Weber,2011-08-08 As a pastor and teacher Anthony Weber tried to help people deal with the grief that accompanied the death of a loved one In 2003 he experienced that loss for himself when his father a minister and counselor died of pancreatic cancer while still in his fifties Suddenly Anthonys personal experience challenged his carefully crafted theological understanding of pain and grief Anthony had to revisit a lot of big questions that he thought were resolved Why is life so hard What kind of God allows this and why Why do I feel so disconnected from others How do I handle the roller coaster of emotions Why am I now consumed by fear How should I view the presence of pain in the world How do I as a pastor teach my congregation how to pray when I can t pray anymore Can I doubt How long can I cry And how long will God put up with me
