Gaffney's Local Government in South Africa ,2009 Rethinking MSM, Trans* and other Categories in HIV Prevention Amaya G. Perez-Brumer,Richard Parker,Peter Aggleton,2018-12-07 As the HIV epidemic moves into its fourth decade it is clear that the global response has failed to adequately address the needs of a wide range of vulnerable populations and groups Chief among these are gay bisexual and other men who have sex with men and transgender persons who globally face the disproportional burden of HIV infection This volume rethinks HIV prevention and health promotion for sexual and gender minorities in both the industrialised societies of the West as well as in the developing nations of the Global South The chapters it contains offer a critical analysis of past and present HIV research employing categories to designate gay and other men who have sex with men transgender persons and or other persons and communities with diverse gender and sexual identities Contributors question the politics of many of the existing classifications and categories in HIV research and argue for a more sophisticated analysis of gender and sexual diversity in order to tackle the social and political barriers that impede the design of successful HIV prevention and health promotion approaches This book was originally published as a special issue of Global Public Health

The South African Short Story in English, 1920-2010 Marta Fossati,2024-09-05 Through detailed close readings alongside investigations into the history of print culture Marta Fossati traces the development of the South African short story in English from the late 1920s to the first decade of the twenty first century She examines a selection of short stories by important Black South African writers Rolfes and Herbert Dhlomo Peter Abrahams Can Themba Alex La Guma Mtutuzeli Matshoba Ahmed Essop and Zo Wicomb with an alertness to the dialogue between ethics and aesthetics performed by these texts This new history of Black short fiction problematises and interrogates the often polarised readings of Black literature in South Africa that can be torn between notions of literariness protest and journalism Due to material constraints short fiction in South Africa circulated first and foremost through local print media which Fossati analyses in detail to show the cross fertilisation between journalism and the short story While rooted in the South African context the short stories considered also hold a translocal dimension allowing us to explore the ethical and aesthetic practice of intertextuality These are writings that complicate the aesthetics ethics binary generic classifications and the categories of the literary and the political Theoretically eclectic in its approach although largely underpinned by a narratological analysis The South African Short Story in English 1920 2010 When Aesthetics Meets Ethics offers a fresh perspective on the South African short story in English spotlighting several hitherto marginalised figures in South African literary studies Learn and Teach ,1987 Student-Teacher Relationship Quality Research: Past, Present and Future Matteo Angelo Fabris,Karine Verschueren,Debora Roorda,Claudio Longobardi,2022-11-24 Social Demography of South Africa Clifford O.
