

Dear Mentee,

I am so excited to be your mentor this year that I would love to POST IT up everywhere!

We should just do FLIPS that you decide to join our team here at H. P. Miles Intermediate and I hope that you are excited, too. As part of my job, I want to help you get used to this campus and all the new thing that you will need to know. If you ever have any questions, I want you to be sure to just PENCIL me in for a little EXTRA time to get together! I really don't mind.

This year is sure to be filled with a few Moans&Miracles. Sometimes you may feel like you are working with a bunch of NERDS or that you are losing your MARBLES, but we have all felt this way before and we work as a team. Eventually, you will love us all to PIECES. Until then, REWARD yourself, take a SIP or two and wait until PAYDAY.

WELCOME ABOARD PIRATE!

Your Mentor,

Mentoring and Diversity Belle Rose Ragins, David Clutterbuck, Lisa Matthewman, 2012-04-27 Organizations with a diverse workforce will have a leading edge in the New World economy. Mentoring and Diversity illustrates the importance of mentoring as a proactive tool in diversity initiatives and demonstrates how mentoring can be used to recruit, develop, and retain a diverse and innovative workforce. This book brings together new and innovative perspectives on diversity and mentoring relationships within a variety of international settings. Mentoring and Diversity provides a unique blend of research and practice and is an indispensable guide for any company that seeks to develop a more diverse workforce. It will serve as a fundamental text for practitioners interested in developing effective mentoring programmes and for researchers seeking to understand these critical and complex relationships. Interviews, cases, and qualitative data from a variety of international settings are used to support the models and theories developed in the text. These cases illustrate diversity in action in mentoring relationships and provide guidance for developing effective mentoring programmes and diverse mentoring relationships in organizations. The book is composed of four sections that reflect theory, research, and practice. An overview of the theory and research on diversified mentoring relationships followed by an applied model of diversity in mentoring relationships. Some empirically based and pragmatic observations of best practices that are used by diversified mentoring programmes in various international contexts. A collection of international case studies of diversity in both mentoring programmes and individual mentoring relationships. These cases illustrate the challenges and benefits associated with diversity in mentoring relationships. Organizational cases are drawn from such companies as Procter & Gamble, Volvo, and World Bank. The mentorship program is the ticket to success that many students need to complete their degree program, prevent burnout, pass the nursing NCLEX examination, and remain in the workforce after graduation. The current attrition rate in baccalaureate nursing programs is 25-50% as is the attrition rate in the first 2 years of employment of new RNs entering the workforce.
