Jean Rivard, le défricheur Antoine Gérin-Lajoie, 1924      Jean Rivard, le défricheur, récit de la vie réelle Antoine Gérin-Lajoie, 1913      Quebec: A History 1867-1929 Paul-André Linteau, René Durocher, Jean-Claude Robert, 1983-01-01
List of Tables List of Maps List of Figures Preface PART I LAND AND POPULATION 1867 1929 1 The Land An American Land The Settlement of the Land The Shaping of Physical Space 2      The Canadian Encyclopedia James H. Marsh, 1999
This edition of The Canadian Encyclopedia is the largest most comprehensive book ever published in Canada for the general reader It is COMPLETE every aspect of Canada from its rock formations to its rock bands is represented here It is UNABRIDGED all of the information in the four red volumes of the famous 1988 edition is contained here in this single volume It has been EXPANDED since 1988 teams of researchers have been diligently fleshing out old entries and recording new ones as a result the text from 1988 has grown by 50% to over 4 000 000 words It has been UPDATED the researchers and contributors worked hard to make the information as current as possible Other words apply to this extraordinary work of scholarship AUTHORITATIVE RELIABLE and READABLE Every entry is compiled by an expert Equally important every entry is written for a Canadian reader from the Canadian point of view The finished work many years in the making and the equivalent of forty average sized books is an extraordinary storehouse of information about our country This book deserves pride of place on the bookshelf in every Canadian Home It is no accident that the cover of this book is based on the Canadian flag For the proud truth is that this volume represents a great national achievement From its formal inception in 1979 this encyclopedia has always represented a vote of faith in Canada in Canada as a separate place whose natural worlds and whose peoples and their achievements deserve to be recorded and celebrated At the start of a new century and a new millennium in an increasingly borderless corporate world that seems ever more hostile to national distinctions and aspirations this Canadian Encyclopedia is offered in a spirit of defiance and of faith in our future The statistics behind this volume are staggering The opening sixty pages list the 250 Consultants the roughly 4 000 Contributors all experts in the field they describe and the scores of researchers editors typesetters proofreaders and others who contributed their skills to this massive project The 2 640 pages incorporate over 10 000 articles and over 4 000 000 words making it the largest some might say the greatest Canadian book ever published There are of course many special features These include a map of Canada a special page comparing the key statistics of the 23 major Canadian cities maps of our cities a variety of tables and photographs and finely detailed illustrations of our wildlife not to mention the colourful informative endpapers But above all the book is encyclopedic which the Canadian Oxford Dictionary describes as embracing all branches of learning This means that with rare exceptions there is satisfaction for the reader who seeks information on any Canadian subject From the first entry A mari usque ad mare from sea to sea which is Canada s motto and a good description of this volume s range to the Zouaves who mustered in Quebec to fight for the beleaguered Papacy there is the required summary of information clearly and accurately presented For the browser the constant variety of entries and the lure of regular cross references will provide hours of fascination The word encyclopedia derives from Greek expressions alluding to a grand circle of knowledge Our knowledge has expanded immeasurably since the time that one mind could encompass all that was known Yet now Canada's finest scientists academics and specialists have distilled their knowledge of our country between the covers of one volume The result is a book for every Canadian who values learning and values Canada

The Sense of the Sacred in the Early Novels of Quebec Lisa M. Gasbarrone, 2024-10-15 Quebec's early novels are full of sacred themes and motifs devotional objects and practices parables and scripture priests and nuns transcendence divinity and eternity Yet the critical gaze of the past fifty years has seldom engaged the idea of the sacred in a sustained way Indeed the presence of the sacred has alienated modern and postmodern readers who ignore or downplay its significance leading to misguided assessments of these works as mediocre and even unreadable for contemporary audiences The Sense of the Sacred in the Early Novels of Quebec reexamines seven classic novels at the foundations of Quebec's national literature Patrice Lacombe's La Terre paternelle 1846 P J O Chauveau's Charles Guérin 1853 Antoine G. Rivard's Jean Rivard 1874 Philippe Aubert de Gaspé's Les Anciens Canadiens 1863 Laure Conan's Angeline de Montbrun 1884 Louis Hémon's Maria Chapdelaine 1916 and Félix Antoine Savard's Menaud maître-draveur 1937 Through chapters that focus on sacred themes character analysis narrative temporalities and the hermeneutics of the sacred Lisa Gasbarrone demonstrates that these novels are more nuanced and innovative than their reputation has allowed The Sense of the Sacred in the Early Novels of Quebec reintroduces readers to classic works of French Canadian literature that ironically and provocatively cast their quarrel with modernity in that essentially modern form the novel

