

MARK SCHEME for the October/November 2013 series

9706/41

9706 ACCOUNTING

Paper 4 (Problem Solving – Supplement), maximum raw mark 120

This mark scheme is published as an aid to teachers and candidates, to indicate the requirements of the examination. It shows the basis on which Examiners were instructed to award marks. It does not indicate the details of the discussions that took place at an Examiners' meeting before marking began, which would have considered the acceptability of alternative answers.

Mark schemes should be read in conjunction with the question paper and the Principal Examiner Report for Teachers.

Cambridge will not enter into discussions about these mark schemes.

Cambridge is publishing the mark schemes for the October/November 2013 series for most IGCSE, GCE Advanced Level and Advanced Subsidiary Level components and some Ordinary Level components.

Climate Change Law in China in Global Context Xiangbai He,Hao Zhang,Alexander Zahar,2020-05-31 In Climate Change Law in China in Global Context seven climate change law scholars explain how the country s legal system is gradually being mobilized to support the reduction of greenhouse gas emissions in China and achieve adaptation to climate change There has been little English scholarship on the legal regime for climate change in China This volume addresses this gap in the literature and focuses on recent attempts by the country to build defences against the impacts of climate change and to meet the country s international obligations on mitigation The authors are not only interested in China s laws on paper rather the book explains how these laws are implemented and integrated in practice and sheds light on China s current laws laws in preparation the changing standing of law relative to policy and the further reforms that will be necessary in response to the 2015 Paris Agreement on Climate Change This comprehensive and critical account of the Chinese legal system s response to the pressures of climate change will be an important resource for scholars of international law environmental law and Chinese law

Banks, Exchanges, and Regulators Ranald C. Michie,2020-11-26 Never have financial markets been subjected to a period of change as rapid and extensive as took place from the 1970s onwards In the 1970s global financial markets were controlled by governments compartmentalized along national boundaries and segregated according to the particular activities they engaged in This all disintegrated in the decades that followed under the pressure of market forces global integration and a revolution in the technology of trading One product of this transformation was the Global Financial Crisis of 2008 which exposed the fragility of the new structures created and cast a long shadow that we still live in today The response to that crisis has shaped the global financial system which has been tested once again by the coronavirus pandemic However none of the outcomes of this transformation were inevitable despite the forces at work They were the product of decisions taken at the time for a multitude of reasons Banks exchanges and regulators were faced with unprecedented challenges and opportunities as a revolution swept away traditional ways of conducting banking the methods used to trade in financial markets and the rules and regulations employed to enforce discipline In this book Ranald C Michie provides an authoritative and unrivalled account of this upheaval based on a careful and exhaustive reading of the Financial Times over the last four decades using it to provide a source of material unmatched by any other in terms of depth and coverage By studying what happened and why in real time it is possible to explain the decisions taken that shaped the course of the transformation and its repercussions discusses Hong Kong's use of onscreen marking OSM in public examinations. Given that Hong Kong leads the way in OSM innovation, this book has arisen from a recognised need to provide a comprehensive coherent account of the findings of various separate but linked validation studies of onscreen public examinations in Hong Kong. The authors discuss their experience of the validation process demonstrating how high stakes innovation should be fully validated by a series of research studies in order to satisfy key stakeholders.

The Routledge Companion to Fair Value in Accounting Gilad Livne, Garen Markarian, 2018-06-13 The concept of fair value marked a major departure from traditional cost accounting. In theory, under this approach, a balance sheet that better reflects the current value of assets and liabilities. Critics of fair value argue that it is less useful over longer time frames and prone to distortion by market inefficiencies resulting in procyclicality in the financial system by exacerbating market swings. Comprising contributions from a unique mixture of academics, standard setters, and practitioners and edited by internationally recognized experts, this book on a controversial and intensely debated topic is a comprehensive reference source which examines the use of fair value in international financial reporting standards and the US standard SFAS 157 Fair Value Measurement, setting out the case for and against, looks at fair value from a number of different theoretical and practical perspectives, including a critical review of the merits and arguments against the use of fair value accounting, explores fair value accounting in practice, involvement in the Great Financial Crisis, implications for managerial reporting, discretion, compensation, and investment. This volume is an indispensable reference that is deserving of a place on the bookshelves of both libraries and all those working in, studying, or researching the areas of international accounting, financial accounting, and reporting.

Discrimination, Vulnerable Consumers and Financial Inclusion Cătălin-Gabriel Stănescu, Asress Adimi Gikay, 2020-12-28 This book addresses the questions of discrimination, vulnerable consumers, and financial inclusion in the light of the emerging legal, socioeconomic, and technological challenges. New technologies such as artificial intelligence-driven consumer credit risk assessment and Fintech platforms, the changing nature of vulnerability due to the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic, as well as the sophistication of digital technologies which help circumvent legal barriers and protections, necessitate the continuous study of the existing legal frameworks and measures that are capable of tackling these challenges Organized in two major parts the first addresses from multiple national angles the idea of a human rights approach to consumer law in order to replace the mantra of economic efficiency that characterizes financial services with those of human dignity and freedom from discrimination and from debt induced servitude The second tackles the challenges posed by increased usage of technology in connection with financial services which tends to solve but also creates additional issues for consumers in general and for vulnerable groups in particular ACCA Paper P6 Advanced Taxation FA2011 Practice and revision kit BPP Learning Media,2012-01-01 Our Practice and Revision Kit is the only P6 Kit reviewed by the examiner To achieve success in P6 you need to develop your application skills The best way to do this is to practise as many exam standard questions as possible and this Kit allows you to do just that Questions are grouped into topic areas so that you can easily identify those that cover particular areas Our detailed solutions often provide top tips advice on how to approach the question or advice on gaining easy marks There is also a reference so that you know where the topics concerned are covered in the Study Text We also provide the examiner's comments on past exam questions so that you can see what he is looking for in student answers Powering Forward Bill Ritter, Jr.,2016-03-15 A historic energy revolution is underway in the United States Wind sunlight and other sustainable resources are now the fastest growing sources of energy in the U S and worldwide American families are installing power plants on their roofs and entire communities are switching to 100 percent renewable energy The urgent need to prevent climate change is causing people around the planet to question their reliance on carbon intensive oil coal and natural gas Author Bill Ritter Jr the 41st governor of Colorado and one of America's key thought leaders on this topic discusses the forces behind the energy revolution the new ways we must think about energy and the future of fossil and renewable fuels It is an essential read for any who want to understand one of history's biggest challenges to peace prosperity and security in the United States Written in partnership with the Center for a New Energy Economy Costing Colin Drury,2013-12-14
