Black. Queer. Southern. Women. E. Patrick Johnson, 2018-10-22 Drawn from the life narratives of more than seventy African American queer women who were born raised and continue to reside in the American South this book powerfully reveals the way these women experience and express racial sexual gender and class identities all linked by a place where such identities have generally placed them on the margins of society Using methods of oral history and performance ethnography E Patrick Johnson s work vividly enriches the historical record of racialized sexual minorities in the South and brings to light the realities of the region s thriving black lesbian communities At once transcendent and grounded in place and time these narratives raise important questions about queer identity formation community building and power relations as they are negotiated within the context of southern history Johnson uses individual stories to reveal the embedded political and cultural ideologies of the self but also of the listener and society as a whole These breathtakingly rich life histories show afresh how black female sexuality is and always has been an integral part of the patchwork quilt that is southern culture Colored Women Sittin' on High Melanie R. Hill,2025-04-29 From blue note turmoil to grace note power Black women preachers stand tall In Colored Women Sittin on High Melanie R Hill offers a new perspective on the art of the sermon in African American literature music and theology Drawing on the womanist cadence of Alice Walker in literature and the rhythmical flow of named womanist theologians Hill makes interventions at the intersections of African American literary criticism music and religious studies Pushing against the patriarchal dominance that often exists in religious spaces Hill argues that Black women s religious practice creates a sermonic space that thrives inside and outside the church allowing for a critique of sexism and anti Black racism She examines literature by writers such as Zora Neale Hurston and James Baldwin music by Aretha Franklin and Ms Lauryn Hill and sermons by theologians Ruby Sales and Vashti M McKenzie and she takes readers into a sermonic artwork of artists preachers and freedom movement activists who are as Hill contends the greatest virtuosic alchemists of our time The Boundaries of Blackness Cathy J. Cohen,2009-01-13 Last year more African Americans were reported with AIDS than any other racial or ethnic group And while African Americans make up only 13 percent of the U S population they account for more than 55 percent of all newly diagnosed HIV infections These alarming developments have caused reactions ranging from profound grief to extreme anger in African American communities yet the organized political reaction has remained remarkably restrained The Boundaries of Blackness is the first full scale exploration of the social political and cultural impact of AIDS on the African American community Informed by interviews with activists ministers public officials and people with AIDS Cathy Cohen unflinchingly brings to light how the epidemic fractured rather than united the black community She traces how the disease separated blacks along different fault lines and analyzes the ensuing struggles and debates More broadly Cohen analyzes how other cross cutting issues of class gender and sexuality challenge accepted ideas of who belongs in the community Such issues she predicts will increasingly occupy the political agendas of black organizations and institutions and can lead to either greater inclusiveness or further divisiveness The Boundaries of Blackness by examining the response of a changing community to an issue laced with stigma has much to teach us about oppression resistance and marginalization It also offers valuable insight into how the politics of the African American community and other marginal groups will evolve in the twenty first century Gendered Violence and Human Rights in Black World Literature and Film Naomi Nkealah,Obioma Nnaemeka,2021-03-30 This book investigates how the intersection between gendered violence and human rights is depicted and engaged with in Africana literature and films The rich and multifarious range of film and literature emanating from Africa and the diaspora provides a fascinating lens through which we can understand the complex consequences of gendered violence on the lives of women children and minorities Contributors to this volume examine the many ways in which gendered violence mirrors expresses projects and articulates the larger phenomenon of human rights violations in Africa and the African diaspora and how in turn the discourse of human rights informs the ways in which we articulate interrogate conceptualise and interpret gendered violence in literature and film The book also shines a light on the linguistic contradictions and ambiguities in the articulation of gendered violence in private spaces and war This book will be essential reading for scholars critics feminists teachers and students seeking solid grounding in exploring gendered violence and human rights in theory and practice Lesbian Potentiality and Feminist Media in the 1970s Jed