To Know Our Many Selves Dirk Hoerder, 2010 To Know Our Many Selves profiles the history of Canadian studies which began as early as the 1840s with the Study of Canada Indiscussing this comprehensive examination of culture Hoerder highlights its unique interdisciplinary approach which included both sociological and political angles Years later as the study of other ethnicities was added to the cultural story of Canada a solid foundation was formed for the nation's master narrative Against this background To Know Our Many Selves focuses on why Canadian studies can be used as a sound model for the study of other societies in a framework of transcultural societal studies

Moments of Crisis Ian A. Morrison, 2019-09-01 In the past two decades Quebec has been racked by a series of controversies in which the religiosity of migrants and other minorities has been represented as a threat to the province's once staunchly Catholic and now resolutely secular identity In Moments of Crisis Ian Morrison locates these controversies and debates within a long history of crises within and transformations of Quebec's identity from the Conquest of New France in 1760 to contemporary times He argues that national identity like all identities is unstable and prone to moments of crisis It is in these moments that the nation is articulated and rearticulated reinforced and ultimately reproduced Morrison also argues that rather than seeking to overcome current controversies by reconsolidating national identity Quebec should look on moments of crisis as opportunities to forge alternative conceptions of community identity and belonging Literature and Painting in Quebec William J. Berg, 2012-01-01 This unique study explores how Quebec's landscapes have been represented in both literature and visual art throughout the centuries from the writing of early explorers such as Cartier and Champlain to work by prominent contemporary authors and artists from the province William J. Berg traces recurrent images and themes within these creations through the most significant periods in the development of a Quebecois identity that was threatened initially by the wilderness and indigenous populations and later by the dominance of British and American influences Focusing on the interplay between nature and culture in landscape representation Literature and Painting in Quebec contends that both have reflected and fashioned the meaning of French Canadian nationhood As such Literature and Painting in Quebec presents a new perspective to approach the notion of national identity a quest that few groups have engaged in more persistently than the Quebecois Power from the North Caroline Desbiens, 2013-05-15 In the 1970s Hydro-Québec declared We Are Hydro-Québécois The slogan symbolized the intimate ties that had emerged between hydroelectric development in the North and French Canadian aspirations in the South Caroline Desbiens focuses on the first phase of the James Bay hydroelectric project to explore how this culture of hydroelectricity hastened the erasure of Aboriginal homelands and the manipulation of Northern Quebec's material landscape She concludes that truly sustainable resource development will depend on all actors bringing an awareness of their cultural histories and visions of nature North and nation to the negotiating table

Dictionary of Canadian Biography / Dictionnaire Biographique Du Canada Frances G. Halpenny, Jean Hamelin, 1988-11 These biographies of Canadians are arranged chronologically by date of death Entries in each volume are listed alphabetically with bibliographies of source material and an index to names Between the New Country and the Old World Erin E. Edgington, 2025-09-12 Poet and provocateur William Chapman 1850-1917 wrote patriotic verse recounting the history of New France envisioning a glorious future for its descendants Despite his many literary achievements he was a two-time laureate of the Académie française and a nominee for the Nobel Prize in Literature Chapman is more often remembered for his explosive feud with Louis Fréchette a rivalry that pitted the two national poets against one another and played out in vicious invective across the pages of Quebec newspapers Chapman's lifelong quest to glorify French Canada and accumulate literary prestige in North America and Europe positioned him squarely between the new country and the old world Over the course of his forty-year career Chapman published five collections of poetry Les Québécoises 1876 Les Feuilles d'érable 1890 Les Aspirations 1904 Les Rayons du Nord 1909 and Les Fleurs de givre 1912 whose very titles underscore his devotion to French Canadian identity as well as his literary ambition Integrating close readings of Chapman's verse with archival material related to his writing life Erin Edgington revisits his full oeuvre on its own terms and in context discerning the particular ways Chapman expressed the ideas of literary value and national literature that motivated him from a young age from juvenilia like Les Mines d'or de la Beauce 1881 to his polemical essays and his unfinished magnum opus Le pop e canadienne Between the New Country and the Old World challenges the prevailing narrative that has labelled Chapman a second rate forgettable poet showing how his life and work reveal important insights into literary fame poetics in a transitional moment at the turn of the century and the history of French literature in North America

The Social Dimensions of Fiction Steven Tötösy de Zepetnek, 2013-11-11 This work is a comparative study of nineteenth century English Canadian and French Canadian novel prefaces a previously unexplored literary topic As a study in Comparative Literature with the application of a specific literary framework and methodology the study conforms to theoretical and methodological postulates formulated in and prescribed by this framework when applied This a priori postulate necessitates that the research on and the presentation of the Canadian novel preface be carried out in a specific manner as follows First the study will establish the hypothesis that the preface to nineteenth century English Canadian and French Canadian novels is a genre in its own right This hypothesis will rest on the following 1 a taxonomical survey of related terms meaning preface 2 a survey of secondary literature of works dealing with the preface 3 a discussion of the theoretical framework and methodology of the Empirical Theory of Literature and its appropriateness for the study of the preface and 4 a discussion of the process of the compilation of the corpus of nineteenth century Canadian novel prefaces Chapter one In a second step the theoretical postulate outlined in the hypothesis will be put into practice by the development and production of a preface typology Chapter two In a third step further tenets of the Empirical Theory of Literature will be tested on the corpus of the prefaces Chapter three In a fourth step the prefaces will be analysed following the tenets formulated in and prescribed by the systemic framework applied Chapter four

