history Subject Catalog Library of Congress,1980 The Economic and Social Foundations of European Civilization Alfons Dopsch,2013-04-15 This is a reproduction of a book published before 1923 This book may have occasional imperfections such as missing or blurred pages poor pictures errant marks etc that were either part of the original artifact or were introduced by the scanning process We believe this work is culturally important and despite the imperfections have elected to bring it back into print as part of our continuing commitment to the preservation of printed works worldwide We appreciate your understanding of the imperfections in the preservation process and hope you enjoy this valuable book
