Beyond High-stakes Testing Rongrong Dong, 2023-03-10 This book tells about an exemplary high school Chinese language arts teacher's effort in nurturing lifelong readers and writers under the test-driven culture in China's society. It looks closely at his everyday literacy practices, focuses on his ways of creating authentic reading and writing spaces for students beyond test preparation. With the lens of social constructivism, the case study reveals his efforts of creating a safe learning environment, modeling his literate life, connecting real life with literacy learning, and building a school-wide literate life for students. Furthermore, he also collaborates with other Chinese language arts faculty and reaches out to school administrators and educators to gain any potential teaching resource for students. The findings indicate exemplary teachers are not only equipped with professional knowledge but also inter-intrapersonal knowledge and practical knowledge in their teaching career, which might be enlightening in today's high-stakes testing culture. The book will appeal to scholars of literacy education and teacher education as well as pre-service and in-service teachers.

Puzzle Paragraphs Christine Boardman Moen, 2007-09-01 Puzzle Paragraphs will show you how to construct and deconstruct the most common nonfiction text types, seamlessly integrate these activities into readers and writers workshops, and use the sample texts and BLMs provided in this comprehensive resource book. Back cover

Enhancing Instructional Problem Solving John C. Begeny, Ann C. Schulte, Kent Johnson, 2012-05-25 This book presents a schoolwide model of instructional support designed to make the most of available time resources and personnel, one that is also fully compatible with other problem-solving models such as response to intervention. The authors provide a comprehensive and cohesive framework for linking assessment and intervention. They show how to interweave evidence-based instruction with targeted professional development and other components that support improved learning outcomes for all K-8 students. Helpful tables describe dozens of research-based assessments and interventions in reading, writing, and math. In a large-size format to facilitate photocopying, the volume includes more than 20 reproducible worksheets and forms. The companion website features additional reproducibles and supplemental materials for use in conjunction with the book. This book is in The Guilford Practical Intervention in the Schools Series, edited by Sandra M. Chafouleas.

Advocating for English Learners Diane Staehr Fenner, 2013-09-11 Embrace the future by ensuring English Learners have a voice in school. English Learners (ELs) are the fastest growing segment of the K-12 population. Therefore, educators must provide a voice for their needs. This book demystifies the techniques of advocacy for ELs, including a shared sense of responsibility for EL success. Providing tools that every educator can use to ensure that ELs are effectively served. An overview for administrators. Influencing policy and fostering a culture that meets EL needs. Advocacy for ELs success beyond Grade 12. Equipping ELs for life after graduation from higher education to career decisions.

School Library Journal ,2005      Pennsylvania School Journal ,1872      Academic Paths Peter A. Keller,2016-01-28 This book contains the intimate autobiographies of 13 psychologists who work in academic settings Their experiences are as diverse as their specializations and the academic institutions from which they come However all of the contributors have in common an infectious enthusiasm for their academic experiences and the unique opportunities provided by their careers Psychology students often have only vague notions about the career experiences and personal lives of academic psychologists The autobiographies in this book open special windows onto the lives of psychologists in academic settings The contributions range from a description of experiences at a two year community college through discussions of the demands at high powered doctoral level research institutions The authors offer intimate glimpses of experiences in their lives that paved the way to academia Although this book is in a sense about career planning in academic settings there is no pretense about it being a career planning guide The editor's goal was to give readers some sense of what motivates academic psychologists and what their personal as well as professional lives are like The editor also makes clear his belief that there is no single pathway to a successful academic career in psychology Although each contributor describes what most would see as a successful career the academic paths taken and the personal and professional rewards received are often quite different This book will provide encouragement to students contemplating a career in academia as well as interesting reading for psychologists curious about what makes their academic colleagues tick      Handbook of Research on Reconceptualizing Preservice Teacher Preparation in Literacy Education Araujo, Juan J.,Araujo, Dawn L.,2021-12-17 As it stands there is currently a void in education literature in how to best prepare preservice teachers to meet the needs of individualized learners across multiple learning platforms social economical contexts language variety and special education needs The subject is in dire need of support for the ongoing improvement of administrative clinical diagnostic and instructional practices related to the learning process The Handbook of Research on Reconceptualizing Preservice Teacher Preparation in Literacy Education stimulates the professional development of preservice and inservice literacy educators and researchers

This book also promotes the excellence in preservice and inservice literacy both nationally and internationally. Discussing topics such as virtual classrooms, critical literacy, and teacher preparation, this book serves as an ideal resource for tenure track faculty in literacy education, clinical faculty, field supervisors who work with preservice teacher educators, community college faculty, university faculty who are in the midst of reconceptualizing undergraduate teacher education curriculum, mentor teachers working with preservice teachers, district personnel, researchers, students, and curricula developers who wish to understand the needs of preservice teacher education.

Assessing Middle and High School Mathematics & Science
Sheryn Spencer-Waterman, 2013-08-16

For middle and high school teachers of mathematics and science, this book is filled with examples of instructional strategies that address students' readiness levels, interests, and learning preferences. It shows teachers how to formatively assess their students by addressing differentiated learning targets. Included are detailed examples of differentiated formative assessment schedules, plus tips on how to collaborate with others to improve assessment processes. Teachers will learn how to adjust instruction for the whole class, for small groups, and for individuals. They will also uncover step-by-step procedures for creating their own lessons infused with opportunities to formatively assess students who participate in differentiated learning activities.