The Oxford Handbook of Canadian Literature Cynthia Conchita Sugars, 2016 The Oxford Handbook of Canadian Literature provides a broad ranging introduction to some of the key critical fields genres and periods in Canadian literary studies The essays in this volume written by prominent theorists in the field reflect the plurality of critical perspectives regional and historical specializations and theoretical positions that constitute the field of Canadian literary criticism across a range of genres and historical periods The volume provides a dynamic introduction to current areas of critical interest including 1 attention to the links between the literary and the public sphere encompassing such topics as neoliberalism trauma and memory citizenship material culture literary prizes disability studies literature and history digital cultures globalization studies and environmentalism or ecocriticism 2 interest in Indigenous literatures and settler Indigenous relations 3 attention to multiple diasporic and postcolonial contexts within Canada 4 interest in the institutionalization of Canadian literature as a discipline 5 a turn towards book history and literary history with a renewed interest in early Canadian literature 6 a growing interest in articulating the affective character of the literary including an interest in affect theory mourning melancholy haunting memory and autobiography The book represents a diverse array of interests from the revival of early Canadian writing to the continued interest in Indigenous regional and diasporic traditions to more recent discussions of globalization market forces and neoliberalism It includes a distinct section dedicated to Indigenous literatures and traditions as well as a section that reflects on the discipline of Canadian literature as a whole

A History of Canadian Economic Thought Robin Neill, 1991-06-06 In A History of Canadian Economic Thought Robin Neill relates the evolution of economic theory in Canada to the particular geographical and political features of the country Whilst there were distinctively Canadian economic discourses in nineteenth century Ontario and early twentieth century Quebec Neill argues that these have now been absorbed into the broader North American mainstream He also examines the nature and importance of the staple theory controversy and its appositeness for the Canadian case With full accounts of the work of major Canadian economists including John Rae H A Innis and Harry Johnson A History of Canadian Economic Thought is the first definitive treatment of the subject for 30 years

Picturing the Land Marilyn J. McKay, 2011-04-12 Emphasizing the ways in which social economic and political conditions determine representation Marilyn McKay moves beyond canonical images and traditional nationalistic interpretations by analyzing Canadian landscape art in relation to different concepts of territory Taking an expansive and inclusive perspective on Canadian landscape art McKay depicts this tradition in all its diversity and draws it into the larger body of Western landscape art broadening the horizon of future study appreciation and criticism Richly illustrated and filled with sophisticated and innovative commentary Picturing the Land provides new and distinct histories of the landscape art of French and English Canada

The Canadian Forum, 1920

Creating Societies Dirk Hoerder, 2000-01-01 Dirk Hoerder shows us that it is not shining railroad tracks or statesmen in Ottawa that make up the story of Canada but rather individual stories of life and labour Caribbean women who care for children born in Canada lonely prairie homesteaders miners in Alberta and British Columbia women labouring in factories Chinese and Japanese immigrants carving out new lives in the face of hostility Hoerder examines these individual experiences in Creating Societies the first systematic overview of the total Canadian immigrant experience Using letters travel accounts diaries memoirs and reminiscences he brings the immigrant s experiences to life Their writings often recorded for grandchildren neighbours and sometimes a larger public show how immigrant lives were entwined with the emerging Canadian society Hoerder presents an important new picture of the emerging Canadian identity dispelling the Canadian myth of a dichotomy between national unity and ethnic diversity and emphasizing the long standing interaction between the members of a different ethnic groups

History of Literature in Canada Reingard M. Nischik, 2008 The development of literature in Canada with an eye to its multicultural multiethnic multilingual nature From modest colonial beginnings literature in Canada has arrived at the center stage of world literature Works by English Canadian writers both established writers such as Margaret Atwood and new talents such as Yann Martel make regular appearances on international bestseller lists French Canadian literature has also found its own voice in the North American and francophone worlds CanLit has likewise developed into a staple of academic interest pursued in Canadian Studies programs in Canada and around the world This volume draws on the expertise of scholars from Canada Germany Austria and France tracing Canadian literature from the indigenous oral tradition to the development of English Canadian and French Canadian literature since colonial times. Conceiving of Canada as a single but multifaceted culture, it accounts for specific characteristics of English and French Canadian literatures such as the vital role of the short story in English Canada or that of the chanson in French Canada. Yet special attention is also paid to Aboriginal literature and to the pronounced transcultural ethnically diverse character of much contemporary Canadian literature thus moving clearly beyond the traditions of the two founding nations.
