Transport and accessibility to public services Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Environmental Audit Committee, 2013-06-24 This report looks at progress on improving accessibility since 2003 and ways of improving accessibility Problems with transport provision and the location of services can reinforce social exclusion by preventing people from accessing key local services and undermines government policies to tackle worklessness increase participation in education reduce crime and narrow health inequalities Insufficient progress has been made since the 2003 Social Exclusion Unit's Making the Connections report many findings of which are relevant today There is evidence that accessibility is worsening driven by tight budgets in central and local government Accessibility statistics show travel times to key services steadily increasing over time particularly for access to hospitals The Department for Transport needs to focus more closely on improving accessibility as well as on supporting the economy Existing transport funding could be better coordinated and directed to accessibility focused initiatives which will have a swifter impact on people's well being than large infrastructure projects The social value of transport and accessibility needs to be explicitly considered in policy making and in the planning system and should no longer be seen as a second order criterion The Committee believes it will take time for any improvements to make a noticeable difference Their recommendations focus on improving how government operates rather than funding Central government cannot abdicate its role in coordinating action across departmental silos and helping local authorities and service providers to share best practice Accessibility planning introduced by Making the Connections has had limited success and needs to be re-energised

Understanding and Overcoming Your Emotional Issues-A Biblical Perspective and Solution Waltere

Koti,2023-02-09 If you were to watch the news lately you will notice that opioid addiction has been declared a national crisis as many turn to drugs and other substances like alcohol marijuana cocaine wine and spirits to control their mind and thought process Many also turn to psychiatrists to get relief from prescription medication All these drugs legal or illegal have one thing in common temporal and intermittent control of your feelings emotions and mind A few years ago while training as chaplain we had a guest speaker who is a psychiatrist with more than thirty years experience She came to give a speech on emotional issues and I raised my hand and asked her this fundamental question what causes depression Her response was

Cause is unknown This response troubled me as I thought to myself if the cause is unknown then why are millions of people being medicated This book seeks to answer a fundamental question are emotional issues like loneliness fear anxiety depression and suicidal thoughts medical or spiritual issues Your response to this question will determine where you go for help

A Cultural History of Early Modern English Cryptography Manuals Katherine Ellison, 2016-06-10 While there are many surveys of cryptography none pay any attention to the volume of manuals that appeared during the seventeenth century or provide any cultural context for the appearance design or significance of the genre during the period Through close readings of five specific primary texts that have been ignored not only in cryptography scholarship but also in early modern literary scientific and historical studies this book allows us to see one origin of disciplinary division in the popular imagination and in the university when particular broad fields the sciences the mechanical arts and the liberal arts came to be viewed as more or less profitable
